09:05 10	Q	So	09:0	7 10	Α	Okay.
11	Α	Pardon me.		11	Q	But let's go back. At the time, sir, and I think
12	Q	you say two or three things happened?		12		you've said, yes, there were officers who had

18	Α	Well, I don't know how thinly I could slice that,		18	Q	But, with Mr. Wood, was that the case?
19		but certainly had some doubts and, you know, I		19	Α	Yes, I did learn, because Mr. Wood, you know,
09:06 20		wouldn't think that would be unhealthy.	09:0	8 20		would have talked with other investigators at that

22	Α	Well I know that I believe that Gus Weir was		22	Q	And do you remember the nature of Mr. Wood's

24		Chief Wood was one of them, and that, you know,		24	Α	I really don't, sir.

09:25 15	Α	Oh, I guess pardon me.	09:27	15		some of Mr. Lett's report, but again it talks

7 A Okay.
8 Q And again, July 17th, 1990, just to put it in 9 perspective, let me tell you about a couple of
09:30 10 events that we've already heard evidence about.	09:32
The application, the first application by Mr.
12 Milgaard was before the Federal Minister of 13 Justice in, I think, June the 20th or June of 14 1990, or thereabouts. Ronald Wilson provided a
09:30 15 statement to Paul Henderson of Centurion	09:32
16 Ministries recanting some of his evidence at 17 trial, and you recall we've heard evidence about 18 that, about the recantation?
19 A Yes, sir, in the Inquiry.
09:30 20 Q And so this is an article that would be in the	09:32
21 weeks after that. Mr. Lett writes:
22 "A statement given by a star witness in 23 the David Milgaard case that could have 24 discredited his entire testimony appears
09:31 25 to have been withheld from defence	09:33

1	Α	Okay, that's fine, sir.
2	Q	And so there the statement of March 3, 1969, and
3		we have already heard evidence from you and
4		others, Mr. Caldwell, and identified documents
09:32 5		that indicate the March 3rd, 1969 statement was
6		sent by you to Mr. Tallis
7	Α	Yes.
8	Q	prior to the preliminary hearing?
9	Α	I'm sure that's right, sir.
09:32 10	Q	And we've also reviewed the transcript where
11		Mr. Tallis cross-examined Ron Wilson with respect
12		to the March 3rd, 1969 statement.
13	Α	And I believe, sir, that that was the one to 14		Inspector Riddell; was it not?
09:32 15	Q	Yes, it is.
16	Α	So that all of that I
17	Q	And you recall, I think, the other day, or maybe
18		the last sitting when I went through your closing
19		address to the jury, you also mentioned to the
09:32 20		jury in your closing address the fact that
21		Mr. Wilson had talked to Inspector Riddell in
22		March of '69. Do you recall us going through
23		that?
24	Α	No doubt I did, sir.
09:33 25	Q	And so then if we can go down to the next

9		Now, I'll go through the article later, but
09:31 10	Α	Very good.
11	Q	would you have been aware of this allegation or
12		charge against you at the time?
13	Α	At which time, sir?
14	Q	At the time the article was
09:31 15	Α	Is it a Winnipeg article?
16	Q	I think it was carried elsewhere, but did you
17		become aware at any point, Mr. Caldwell, in 1990,
18		that there was an allegation made by David Asper
19		that you withheld Ron Wilson's first statement
09:31 20		from Mr. Tallis?
21	Α	I can't say now, sir, I very well may have, and
22		when there's an opportunity I would like to expand
23		on which statement we're talking about here.
24	Q	Right. Well, maybe I will go through the article

3	Α	Okay, very good, but just that far, sir, clearly
4		that's the statement to Inspector Riddell.
09:33 5	Q	Yes, it is.
6	Α	Which is just to which of course I did, or we
7		or I did not accept as being truthful, and I know
8		we've also been through that, sir, but I can
9		expand if you wish.
09:33 10	Q	No, we've been through that.
11	Α	That's fine.
12	Q	And just what I want to get at, Mr. Caldwell, is
13		the issue
14	Α	Yeah.
09:33 15	Q	and to go through whether or not you gave that
16		statement to Mr. Tallis, the disclosure of the 17		statement.
18	Α	Well, yeah, it's right in my covering letter to
19		Mr. Tallis. There were two statements went to him
09:33 20		which would be the one to Inspector Riddell and
21		the one to Saskatoon city.
22	Q	And I want to go through this newspaper article
23		because it talks about an allegation made against 24		you that you failed to disclose that.
09:34 25	Α	Very good, sir.

8	Q	I believe it did.
9	Α	Okay. Well, that's progress I guess. Now then
09:40 10		the May 23rd statement is the one which I at least
11		conceived of as being his truthful statement to

24	Α	Right.
09:40 25	Q	that Ron Wilson was questioned on the statement

1		your part in failing to provide the first
2		statement of Ron Wilson to Mr. Tallis.
3	Α	Well, there was so much press coverage going on
4		from various sources, Mr. Hodson, that I
09:38 5		personally I personally couldn't, you know,
6		undertake to run around and try and rebut all of
7		it, or maybe even any of it.
8	Q	What is your reaction to this article as I read it
9		to you now?
09:38 10	Α	Well, it's wrong.
11	Q	What is wrong with it?
12	Α	Okay, I can go through that. In the first place,
13		Mr. Wilson's first statement, which was to 14		Inspector Riddell, was sent to Mr. Tallis, and
09:39 15		that's it's identified by date and so on in one
16		of my letters to Mr. Tallis, I'm sure you are
17		aware of that, and that's the one that's covered
18		in that second paragraph. Could you possibly blow
19		this up a little, please?
09:39 20	Q	Sure.
21	Α	Okay, that's fine. Okay. So a statement given by
22		Ron Wilson to RCMP in Regina March 3rd, 1969 is
23		the statement to Inspector Riddell and then
24		Wilson's first statement stands in stark contrast
09:39 25		with another dated May 23, the Saskatoon statement

1		and that it was before the jury in your closing
2		address.
3	Α	Yeah, and it could, by definition, it could not
4		fit into "was never told of its existence", Cal
09:41 5		Tallis, etcetera, was never told of its existence.
6		It was in his possession.
7	Q	Right, and so I have two questions for you.
8	Α	Okay.
9	Q	One, and we'll hear from Mr. Asper on his position
09:41 10		on this, but where he says it is painfully obvious
11		from the transcripts that Tallis did not direct
12		Wilson to the original statement, and again I
13		think, I mean, do you think that is wrong?
14	Α	Yeah, that I don't know. I didn't go through
09:41 15		Mr. Tallis' cross-examination of Wilson in any
16		detail.
17	Q	We did with Ron Wilson and in the transcript
18		Mr. Tallis does go through parts of his interview
19		with Riddell.
09:41 20	Α	Okay. So that, Mr. Hodson, is just plain wrong,
21		that first part.
22	Q	And my question then goes to Mr. Asper saying:

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Certainly. We're investigating the circumstances surrounding the murder of Gail Miller which occurred on '69 January 31 at Saskatoon, Saskatchewan and of which David Milgaard was convicted on '70 January 31. More specifically, our investigation has focused on certain allegations which include David Milgaard was wrongly convicted of the said offence and that Larry Earl Fisher was responsible for it.

You and others may have known of Milgaard's wrongful conviction and took steps to suppress that knowledge, including deliberately withholding evidence favourable to the defence from Milgaard's counsel, willfully failing to communicate this knowledge to others, would like then, you've both got copies of the first question as I see it is paragraph 3(a). 3

May 11th 1993 letter we just spoke of and the 2

And I would simply give you what I've written by way of an answer to that, if I may, and that is 5

this. It starts off by saying police reports in 6

the Miller murder file. Now, the entire file of 7

the Saskatoon Crown Prosecutors' Office on the 8

9 Milgaard case was contained in one cardboard tote

10 box approximately 16 by 20 by 12 inches. This included seven file folders made up by myself and 11

the transcript of the preliminary inquiry. With 12

13 respect to Gail Miller's death, our office had only the Regina vs. Milgaard file, which stayed 14 intact in the Crown Prosecutors' Saskatoon office 15

until, I understand, it was moved to Regina, as 16

part of the Supreme Court of Canada hearing 17 process. I searched this file at the request of 18

Mr. Eugene Williams in 1989 and forwarded copies 19

20 of the items set out in my letters to Mr.

Williams of June 16th, 1989, which are -- this is 21

22 the letter which I know you people have copies of 23 all these items, but there's my copy.

With that letter went a copy of 24

the letter to Mr. T.G. Street of the National 25 subsequent appeal to the Saskatchewan Court of

Now, the Saskatoon Crown

Prosecutors' file at the time of the preliminary

5 hearing and the trial and the police reports

therein did not, in my memory, and I'm quoting 6

7 here, link the Miller murder to the sexual assaults being committed in the area. That's a 8

9 quote from 3(a) on the first page of your letter.

10 Since these sexual assaults were being committed by a person or persons evidently unknown at the 11

time, no files on them would reach our office as 12

13 no one was charged at the time. Eugene

Williams -- oh, sorry bout that, okay. Eugene 14

Williams requested that I search the file for 15

other sex assaults or "knife" offences. Now, 16

17 this is in page 4 of my letter to Eugene Williams of October 25th, 1989. And I did not, in the 18 language again of 3(a), "have available all 19 police facts and files" and I was not aware that 20

the police saw similarities between "the rapes" 21

and the murder of Gail Miller, and I emphasize if 22

23 that was the case, if that was the case I didn't know about it and I have no reason to believe 24

25 they did, but that's what I can say.

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

Parole Board dated June 14th, 1972 and a letter 1

to a Mrs. Nancy Flintoft-Meronek, National Parole

Board, date is August 15th, 1977. And... I just paused there to say that I was working for the 4

5 Federal Department of Justice in Saskatoon at that time when I had some of these Parole Board 6

letters retyped because we were working from 7

ancient carbon copies or photocopies of file 8

9 copies which were becoming illegible, so if anyone's wondering, that's why we have nice crisp new ones, And of course they were not changed in 12 that process.

13

Then on October 25th, 1989, I wrote Mr. Williams and sent it, and sent him a very comprehensive set of copies of items from the Crown file, and I know you have that letter

as well. And then October 31st, 1989 I wrote Mr. 17

Williams again, sent him the autopsy report, a 18 19 Wilson statement and two Cadrain statements.

Now, at that time of course I 20

21 was with Federal Justice and I went and searched 22 the file at what is now called Provincial

Department of Justice in Saskatoon, and at that 23

time the file was in the same condition as when 24

25 it was closed after the 1970 trial and the Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

Then on -- on March 2nd, 1992 I was asked by Inspector Quinn at the Saskatoon

Police Department about my knowledge of the 3

so-called script document, which is appendix B to 4

my statement to Sergeant Pearson dated March

11th, 1992. Now, at that time I went down to the 6

Saskatoon Police Department and, for the first 7

time, I saw the Gail Miller murder file, which is 8

9 a set of large binders which were some four or

speak. I did not then or ever read through that 11

12 file, which was obviously much larger than the Saskatoon Police Department file forwarded to our 13 office for the Milgaard prosecution. So there's, 14

in my view, an important distinction between the 15

Milgaard prosecutors' file that came to us and 16

17 the overall Gail Miller murder file which is a much different proposition. 18

19 Now, I have no memory now of any other offences, sexual or otherwise, which 20

may have occurred in Saskatoon at or near the 21 22 time of Gail Millers murder, And I was not aware that, again a quote here from 3(a) again, "police saw similarities between the rapes and the murder 24 of Gail Miller." I was not aware of that if that 25 was the case, and of course I have no knowledge whether that was the case or not.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Just in further to that, did you ever at any time have two files, namely, the Milgaard file or the Fisher file from which you could draw comparison?

BOBS CALDWELL: None at all, and later on we'll get into that in greater depth, but I can say to you now that the only time our office ever got what I would call a file was as a result of someone being charged. Fisher was never charged in Saskatoon until the much later, you know, confessions arising out of his Winnipeg arrest, and we never had a Fisher file ever, whatsoever. All that I did was transmit a request from Ken MacKay to Deputy Chief Corey which I think I can expand on a little further down, but we never had a Larry Fisher file. Never had a reason to have anything.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay, just -- just a question now, may be an appropriate time. You say you went down to Saskatoon Police Office and that's the first time you saw the police file?

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: And the only time you saw the police file. The first and only time you saw the police file?

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah. I'm making the distinction though between the David Milgaard file, which we the Crown here had, and the Gail Miller murder file.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Right.

9 BOBS CALDWELL: Which are not the same 10 thing and are vastly different in quantity and 11 scope.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Right, because the police file would contain material that you didn't need for your prosecution?

BOBS CALDWELL: Absolutely, plus I would think a lot of it probably was collected after this trial was all over I would think, You know, in view of the subsequent allegations, etcetera, so I never did see that.

20 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay, I have a question 21 surrounding that, and in the investigation as we 22 have gone so far, one of the questions that we 23 have tried to clarify was how the file was put 24 together to ultimately come over to your office;

25 In other words, who put that together, and we

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

by RCMP

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

I have got comments all the way from, well, a

2 certain individual put it together, to well the

3 whole file was taken over, dumped on Mr.

4 Caldwell's desk and he picked out aspects of that

5 file that he wanted for his prosecution. Do you

6 recall that ever happening, Where the file was

7 brought over to you and you were -- went through

8 it and picked out those aspects that you felt

9 would, would help you with the prosecution?

BOBS CALDWELL: No. The way this worked and, and it's not an area of which I have a tremendous amount of detailed recollection, but

13 we had in Saskatoon, starting in 1965, a Case

14 Preparation officer at the Saskatoon Police Department and it was still one Elmer Ullrich,

16 U-L-L-R-I-C-H, and is now retired, who took all

17 cases and generally got them into good order,

18 found missing witness statements, found lab

19 reports, got after policemen to take statements,

20 and he quite clearly did that operation on this

21 file. And so I would get a file with the

22 covering letter which we've all seen from the 23 Deputy of that day, something called a brief

24 summary, a much longer summary of pages which is

25 also here, a collection of police reports, a

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

1 collection of civilian witness statements they

2 used.

Now at that point I, of course, would be free to say please get me policeman X,

5 get a report from him, or please go see civilian

6 witness Y, get a statement, or have people come

7 in and see me, any kind of follow-up I wanted the 8 police would and did do, But I never received their entire collection, if you will, of raw material on any file, and certainly not on this one.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay, that's adequate, thank you.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: The letter to which you're referring to the Deputy Chief, or from the Deputy Chief to you apparently was dated the 8th of July, 1969?

BOBS CALDWELL: If you have it at hand, I wouldn't doubt that. I know I had it somewhere.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I'm presenting a -- I have a copy here, Mr. Caldwell. I've identified it as appendix number 1 to my questions.

BOBS CALDWELL: That'd be the one, and there was only one. In other words, the file came over with this and we went from there.

1 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Would the brief then 2 have been supplied on this date along with the 3 covering letter?

BOBS CALDWELL: I would assume so, yeah. I 4 would assume so. There'd be the shorter brief, 5 the long, exhaustive brief and in, I would assume 6 the police reports that were identified as being 7 usable and the civilian witness statements that 8 9 were identified at that point by the police as 10 being ones that I would want to call. And that, of course, would all be subject to, as you know, 11 to me changing. 12

BOBS CALDWELL: The numbering thing? I don't recall the numbering routine at all and if I had to, you know, I would be of the opinionthat the things I got were not numbered in that 18 same way. In fact, somewhere earlier on in this

19 I've been asked about numbers. I don't think20 that the material we got had that numbering on

21 it, but you may -- you may know better than I do

22 about that.

23 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Yeah, I may help you out 24 there. We're looking at what you referred to as

- 13 things went to him in -- in instalments.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: If I understand correctly, Elmer Ullrich would have been responsible for preparing the case and bringing it to you?

BOBS CALDWELL: That's right.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: In the various documents that were appended to the file that was presented to you from the City Police, do you recall the numbers which were written in the top right-hand corner pages which alleged to be, we feel are page numbers. Now I'm presenting our file 93-211

to you and you'll notice that there are some page

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: You'll notice the numbers which appear on the face of the document

4 numbers which appear on the face of the docume5 along the left margin, and we have corresponded

6 those numbers to numbers which appear to be the

7 reddened numbers and I was just wondering if you

8 have any knowledge of that.

9 BOBS CALDWELL: I don't -- again, I don't 10 think that the material we got had that numbering 11 thing in place on the documents we got and in a

12 little later on I'll be telling you that if this

13 is the alleged script thing, we didn't get it,

14 But I know we'll cover that later.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Okay.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. Now, when I said that Ullrich prepared the file, of course, he -- he's the one who pulled it together and did the mechanical business of getting everything in 20 order of -- obviously he was not an investigator.

21 That was the detectives with help from the 22 uniformed people, etcetera.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Can I just interrupt

24 you for one second?

25 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Sure, yeah.

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: ... which was in the 6 7 Saskatoon Justice Building...

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, provincial. It's a -- I was working for Federal Justice.

10 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay.

BOBS CALDWELL: And it's important, that 11 distinction. Unfortunately someone changed the 12 13 name of the Department of the Attorney General to the Department of Justice, which now means 14 they're easier to confuse, so I went back to 15 Provincial Justice. 16

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Gotcha.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay, when you went 21 back and went through that file, do you recall at 22 any time seeing any correspondence relating to 23

BOBS CALDWELL: No. I know there was, now because the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal only sits on criminal cases in Regina, that's the rule, so that 99 percent of the time a lawyer

Damo 17431

from what we called Head Office would do the actual appeal. In this case Serge Kujawa did it.

That's done in Regina. I did not go to Regina or 6

7 take any active part in the appeal, and for the time being, the -- the carton I've mentioned 8 would simply be closed and put into closed file 9 in wherever our office was physically located, we moved from the court house to Canterbury Towers 11

in '81, And so by the time all this happened I'd 12 13 been going to Canterbury to look at the file.

But once it was closed there were two or three 14 times I'd dealt with it. Do you want me to tell 15 16 you about those?

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I would, and I guess maybe I, I can help you by asking you a question 18 then. He was convicted, David Milgaard was 19 20 convicted in 1970 on the 31st of January.

4

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: That would sort of end 22 23 your involvement unless there was an appeal.

Now, if there was an appeal, which there was, 24

25 would you then take that file and send it down to

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

1 I know there was because there's a letter from --

from Deputy Chief Corey to, to I think Ken MacKay

in Regina after Fisher's arrest, but I don't think that was ever part of our Milgaard file 4

because there was no connection whatsoever with

Fisher and the Milgaard matter, or the death of 6

Gail Miller, either one, with the exception of 7

the very brief interview by Sergeant Gerry 8

9 McCorriston.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Right.

BOBS CALDWELL: Of, you know, one part of a paragraph saying that he was interviewed as a person who used to catch the bus at the same time.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay. After Milgaard was convicted, what would be the last involvement you would have had with the Milgaard file, prosecution file?

19 BOBS CALDWELL: The one at our office? INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes, the one at your 20 21 office.

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, I -- the way things 22 operated is that in most cases, including this 23 one, any appeal to the Saskatchewan Court of 24

Regina or would you prepare a brief or what would 1 be your involvement in that appeal?

BOBS CALDWELL: None of that at all. Like, you've seen and have a copy of my report on completed cases and it of course would be in the Department's file in Regina. What my involvement

6 in the appeal would be, I would undoubtedly be 7 sent a copy of the notice of appeal, I would 8

9 think by Regina, to say have you got anything to say about this. I expect that I talked to Kujawa 10

by phone over it, over points of law or whatever, 11

but frankly, I've no memory of doing that.

However, I wouldn't quarrel with anyone who said 13

I did. I did not go down to Regina, I did not do 14 any kind of brief of law or answer any written 15

correspondence from Kujawa saying what about this 16

17 point or what about that point. And then he 18 would -- would and did argue it in the Court of Appeal himself. So his name, of course, is on 19

the reported case. 20

21 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay. Would he -- I guess what I'm after is what would he require to do that? What would you send him? Would he be 23 sent the file down? 24 by RCMP Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005 Page 17435 1 basis. On or about March 16th of 1971 2 I was requested by phone by someone in the 3 Department of the Attorney General, Regina, 5 likely Ken MacKay, to have the Saskatoon Police Department forward any outstanding charges they 6 7 had against Larry Fisher for guilty pleas in Regina. I phoned Deputy Chief Corey and relayed 8 9 this request as a result of which he wrote a 10 letter dated March 17th, 1971 to the Department in Regina setting out my request and forwarding 11 the requested information. I did not connect 12 this Larry Fisher in any way with either the 13 Dale -- David Milgaard file or the Gail Miller 14 murder. And, just pausing there, I, until 15 16 recently, was under the impression that Fisher 17 had given a witness statement, but, by exhaustive research, I've now, I'm satisfied he didn't. So 18 19 he wasn't called as a witness, he was not part of 20 the 95 who weren't called 'cause he didn't give a 21 statement. So all he was, was a fellow mentioned

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. So did you want me

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. Now, I think I, I've

occurred in Saskatoon at or near the time of Gail

Miller's murder, I guess nothing else quite 4

registered on me, to the extent that did, And I was not aware that, again using the language of 6

the letter, that "police saw similarities between 7

the rapes and the murder of Gail Miller." I 8 9 guess I already told you people that.

Then I have knowledge of Larry 10 Fisher being apprehended, that's the top of the 11

12 second page of the letter. Okay. Now, on Larry

Fisher, the Saskatoon Crown Prosecutors' office 13

received 95 civilian witness statements of 14 persons who were not called at the trial. I read 15 through these statements twice, once on receipt 16

17 of the file and again on receiving Mr. Tallis' letter of August 21st, 1969. I did not make any 18

19 attempt to remember the names of any of these people, but Fisher did not give a statement to 20

21 the Saskatoon Police Department and was, therefore, of course, not one of the people on this list. And I should add, nor was he one of 23

24 the civilians who was called by the Crown as the other category, So he didn't make it on either

Now, on February 28th of 1990 -- and by the way, I know you have this but 1

there's the, the McCorriston police report with the very brief thing about Fisher. On February

28th, 1990, while employed by the Canada 4

Department of Justice in the Saskatchewan

6 Regional Office, Saskatoon, I received a

7 telephone request from Eugene Williams to search the Provincial Crown Prosecution file for any 8

9 mention of a person named Larry Fisher. On searching the file I found the investigation 10 report of Detective McCorriston dated February 11

12 2nd, 1969, and this one you gentlemen have copies of I know, setting out the interview with Fisher 13

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Reportedly written by Miss -- or Lieutenant Penkala on behalf of the Chief of Police, and I draw your attention to the last paragraph of page 2 and I'll read the text perhaps.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. SGT. M. DRESSLER: Our department has two unsolved cases dating back into October and November of 1968, which involved complaints of rape. In both these cases the victim was attacked from behind while walking in the late evening, forced into a lane and under threat with a knife made to undress and submit to intercourse. The victims were always threatened and forbidden to see the attacker who, after the attack, carried away some of the victim's clothing. In these cases the attacker allowed the victims to replace some of the clothing, usually the outer garment or coat. Now as I see, this document is undated, however, it was taken from one of the BOBS CALDWELL: If that's all right, I'll 5 do that then. Okay, now, in -- still on page 2 6 7 of, of the inspector's letter there's a second paragraph, the Saskatoon Star Phoenix does a 8 9 story, etcetera. My comment on that is, when? I 10 have no recollection of such a story at or near the time of the murder, and I expand on that by 11 saying I have no recollection of a vast number of 12 13 things at this point from that era, obviously. Then I have, given the 14 publicity, in the same paragraph, Mr. Caldwell 15 would have been well aware of other similar 16 17 crimes. I have no recollection of being aware of other similar crimes," or, as mentioned above, of 18 any other crimes at all at that time, period. I 19 20 mean, I, I remember this case 'cause it was an outstanding and difficult and long-lasting thing, files which were apparently in your, your possession. Do you have any knowledge or recollection of that document?

BOBS CALDWELL: Let's just have a look at it. Well, number 1, I don't have any recollection of it ever being part of my materials, if you want to put it that way.

Second, it looks to be, and I -- as if it may be 7

a thing that was composed with a view to putting 8

9 out a public announcement enlisting the aid of the public and giving some of the, you know, 10

things that the police knew about these other 11

12 offences. So, if it came off our file that's

13 news to me, I wouldn't, you know, wouldn't, I simply can't comment on that, I have no 14

15 recollection of it ever coming to my attention, and it looks very much to me as if it was 16 17 constructed with a view, as I say, of putting out a press statement enlisting public help. I don't 18

know if that's of any assistance to you, but is 19

there anything else you want to inquire? 20 21 SGT. M. DRESSLER: No, that's, that's, thank you very much. Perhaps just in keeping 22 with our discussion, can you recall providing a 23 statement to Mr. W.G. Graham on the 19th of 24

25 November, '91? Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

but I couldn't even tell you what other

Now, I have no recollection of ever learning of 1

this offence and then the quote is, "This offence committed by Fisher was not disclosed to the defence." My comment is, was this offence known 4 to have been committed by Fisher at the time of 6 the offence, i.e., did the victim know Fisher?

Was this episode published? I have no 7 recollection now of having heard of this episode 8

9 at the time. But the way that reads, you see, implies -- I mean, to me the victim would have 10 had to know Fisher personally when it says this 11 offence committed by Fisher. I don't know whether the victim knew him personally and I have no recollection of the episode whatsoever.

And then, if you wish, that brings me to B on page 2, that Mr. Caldwell

17 failed to disclose at the original trial the identity of two witnesses, Mr. and Mrs. Merriman, 18 who were in or had a view of the alley near the 19 murder. My comment to that was who are Mr. and 20 21 Mrs. Merriman? Are they part of the 95 witnesses that we mentioned earlier? Because one of the things I haven't had is the list of the 95 23

witnesses. 24

Now, if you would like, I -- I

Sheet 29 of 94 Page 17441 to 17444

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

by RCMP

Page 17441

can tell you that I've, I have since come to the

- understanding that these were two people who had 2
- a view of the alley near the murder scene and are 3
- mentioned only in some policeman's investigation
- report. I -- I wouldn't have called them if they 5
- said I -- I looked down the road and didn't see
- anything, unless it were extremely critical 7

- timing involved or they were some way able to say 8
- 9 that episode didn't happen. If you'd simply
- 10 called people who said I lived near there and
- looked out the door and didn't see anything, the 11
- trial would still be going on, We just literally 12
- 13 can't do that, and unless you're doing it for
- oblique motives, I didn't call them, There was 14
- no -- so I now understand it that there was no 15
- statement from them, period. So if you'd like to 16
- 17 ask me about that, I'd be happy to answer that.
- SGT. M. DRESSLER: There are -- there are 18
- the identities of two other individuals which 19 20 were described in a police report as travelling
- down the alley the night of the 31st of January, 21
- 22 '69 at approximately 10 PM. It may well be that
- these are the individuals to whom the allegation 23
- refers, although it is not clear. The name of 24
- one of the individuals was Barbara Best, the 25

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

other was Linda Barron. Barbara Best does appear 1

- on one of the index -- in that index of 95
- witnesses. Can you recall her at all? 3
- BOBS CALDWELL: Not in the least. I -- not 4
- 5 her name, nothing about her, and indeed not the - names of the other 94 people, so. Is that okay 6
- for the Merrimans? Now, the next point here is
- 7
- that in C, Mr. Caldwell failed to offer in 8
- 9 evidence that Rasmussen, the motel manager, says
- he did not see any blood on Milgaard, nor did he 10
- observe any unusual demeanour from him. Now, if 11
- Rasmussen did not mention blood on Milgaard or
- unusual behavior by Milgaard, the presumption 13
- would be that there was none of either. In other 14
- words, you don't assume that he'd behaved 15
- unusually or that he had blood on him, you assume 16
- 17 that he -- that neither of those things happened
- and that both those things are in his favour. 18
- Those are assumed to be normal and that is in 19
- favour of the accused. If these two items were 20
- 21 not led in chief, the presumption would be that
- 22 both were regular, i.e., there was no blood,
- there was no unusual behavior. If I asked any 23
- blood, questioned any blood on him or questioned 24
- 25 any unusual behavior by him in

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

by RCMP

Page 17443

- examination-in-chief, that would be leading and
- it would not be allowed because Rasmussen was my 2
- witness, so I couldn't lead him by saying was
- there blood on the accused, did he behave
- 5 unusually.

10

12

Now, if the defence did not ask

- 7 those questions, they could properly argue in
- summing up that there is no evidence by Mr. 8
- 9 Rasmussen that the accused had blood on him or
- 10 was behaving unusually. I mean, that would be
- quite proper, But the only way it could be raised 11
- is by the defence, in my opinion, and if neither 12
- 13 of us raised it, there's no presumption it
- happened, all of which helps the accused. 14

Now, the next point is that

- evidence was held -- withheld from the defence. 16
- 17 This is item D, the trial jury did not hear all
- the evidence. Now, my first question is what 18
- evidence because I don't know what this refers 19
- 20 to, but if I can come back to that. The Supreme
- 21 Court of Canada held on page 4 of the judgment,
- and I quote, "We have not been presented with any 22
- 23 probative evidence that the police acted
- improperly in the investigation of the robbery, 24
- 25 sexual assault and murder of Gail Miller, or in

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

- their interviews with any of the witnesses. Nor 1
- has evidence been presented that there was
- 3 inadequate disclosure in accordance with the
- practice prevailing at the time." 4

Just allow me a little

- editorial comment here. I can't answer this 6
- without specifics as to what evidence was 7
- allegedly withheld from the defence. Now, if you 8
- 9 gentlemen can help me with that. That's a
 - meaningless question unless -- unless someone
 - says you did A, B, C or D.
 - INSP. M. SAWATSKY: If I can, if I can
- maybe help to clarify that. I believe that came 13
- forward from Mrs. Milgaard's interview where she 14
- talked about other witnesses who didn't see 15
- anything and weren't called and I, and my own 16
- 17 feelings are that you have adequately explained
- that when you talked about the Merrimans and 18
 - those other people that you didn't call because they had no evidence to offer.
- 21 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, because it's very --
- it's very, you know, it's very serious to say 22
- that someone withheld evidence from the defence. 23
- 24 I'd be very happy to deal with specific
- 25 allegations, but I can't answer that in the

Sheet 30 of 94 Page 17445 to 17448

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview by RCMP Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005 Page 17445 1 abstract, and if you feel it's been covered I'm 2 happy. INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I'm satisfied it has 3 with your answer to the Merrimans and, Max, do 5 you agree? Do you have any problems with that? SGT. M. DRESSLER: No, I agree, I agree 6 7 completely. I just wanted to make a note that 8 you've discussed, discussed disclosure in pages 4 9 to 10 of your statement with Sergeant Pearson in 10 terms of specifics. 11 BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah. 12 SGT. M. BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, I did. And if we, if you wish I can deal with this now. It may be coming up later, but the first thing I would say was that I quite honestly don't even remember if the term disclosure was in use in those days, but we made an effort in our office to make disclosure to the defence for a whole bunch of reasons. Number one, it's sort of the right thing and ethical to do; number 2, it in some percentage of cases leads to guilt pleas or

I have no record of giving them to Mr. Tallis, but it's very clear from his cross-examination at the preliminary hearing and maybe the trial that

1 2 3 he had those previous statements by Wilson, some 4 5 of which were false, some of which were partial, 6 until Wilson eventually gave what I believe to be 7 the true statement after seeing Sergeant Roberts. 8 So there's a good deal of formal recording of 9 what disclosure I made and there was more 10 disclosure I made that, as far as I can see, 11 never got reduced to writing, but it's clear from the transcript that it happened. And then, of 12 13 course, the letter from Mr. Tallis to me asking 14 me to reread the, all the civilian witness 15 statements. I did that. And ...

having to call witnesses because things are admitted as facts and all kinds of things. Now, in this case, first of all, you know, regardless of how it came out, it -- it's a very important case to the, our community. Second, it's very important to the accused. Third, I was dealing with Mr. Tallis who, I having prosecuted in Regina from 1958 till '62 and then here onwards, more than simply my opinion, was regarded as the leading defence counsel in the province of that day, and I feel I have personal knowledge of that. I had had a great deal to do with him over the years and he, in turn, had a very great, you know, responsibility in defending this case to be sure he got everything, So I made exhaustive disclosure which, as you mention, is largely set out in the letters that are appendices to

In addition to that, I've now concluded that I gave things to Mr. Tallis which never got recorded in so many words, the best example being the various statements by Wilson.

Sergeant Pearson, my statement to Sergeant

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. I think I was going on about disclosure there.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: That's exactly right, yeah.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. The statement to Sergeant Pearson as we've noted has, I think, all my letters to Mr. Tallis. They, in turn, set out what statements were enclosed and I -- I know that more was given to him than got recorded, by mainly mentioning to the Wilson business, and anything, of course, that he wanted pursued was done. He, of course, as an example, sat in when we interviewed Inspector Roberts, the polygraph operator, and so, you know, there was no, no spirit of me holding out on him, or vice versa, whatsoever. I -- I can answer anything specific you want, but I certainly made every effort to make full disclosure for -- one of the many, many reasons is you wouldn't want an important case like this which ended up coming off properly to be reversed because you failed to ship some document to somebody. So unless you have anything more, that would be my reply. Is that okay on that? We can come back.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Yes.

BOBS CALDWELL: Now, one that I noted here, 1 which totally baffles me, is E, evidence was 2 withheld from the defence, A trial jury did not 3 hear the evidence, I guess we've covered that, pardon me, that's D. Letter E, statements 5 withheld by Caldwell prove that Milgaard was not 6 in the vicinity. Now, I have no earthly idea 7 what that's about, and I hope you can help me. 8 9

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I think that what 10 they're talking about there is sort of a continuing from Rasmussen saying that -- and it's 11 been, I think, Mr. Wolch has alleged all along 12 13 that Milgaard was not there at the time because he was actually at the Trav-a-leer Motel and that 14 that information about him being at Trav-a-leer 15 Motel and Rasmussen being able to testify that 16 17 was withheld.

questions for me.

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, we, we put in all we knew about their sequence of travel around that neighbourhood. As you may realize, that I had this particular map made by the City Police to show all those locations that they went to, the Trav-a-leer, the Belmont Texaco, etcetera, and in all the evidence we were aware of was put in for better or for worse. Now, in all cases like this

1 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: And of course that 2 again sort of excludes them from being there at 3 the particular time, but the Crown's theory 4 alleged they were.

BOBS CALDWELL: And it was also 40 below and foggy if I remember correctly, so --

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Uh hmm.

BOBS CALDWELL: There weren't too many potential witnesses hangin' around. (Chuckles).
Anyway, I hope that is a suitable answer.

Now, the next one I have is non-disclosure of evidence that Rasmussen, Nichol John, Danchuk, and Sharon Williams did not see 14 blood on Milgaard's clothing. If I may, I'll simply ask you to take my answer about theRasmussen business being the identical thing.

16 Rasmussen business being the identical thing.17 All these people were called as witnesses; I'm

18 not sure about Sharon Williams, maybe not. Okay,

19 but it was open, of course, to the defence to say

20 isn't it true, Mr. X, that you didn't see blood on, on my client's clothing. I can't lead it.If the defence asks the, you know, if they get a 23 positive answer saying yes, there was no blood,

24 that's fine. If they don't, the presumption is

25 there was none. So, I mean, what can I do? I

there's never precise agreement on things happening down to the minute, and I know that some people have argued, as an example, there wasn't time for him to do the murder. I didn't 4 write the script. Somebody did it and we put in all the evidence we had and it was open to the 6 jury to decide that he was not in the vicinity, 7 or the Crown got the wrong guy. They decided 8 evidently that he was in the vicinity and did the 9 murder. Now, unless -- I don't know what more I 10 can say on that, unless you have specific 11

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I have nothing further to add.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, because I know in, in criminal cases invariably you can't, you never come down to precision timings, you simply don't.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes, and I think also part of that is the, the several witnesses who say they had a view of the intersection of Avenue N, I believe, Max, and 20th Avenue...

BOBS CALDWELL: 20th Street.

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, well ...

1 can't improve on what happened there.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: And then again that -- would that evidence in your opinion be in favour of the Crown or favour of the Defence?

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, the way it stands, if there's non-disclosure of evidence of -- well, it's very awkwardly worded. Let me put it this

8 way, if no one says there was blood, the presumption is there was no blood, So that's what they ended up was apparently with evidence of no

11 evidence about blood, which, in my opinion, is the same as there being no blood. Mr. Talliscould very properly say you heard witnesses A, B, and C, and you'll notice none of them mentioned

15 blood on his clothing, and that clashes with D, E and F, So he couldn't have had it better than that. Then I have -- is, is that all for that?

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes.

BOBS CALDWELL: 'Kay, now, G, I failed to disclose Simon Doell's evidence re the bus used by Miller. And perhaps you gentlemen could... I have here who is Simon Doell? Perhaps you could 24 help me because I have no memory of that at all.

25 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Simon Doell is -- do you want to hand him the, that copy of the police report and let him read it? That may... we have a short excerpt from the police report here where 3 Simon Doell is mentioned. I'm not aware that 5 Simon Doell was of those 95 witnesses there of the statements that, that were not, were or were 6 not called but, we have a (unintelligible) I 7 think it's over her, Max, Sorry. That's it right 8 9 there. And just refer to that document.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I'm showing to you a police report dated February 6th, 1969, with the number 135 in the top right-hand corner and it refers to Mr. Doell, if you wish to review that.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. Okay, this is a person saying that on occasions he'd been riding on the bus and when Miss Miller got on the bus she always ... something ... on the corner of Avenue N and 20th directly across from the funeral home. He missed her on the bus a couple of times and asked her how she was getting to work. She said she was getting a ride, she did not elaborate on this remark, and that's Morality Officer Dimmitt.

The City Police, you know, did an exhaustive job on this investigation to the extent of going and collaring people who were getting on similar buses the next one or two or three mornings, and if I knew about that Simon Doell, if that was his evidence, I wouldn't have called him, Just another guy getting on the bus who may or may not have been with her on any given morning. Like, I can't see that it helps or hurts anybody.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Could this have been connected to the Crown's theory that Gail Miller was walking on Avenue N when the attack took place, or when the sequence of events were initiated? Do you have any recollection of that?

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, the...

19 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Perhaps more properly, can you recall the -- the theory at the time? 20 21

BOBS CALDWELL: Well...

22 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Ah, what's yes...

BOBS CALDWELL: ... the Crown's theory, you

24 -- mean, was that she had left her residence, which doesn't show up on this, but it, I believe,

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

is on Avenue 0, and it's either 130 probably, let's say. Presumably came, what I would call, 2

east on 21st headed, what I would call south on N 3 to catch the bus at 20th, and the funeral home is 5 at, at or about 1402 20th, and quite clearly the episode happened around this lane leading, which 6

was leading to the T alley that's been described 7

so many times. There's no question at all, I 8

9 mean, that's not a theory to me, that's what

10 happened, I mean there's no evidence pointing away from that, and the business of asking this 11

girl whether she knew where Peace Hill was, there 12

is no Peace Hill in Saskatoon, there's an area 13

14 called Pleasant Hill, and when she didn't know, that the remark the stupid bitch made by the 15 16 accused. Sorry, I've digressed a little bit. I guess you could call it the Crown's theory, but I 17

think it's more than a theory. By the time you

19 have the evidence of Wilson and John and the police and where things were found, that the 20

thing happened commencing on -- on, at or near 21 this opening of the alley on N. 22

23 SGT. M. DRESSLER: I guess what I'm, what

I'm getting at, is that, is there anything to 24

suggest that she may have been accosted on Avenue

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

0 as she was proceeding to 20th, taken by vehicle around to the lane way? We're not disputing the fact that it occurred at the lane way?

BOBS CALDWELL: That was never suggested to me and I'm -- I -- I just, from all the facts I remember, there was no sug ... like, suggestion 6

that the inquiry about Peace Hill took place 7

8 anywhere but on the road where the car got stuck,

9 all of which is Avenue N.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I guess then in keeping with this Simon Doell entry on the police report...

BOBS CALDWELL: Uh hmmm.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: ...I guess it, could it be possible that -- that -- with Doell stating that she always got on the bus at Avenue N, that may have influenced the Crown's theory, or do you have any recollection of that? 18

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, no, it wouldn't influence me because I have no memory of ever reading the Doell thing, and because -- let's suppose he had insisted she always got on at

23 Avenue 0, I wouldn't believe him, because the 24 evidence was of the Wilson car coming down Avenue

N, the inquiry being made somewhere along here, 25

Sheet 33 of 94 Page 17457 to 17460

then getting roughly to the corner, getting stuck, Milgaard heading back toward the girl, 2

Wilson heading away to get help and Nichol John, 3

about whom we could talk at length, being --

5 seeing at least part of Milgaard leading this girl up the alley and stabbing at her with the 6

knife. So it never, ever was suggested by 7

anybody that it, any of this happened on Avenue 0 8

9 to my recollection.

10

13

15

10 SGT. M. DRESSLER: That answers my question, thank you. 11

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, okay.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I think what, what gave 13

rise to that question is the fact that in the 14

reenactment done by Mr. Wolch and Mr. Asper, et 15

16 al, they're of the view that being so cold

17 there's no reason for her to cross Avenue N, she would have simply gone down Avenue 0 and gone to 18

19 the Avenue 0 bus stop. So they take issue with 20 the fact that the Crown is saying she went to the

Avenue N bus stop and say that in their opinion 21

22 they feel that it would be more likely for her to

23 go to the Avenue 0 bus stop and that's, that's what gave rise to that Simon Doell... 24

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, I mean, anybody could 25

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

have any view they want, I mean, she, I suppose if she was a physical exercise fan could have gone three or four blocks down 20th to catch the bus. I, I wasn't writing the script and nor, I'm 4 pleased to say, were Mr. Wolch or Mr. Asper. But in any event, aside from facetiousness, there was nothing ever to suggest Avenue 0 as the, as the 8 locale of their encounter with this girl.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Thank you.

BOBS CALDWELL: 'Kay. Okay, now I think that gets us to page 3 of your letter, Inspector, 12 and the item H I've got...

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes, I agree.

BOBS CALDWELL: All right. What I've written down about that is, or noted, is the prosecution file was complete as recently as 1989

when I last searched it at the request of Eugene 17

Williams. I did not destroy any material from 18

19 the file at any time. I don't know what is meant by a "C" file. Our office in Saskatoon, from 20

21 1962 when I arrived here, till 1987 when I left

22 that office, used only manilla-coloured,

legal-sized filing folders. We did not have, nor 23

24 did I personally use, yellow or any other

25 coloured filing folders, And I don't know of any Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

by RCMP

"missing documents". Now would, can we expand on 2 that, is...

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I can tell you where 3 that came from, where I believe that came from.

5 When we had our meeting with Mr. Wolch he made reference to a C file which he could not give us 6 any more detail as to where he felt it came from.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: But we're speculating

10 as, as a group there, that possibly it was notes that you may have made during prosecution on 11

legal-sized yellow foolscap, which I know a lot 12

13 of law firms use. Now, I don't know if you did.

BOBS CALDWELL: I didn't. I -- I used exclusively three-ring binder paper which you've got lots of examples in the exhibit. I never, 16

17 ever used that, that yellow stuff that's so

14

15

20

22

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay. And Mr. Wolch

talks about a C file which he felt may have been 21 a prosecution file.

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah.

23 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Where he got this term

24 from I don't know because nowhere in our investigation, and we've had, our members have 25

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

gone through every single document, have we come 1 upon this file. So whether it's something from Mrs. Milgaard or, or what I don't know. But we,

I think, have assumed, all of us, including Mr. 4

Wolch, that it was likely the prosecution file.

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, it, it wasn't, and I said a minute ago I used foolscap, which is not 7

three-ring binder size, it's closest to legal 8

9 size, with a thing called a springback binder, and you've got my original notes, and lots of 10

them in your file, which would illustrate that, 11

12 and I know I don't need to show you pages of it,

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Well, would the notes 14

then that are in the file constitute, to your knowledge, all of the notes that were made and 16

then appended your file and held in that fashion?

BOBS CALDWELL: I didn't have any other

19 files. Everything I had went into the seven filing folders and into that carton. I didn't, 20

21 you know, destroy anything, add anything, squirrel anything away. I had certain extra copies of typed documents that you've seen here 23

24 today that were, that are in multiple copies, including in the Saskatoon Crown Prosecutors' 25 file, so there's absolutely no -- nothing was destroyed, there were no C files and no yellow anything as far as I'm concerned.

INSP M SAWATSKY: Okay I guess just

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay, I guess just to, to sort of close that issue if we can.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Do you recall or are you familiar with the term C file or yellow file?

9 BOBS CALDWELL: Absolutely...

10 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Does that mean anything 11 to you?

BOBS CALDWELL: No, C file. My initial,
I'd been known, of course, to end little notes with C for Caldwell. No C file though. No, I -it doesn't mean a thing to me. Absolutely not.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Through our inquiries wehave determined that on the back of the document

22 what I said in the Sergeant Pearson statement I

23 adopt on that. I'll expand if, if I could, but 24 there's really not much more I could say.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I see no need, thank

BOBS CALDWELL: Oh, I would, I would be delighted if you would.

3 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: But Mr. Wolch wasn't 4 able to help us anymore than that, he sort of 5 threw it out and we haven't been able to, to find 6 anything more to support that.

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, I feel better now,(chuckles) 'cause I certainly can't help you.

9 Then the next thing I have, if that was all on

10 that mouth and in this latter to a continuous

10 $\,$ that, gentlemen, is this letter I prosecution was

11 in possession of a document summarizing,

12 etcetera. Now, here's -- my answer to that is 13 this: Is this the alleged "script" document? If so, it's covered in my statement to Sergeant Pearson above. Now, I did not, to quote this,

16 "deny ever seeing this document," I described

17 finding it in my statement to Sergeant Pearson.

18 I don't know what's meant by, and then another

19 quote, "file markings indicating that it was

20 received and filed at the Crown Counsel's

21 office." Now you'll see, of course, in Sergeant,

22 in Sergeant Pearson's statement what I said about

23 finding it in Regina, which, unless you want to,

24 I wont repeat all that.

25 SGT. M. DRESSLER: I just have some

10 filed at the Crown Counsel's office. Can you

11 help me with that?

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I have no knowledge of those markings.

BOBS CALDWELL: But they're not in anything that, that either I have or the R.C.M.P. has.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I've located nothing in our files which suggests any markings...

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: ... stating they were

20 received by the Crown's office.21 BOBS CALDWELL: So, s

BOBS CALDWELL: So, so, you know, that to me is incorrect and...

23 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: That again is an allegation of Mr. Wolch and we again haven't beenable to see that.

BOBS CALDWELL: And it doesn't appear on any of the documents you've, you've rounded up or 2 had access to? 3

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I have never seen anything to that effect.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, that's fine. Then if 6 7 I can go to J, re National Parole Board, I wrote three letters to the National Parole Board all in 8 9 my capacity as Crown Prosecutor on the Milgaard

10 trial, all on our office letterhead. Now, the first of those, June 14th, 1972, I wrote Mr. T.G. 11 Street and it's your document 198P536-540, that I 12

13 had read the booklet about the parole system and noted they welcomed reports from judges, 14

magistrates and police. I quoted the citation of 15

the Court of Appeal judgment, on Milgaard that 16

17 is, noted that leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada has been refused, set out the 18

19 facts, enclosed the Court of Appeal judgment,

20 photographs, and reviewed the nine factors set out in the booklet and my views on each of those. 21

I said I had read Milgaard's psychological 22 history; I quoted Dr. Ian McDonald's opinion, and I said I had never written the Board before in my 24

25 13 years as a prosecutor.

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

Second letter, I wrote Mr. 1

William J. Outerbridge, and it's your document 198 page 541 and 542, September 27th, 1974, and 3 advised him of my letter to Mr. Street. I 4

5 suggested getting a release from Milgaard to

6 allow Dr. Ian McDonald to forward Milgaard's psychological history to the National Parole 7

9 Now, third, August 15th, 1977, pages 545 and 546, I think those are your 10 numbers. I wrote Nancy F. Meronek, in reply to 11

12 her letter to me of August 5th, 1977. I sent her a set of the photographs and told her that I had 13

not changed my views. I mentioned the Threinen, 14

which is T-H-R-E-I-N-E-N case, as the most 15 striking recent example of the inadvisability of 16

17 granting freedom to dangerous persons.

Now, just pausing there, I showed you gentlemen these letters earlier, so --19 and I know you have copies of them. 20

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes, we do.

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, okay. Now, my 22

interest in insuring "Milgaard was never 23 released" was based on my comprehensive knowledge 24 of the Gail Miller murder at and around the time

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

by RCMP

Page 17467

of the trial and was motivated by my view of my duty as the Crown Prosecutor at the trial and 2

following it. I don't recall writing the board on other convicted prisoners because I never had

5 a case to prosecute which arose from such a

6 senseless and vicious rape and murder as occurred

7 here with the victim, a stranger to the accused, being left to bleed and freeze to death in the 8

9 dark on a 40 below morning in a back alley. I did attend a course at Banff, Alberta in September of 1974 at which Mr. Outerbridge 11 addressed the registrants of the course. This 12 was the Federation of Law Societies Criminal 13

Procedure Refresher Course. Now, that answer is 14 intended to deal with item J and I'd welcome any 15 questions you may have, now or later. 16

> SGT. M. DRESSLER: Just two short questions. Did Saskatoon Police Department members provide input into the letters that you 19

25

BOBS CALDWELL: No, no.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Did you ever discuss

23 writing the Parole Board with any of the Saskatoon members as you recall? 24

BOBS CALDWELL: I don't recall doing that

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

because I, you know, there was no necessity for 1

me to talk to policemen about it, 'cause I had the whole file, like, of course, I was still with the Provincial Crown, and this was nothing that 4 they generated or inspired. It was, you know, my own idea caused by the things that are mentioned 6 in the letters and I -- I really would have felt 7

very, very guilty indeed had I not brought these

9 things to the attention of the Board in the event that Milgaard had been released and killed 10

11 someone, And again, we had this so graphically

12 set out by the Threinen episode here that I've never felt anything but absolute gratification 13

that I took it on myself to, to write those 14

letters. And it was an index of how terrible a 15

case I thought this was that I really don't think 16

17 I ever wrote any such letter previous to those in 1970 or '71 or whenever they were, and right up 18

19 til '87 when I left that office; In other words,

I did a couple of dangerous sexual offenders, I 20

21 don't believe I wrote on those. So this was an

22 index of, of how gravely I viewed this thing in terms of danger to, you know, the public. But 23

24 no, the police were not involved.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Thank you. 25

1 BOBS CALDWELL: Now, is there anything else on that J right now or, okay. So in K, the 2 question on my relationship with the 3

investigators, I knew all the investigators who 5 were called as Crown witnesses on the Milgaard prosecution. I commenced work in Saskatoon as 6

7 agent of the Attorney General in February of 1962 and I had met all these investigators in the 8

9 course of previous prosecutions. Those called at 10 the trial were T.H. Kleiv, J.H. Parker, G.T.

Reid, J. Penkala, L.R. Grant, G.R. McCorriston, 11

R.E. Fleming, K.S. Mackie, E.A. Karst, R.W. 12

13 Mackie and J. Oleksyn. I knew all those officers in their capacity as policemen and in mine, as 14

agent of the Attorney General. Anything you want 15 to ask me to amplify on that at all, you're 16

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: The only thing that I 18 have by way of clarification is that I was told, 19 20 and there's no documentation to present that, but -- or present to refer to, that you were involved 21 with their union or their association as lawyer.

22 BOBS CALDWELL: (Laughs). 23

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Now, could you just

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Did your relationship or could your relationship with the police be

7 construed as a conflict in terms of compromising your position as an agent for the Attorney 8

General, To your knowledge? 9

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, that would have to arise out of me being their lawyer for their association wouldn't it? So, no -- no and no. If that's what that means, it didn't happen, so it couldn't have any bearing on anything. I mean, I'm amazed that anyone would think it was possible because I was a full-time provincial civil servant and certainly couldn't practice law in any shape or form.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Thank you.

BOBS CALDWELL: 'Kay. Now, letter L, I'll tell you my views on that, and that is that the 21

Saskatchewan Department of the Attorney General 22

must have had a file of its own (a sneeze) on the 23

Milgaard prosecution, if for no greater reason 24

25 than corresponding with the Saskatoon Crown

1 BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, I sure will.

2 MR. HALYK: That's me.

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, first, first 3

(chuckling) of all, I've never practiced law

5 privately, period.

6 MR. HALYK: You know what the confusion is, because at that time Cal Tallis was the 7

8 association lawyer.

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah.

MR. HALYK: And then after Cal left, I took 10 over as the association lawyer. 11

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay. 12

MR. HALYK: But anyway, so that may be the 13

14 confusion, is Tallis.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: All right.

BOBS CALDWELL: I'd like to adopt my 17 learned friend's submission here. But...

MR. HALYK: Not Caldwell (chuckles).

18 19 BOBS CALDWELL: I never practiced law privately. I articled in Regina and went with 20 21 the department in 1958, came here in '62, didn't have any clients whatsoever, and specifically 22 including any police association, clearly I 23 couldn't do that, wouldn't do it and didn't do 24

25 it, and as Mr. Halyk points out, various, you Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Prosecutors about the case, and also appearing in the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court of Canada on the original appeal where leave to 3 appeal was refused shortly after the Court of 4

Appeal case. That, of course, is not the recent

6 Supreme Court hearing we're talking about. I do not know whether, what I call head office, in 7

other words, Regina, obtained the Saskatoon Crown 8

9 Prosecution file from our Saskatoon offices for "appeal purposes" and in the absence of some 10

written record of that occurring, I doubt that it 11

19

Head office would have my

Report on Completed Cases dated February 12th, 14

1970, the trial transcript, the notice of appeal, 15 and any correspondence which might have taken 16

place between the Saskatoon office and the Regina 17

Prosecutions Branch. 18

Now, as to whether I provided

Head Office with "Mr. Fisher's file," I have here 20

21 see answers above, and that refers back to what I

22 said about Fisher earlier in this interview. My office did not have a file on Mr. Fisher. He was 23 not identified as the perpetrator of any 24

25 Saskatoon offences until later he confessed to Sheet 37 of 94 Page 17473 to 17476

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview by RCMP Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005 Page 17473 1 them in Manitoba, whereupon they were disposed of 2 by guilty pleas in Regina, and this is expanded 3 on in my statement to -- to Mr. Graham. I had no 4 "material" to provide head office. 5 Now, is there anything about 6 that -- that paragraph you want to pursue at this 7 point? Because it talks both about Milgaard's file and Fisher's file. We never had a Fisher 8 9 file 10 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: And I think you've 11 adequately answered did Mr. Caldwell provide head 12 office with the material described. 13 BOBS CALDWELL: Didn't have anything to 14 provide them. In fact, what did go didn't come through our office, it went from the Deputy Chief 15 16 of Saskatoon direct to the Regina Department of 17 Justice head office. 18 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Right. 19 BOBS CALDWELL: Didn't -- there's no point 20 in, or reason for it to come through our office, 21 and it didn't. And that is clear, of course, 22 from the letters that you have. 23 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes. 24 BOBS CALDWELL: Is there anything else then 25 on that L one?

Dame 17475 1 you had by way of file material. Max, does that 2 satisfy you? 3 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Certainly. 4 BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, because it's very 5 important to, to, you know -- again, remember 6 that we had a Queen against Milgaard file, That 7 was not the same as the Saskatoon Police/Gail 8 Miller murder file. Neither of those was the 9 same as Regina's Queen against Milgaard file, 10 which would basically have my report and any 11 appeal documents and stuff in it, And we had no 12 Fisher file, oh, of any description. So those 13 are all in little different compartments and 14 can't be kinda mentally pushed all in together, 15 'cause they physically weren't that way. 16 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Perhaps while we're just 17 dealing with this, I may ask this question, which 18 might be appropriate. Did you at any time 19 discuss the case that you were proceeding against 20 Milgaard with Mr. Kujawa and, if so, the 21 circumstances? 22 BOBS CALDWELL: The Milgaard? 23 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Milgaard file itself. 24 BOBS CALDWELL: I'm sure I did. My -- for 25 instance, an example, I'm sure I must have phoned

Having said that I'll -- again, I think it's what the investigators have to bear in mind, that we had a R. vs Milgaard file; the police had a very large Gail Miller murder file. We never had any file on Fisher, period, and I would think a lot of those answers, I can't speak for Mr. Kujawa, but certainly he'd be in the same position with respect to that M, but is there anything specific you want to ask me about that?

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I think you've probably answered that in the fashion you described your file, Saskatoon Police file, and then the file that Regina would have.

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: And I guess the -- the assumption has been that there could have been some crossing of those files, So I really think that you probably addressed this very early on when you explained the file procedure and what

Frankly, I don't remember 9 doing that, because in our offices Del Perras, 10 who was the only other member of the office, he 11 essentially worked on the, a lot of the points of 12 law and he and I would discuss those, but I'm 13 sure I did talk to Kujawa about one thing or 14 another, but not a whole lot more detail than 15 that, I'm afraid. M. DRESSLER: Okay. 8 BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, I got that from amount of conversation ... 8 9 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, sure. 9 somewhere. Oh, I'm sorry, it's -- it's the very 10 INSP. M. That's Mr. Graham's sort 12 nearing the end. 12 13 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. Well then I have, if 13 of opening thing and my statement takes up 14 you're through then with M. from my aspect of it, 14 another couple of full pages, And you have that. 15 still this -- this M. still talks about were 15 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Okay. I wasn't given 16 there other communications, telephone 16 access, or I didn't have access to the first 17 conversations, for instance, which may have 17 page, but that clarifies it. Those are all the 18 included these references. Again, my Milgaard 18 questions that I have about that. BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. If you want that 19 19 file was not full of references to -- to the 20 20 you, you can have I today from me with no Fisher rape or rapes or, I don't even see them as 21 that, I see them as, at that point, unsolved 21 problem, I'll photocopy it. 22 22 sexual crimes which had not been attributed to SGT. M. DRESSLER: Okay, thank you. 23 Fisher. So there's a big jump being made of 23 BOBS CALDWELL: But you do have my 24 assumption there, and it's -- certainly Kujawa 24 statement to Graham? 25 and I never talked about Fisher in any aspect 25 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Yes I do.

whatever, because his existence hadn't been, he had not been identified, you know, aside entirely from the fact that we weren't paying attent ... any attention to anything but this prosecution at that point. So anyway, you can come back if you'd like.

Now the N., letter N. this that Saskatchewan Justice proceeded by direct indictment against Larry Fisher in the Saskatoon rapes, is this an unusual legal procedure? I gave my views on that to Mr. W.G. Bill Graham, who's Executive Director of the Saskatoon Police Commission. I think that should be Saskatchewan. In a statement I gave Mr. Graham November 19th, 1991, when he was investigating the alleged concealment of files concerning Larry Fisher, a copy of this statement is in the material sent with Inspector Sawatsky's letter to Mr. Halyk of June 23rd, 1993, and I adopt what I told Mr. Graham lock, stock and barrel, but I'm happy to expand on it if there is anything specific you'd like to go into. BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, okay, that's good. So, now, do you want to expand on the question of the way the Fisher things were dealt with? As far as I'm concerned it's -- there's nothing whatever sinister about it.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yeah, and I think when we wrote you that we were interested more in the, in the procedure, and actually I think that has been answered by another witness, and I think we now realize that you probably played no role in that. Do you recall if you would have played any role in, in that, and I ...

we would have one or more Fisher files. But there was nothing, there was no point in -- our office knew nothing about him because he was an unknown one or more offenders at that time. So

SGT. M. DRESSLER: When did you become aware that Fisher had been charged by Saskatoon City Police; can you recall?

BOBS CALDWELL: Well the only thing I would ever know about it is -- is that letter from Corey to -- it would be Ken MacKay phoning me saying "please get the City Police to ship in anything they have on Larry Fisher". But, of course, in -- and that was, that was March of '71, just let me look here a minute. MacKay phoned me within a day or so of when Corey sent the letter, because I have a letter from MacKay to the Winnipeg lawyer for Fisher complaining about lack of action, in which MacKay says "our agent in Saskatoon is looking after this". That's all within two or three days of each other. So in -- what that means is he phoned me and said "get Corey to send us all the Fisher stuff".

BOBS CALDWELL: I wouldn't think I would know that because, I mean, they can't lay charges until they know the identity of the accused. They only learned the identity of the accused because the -- he was, you know, what, apprehended in Winnipeg and said "I want to clean this stuff up".

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I might be able to help you here. We're aware that City Police laid charges against -- four rape counts against Fisher in December of 1970.

BOBS CALDWELL: Uh hmm.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: And then it was subsequent to that that he was returned to Saskatchewan and he faced the direct indictment later that, in 1971. Do you have any knowledge of those 1970 charges?

BOBS CALDWELL: No, except what I learned as a result of this whole process. Like, again, you see, they would, we had -- we had no accused physically, we had no court date, we had no file. It was totally the opposite of the usual way of operating because, because presumably the City Police somehow learned that Fisher was the right guy and laid charges. But had Fisher been

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Uh hmm.

BOBS CALDWELL: So, I mean, the -- the Fisher stuff never physically came through our office. I ended up with a carbon copy of the Corey letter to MacKay. And this, of course, is out of your documents. Like he'd send me that carbon copy and it would be presumably filed, or is it? Just a minute, I just want to make sure it is. No, I thought it was copied to us but it wasn't, so I didn't even get that.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Did you ever speak to Mr. Fisher's lawyer, Mr. Greenberg?

BOBS CALDWELL: Absolutely not. Because he would presumably understand that this was a Regina operation. Now in your file that says Fisher/Kujawa, there's a -- all that correspondence is in there in which, in which the Winnipeg lawyer was, in effect, nagging our Regina Head Office to get moving on this thing. He didn't know, there was no reason for him to deal with us, because he was already dealing with Regina and we didn't have anything to, to deal with. We didn't have a file.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Were you aware that Saskatoon City Police had laid charges prior to the direct indictment being sought?

physically in Saskatoon, arrested here, we'd have been involved in court dates, getting ready for the file, etcetera, etcetera. Not a bit of it in this instance, because we weren't asked to process or look after it. And the way it was done was unusual, but there's not a thing about it that's sinister in my estimation, and I think I explained all that to Graham.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Thank you.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I just see we're at the point now where, how you handled your files, and that sort of thing. And I think it would be an appropriate time to take another break and well turn the tape over.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. What I can tell you

- 1 about that is that, at the time of the Milgaard
- 2 trial, my office retained all files intact for
- 3 five years and discarded run-of-the-mill files,
- 4 such as .08's, etcetera, in the sixth, sixth
- 5 year. We retained all files on murders,
- 6 manslaughters, cause death by criminal
- 7 negligence, sexual offenses with a view to, later
- 8 on, dangerous sexual offender applications, and
- 9 files, of course, on those applications
- 10 themselves; inquests following unsolved murders
- and other important files permanently, and that
- 12 practice was still going on when I left the
- 13 office in 1987.
- Now in the Milgaard file, I did
- 15 not remove or destroy any correspondence or other
- 16 material whatever. Prior to my leaving, there
- 17 was no entry of files on microfiche taking place
- 18 in our office in Saskatoon. I don't know what
- 19 the present situation is. That's item N. and I
- 20 would be happy to expand on that if there's
- 21 anything.

- 22 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yeah. I guess the only
- 23 question that arises in my mind, if your policy
- 24 was to destroy files after five years, is there
- 25 any particular thing or can you give a reason as to why you held onto this particular file?

- BOBS CALDWELL: Because, what I told you is
- 3 it was the exception. Like I destroyed
- 4 run-of-the-mill files in the sixth year, but what
- 5 I said was that we retained these other files
- 6 permanently, In other words everything for five
- 7 years, in the sixth year the .08's and ordinary
- 8 stuff would go out, but -- but permanently
- 9 retained murders, manslaughters, cause death by
- 10 crim. neg., dangerous sexual offenders, inquests
- 11 following unsolved murders, other important files
- 12 permanently. So you could go back there now, I
- 13 mean, I hope, and find important files of mine
- 14 going back to 1962. So Milgaard wasn't retained
- 15 as an exception, it was retained as part of the
- 16 rule that we hung on to murders, among many other
- 17 important things.
- 18 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay, thank you,
- 19 that's -- that's clear.
- 20 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. Then, anything else
- 21 on that? 'Kay.
- Then item 0, I have here I do
- 23 not know whether this knife, which is the
- 24 bone-handled hunting knife that's being discussed
- 25 here, was found near the body -- or pardon me,

- 1 I'm misreading this. I do not know whether this
- 2 knife was tested in any way, that's the
- 3 bone-handled knife that's referred to. The
- 4 broken blade of the knife was found near the body
- and a matching handle found nearby, which items
- 6 were initially one knife, and I -- we know that
- 7 there's a photo somewhere of a physical match of
- 8 those two. And that was the murder weapon. The
- 9 bone-handled knife, I -- I suppose, in the course
- 10 of snow melting if you scoured around you could
- 11 find half a dozen unexplained knives in a city
- 12 block, who knows. That one I have no knowledge
- of.
 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Okay, perhaps I can help you out, too, to refresh your memory. The
- bone-handled knife of which we speak was found by
- 17 Kleiv and Oliver on the 28th of February '69 on a
- 18 fence, a fence stringer ...

- BOBS CALDWELL: Uh hmm.
- 20 SGT. M. DRESSLER: ... adjacent or near to
- 21 the body, at 221 Avenue N. South. The knife was
- 22 held until 1970, January 28th, by Kleiv when it
- 23 was turned over to Constable Oliver, and I'll
- 24 show you the file, quote, "... upon instructions
- 25 from Mr. Caldwell agent for the Attorney

- 1 General." I'm showing you a police report, file
- 2 number E22 or page number E22, my Appendix 4,
- 3 which appears to be a completed by Kleiv, I -- I
- 4 think, with certain notations, and I'll read
- 5 them. "... the knife found at 12:30 P.M.,
- 6 February 28th, 1969 at the scene was turned over
- 7 to Constable Ian Oliver at 9:28, or 9:20 A.M.
- 8 January 28th, 1970, upon instructions from Mr.
- 9 Caldwell, agent for the Attorney General."
- 10 Do you have any recollection of that knife at 11 all?
- BOBS CALDWELL: No, I don't, but I don't
- 13 dispute that this is what happened. You know,
- 14 this is in print at that time by one of the
- 15 Police Officers in the Ident. Section and I
 - wouldn't dispute that in the least but I
- 17 certainly don't recall it.
- 18 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Can you speculate as to
- 19 your reason for returning it?
 - BOBS CALDWELL: Returning it?
- 21 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Ordering it returned
- 22 if -- if, in fact, the print is correct.
- 23 BOBS CALDWELL: Well, it simply says
- 24 "turned over to Ian Oliver on instructions from
- 25 Caldwell", I don't see anything about it being

BOBS CALDWELL: See, I don't see any 4 5 mention there of ... INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Turned, just turned 6 7 over to the police member. SGT. M. DRESSLER: Yes, turned over to 8 9 Constable Oliver; do you have any knowledge of 10 that at all? BOBS CALDWELL: No. It could be in, in one 11 of those exhibit charts you and I looked at this 12 13 morning of mine, but I don't have any knowledge of it, but Oliver was presumably one of the 14 Ident. Members, or a uniformed one, one or the 15 16 other. Can't recall the thing now, but it, but I don't attach any importance to it, or 17 18 significance. 19 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Okay, thank you. 20 BOBS CALDWELL: Unless you have some theory that I don't know about. 21

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005 Page 17491 he's, he's one of the investigators assisting with this on the -- with Mr. Wolch's firm. 2 3 BOBS CALDWELL: As far as I'm concerned, it's some knife that showed up when the snow 5 melted, and someone was careful enough to bring 6 it in and not just to throw it away, Never got 7 into the trial I'm sure, and was never seriously advanced. The only thing that I can think of is 8 9 that someone might try and erect that into there 10 being a second party to the offence, someone else helping. There was no sniff of evidence like 11 that. And, as you know, in -- with respect to 12 13 this statement by Nichol John, that would have even been helpful to the Crown if such a thing 14 15 existed. In other words, there was never any 16 indication that Milgaard had a second person 17 assisting him, Nichol John or Wilson or anyone else. I couldn't see anyone who was a party to 18 19 the offense, or potentially a party to the 20 offense. That would be where, I suppose, the 21 importance of another knife would come in. The only problem is there was no evidence to support 22 23 it, so ... But I -- I -- I would certainly deny that it, that knife, had anything to do with 24 inflicting any of the wounds whatever, I mean 25 obviously been hung onto by a policeman as opposed to A. thrown out or B. given back to the householder or something.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: No, I'm not -- no, I'm

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah. I just don't have

4 SGT. M. DRESSLER: There was some, a 5 speculation on the part of Mr. Wolch, or I 6 believe Mrs. Milgaard, that this may have had 7 something to do with the murder. 8 BOBS CALDWELL: Uh hmm.

9 SGT. M. DRESSLER: To your knowledge, was 10 that ever the case? 11

BOBS CALDWELL: No.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I, I think in, in the reviewing of the pathologist report, Mr. Bruce who is a worker or a helper with the Wolch firm, was of the opinion that that knife could have inflicted the fatal blow which, I guess in his 16 opinion, was maybe deeper than the others and 17

therefore this is longer. Do you recall any 18

19 discussions along those lines or, or --

BOBS CALDWELL: No. Well Dr. Emson 20 21 testified at some length, I think, about the 22 knife, characteristics of the cuts, and so on.

And I don't, I don't know who Mr. -- what did you 23

24 say his name was? 25

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: His name is Bob Bruce,

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

that's just out of left field. 1

2 And Dr. Emson very, very carefully examined the wounds. He purchased a, a 3 knife that was similar to the broken knife, and 4

he in fact made test cuts in another cadaver to assess what kind of, you know, cuts this knife 6

7 would make. He did that, absolutely, I'm not the 8 slightest bit facetious about that, 'cause he

9 thought that might well be asked him, and he came to court prepared to, not only prepared to 10 testify on that, but he had the knife that he 11

12 used for that purpose in his possession. That didn't happen to be raised, of course, we -- we 13

didn't raise it, and there's no reason to. But 14

if there'd been a serious attack on -- attempt to 15

involve another knife, another person, different 16

17 kinds of cuts, he had -- he was ready for that and, and had evidence to that effect. 18

19 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: That evidence then, I assume, really wasn't disputed by the defence? 20

BOBS CALDWELL: No, or otherwise we would 22 have been into that area, you see.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Thank you. I -- I

24 think that clears that area.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Uh hmm. 25

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay then. Letter P, I was not at the Supreme Court of Canada hearing, the recent one, but I understand that Wilson recanted his recantation and explained that he thought he was supposed to be "my own" quote here "part of Dave's team", unquote, or words to this effect, and that he, in the end, essentially adopted his trial evidence. This is what I understand about Wilson.

13 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I think you're correct 14 there, and we, at this particular time, have 15 answered that question --16

17 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. INSP. M. SAWATSKY: -- because we located 18 19 that transcript and it was misfiled, not in 20 order. It was, you know, the A, B, C, D, and all of a sudden this last transcript was not D. or E. 21 22 or whatever, it should have been after the other one, it was way back at the end, and just recently we've located that and I think we have BOBS CALDWELL: Was that from the Supreme 1 Court hearing?

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes. 3 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Yes. 4

5 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. So I wasn't there and I'm only going by, you know, press reports 6 etcetera, but if your assessment of that 7 essentially is the same as mine, you know, we're 8

9 just one recant short in this question. In other words, as I understand it, Wilson ended up going 10

back and adopting his trial evidence, and for 11

12 what it's worth, once Wilson and Nichol John started telling the truth at the time they saw 13

Inspector Roberts I was not of the view, 14

certainly in Wilson's case, that he was holding 15 anything back. Nichol John, I think, told a lot 16

more of the truth and failed, of course, finally 17

to tell the truth about seeing the killing go on, 18

19 which is another topic we may or may not want to (unintelligible). But, in any event, that's all 20

21 that thing means, we're one recantation short in

22 this statement. So if you're happy with that

Wilson thing I'll leave it at that then. 23

The other thing there though, 24

25 the motel room incident is not sincere, I simply Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview suggest to you this appears to be a meaningless editorial comment. Now I would be happy to 2

explain to you what I know about the motel room 3

thing if you want to deal with it now.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Perhaps we can. You discuss it on pages 7 and 17 of the statement 7 provided to Peter Carlyle-Gordge, and then on page 10 of Sergeant Pearson's statement. Now as 8

I understand it, two witnesses were called at 9

trial, namely Mr. Melnyk and Mr. Lapchuk, Ute

Frank was identified and interviewed; to your 11

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I don't have access to that right now, no. But what I do have is a handwritten note which -- it originates from our file 93-207, page 1, my Appendix 3, which -- that may be of some assistance.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. I'm just looking for 23 the -- it might just be an idea if I could take a 24 25

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: No, no we haven't.

BOBS CALDWELL: O.K., that's good.

12 SGT. M. DRESSLER: The statement resumes at 15:42. 13

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, I think we were talking about the motel room reenactment thing.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: That's right.

BOBS CALDWELL: The motel room incident is 18 not sincere. I can't comment on this, an 19 editorial. But I did make notes at the time, of which I have a photocopy here and I think you 20

21 have the original of this, that Sunday, January

22 18th, Saskatoon Police learned for the first time of an alleged admission by Milgaard in Regina to 23 killing a nurse in Saskatoon. Now the same date 24 that they advised me of this, I advised Mr. 25

- 1 Tallis, in other words I obviously phoned him
- 2 that Sunday night at home, or wherever he was, as
- 3 to what I knew of it up 'til that point, and that
- 4 depending on the interviews, I might call these
- 5 witnesses. The same date I arranged for the
- 6 investigator to go to Regina, Monday, January
- 7 19th, and interview these people. This was done
- 8 Monday, January 19th and on Tuesday, January
- 9 20th, I received three statements from these
- 10 persons and Wednesday, January 21st, I delivered
- 11 carbon copies of all three statements to Mr.
- 12 Tallis, advised him that I would interview the
- 13 witnesses as soon as possible, and may call
- 14 evidence from one or more at the trial. And I
- 15 had two of them to Saskatoon, Friday, January
- 16 23rd and interviewed them, and advised Mr. Tallis
- 17 Saturday, January 24th that I would plan on
- 18 calling these two late in the Crown's case. This
- 19 doesn't give the date, but it was the year of the
- 20 trial, which was '70, I hope. So, and the way
- 21 that police learned about it is that they went
- 22 down to Regina to bring back Wilson and or Nichol
- 23 John, and -- and whoever the police officers who
- 24 were escorting these two were, I think it was
- 25 Wilson who told one or more of them, may have

- 1 been one or two policemen and we could figure out
- 2 who if we worked on it, in fact you probably know
- 3 who it is, but I don't. But in any event, that's
- 4 how that thing cooked up, so I ascertained that I
- 5 could call the witnesses as far as the law is
- 6 concerned, because I had just now learned of this
- 7 information. And I, when I interviewed the two
- 8 male witnesses, I specifically told them that I
- 9 didn't want them leaning either way in this,
- 10 that -- don't care if they like Milgaard or hate
- 11 him, they've got to tell the truth, and I don't
- 12 want them leaning for him, leaning against him,
- 13 tell the truth. And I thought they were, one of
- 14 them was better than the other, but I thought
- 15 they were quite good witnesses. And I've since
- 16 examined -- produced by you, Sergeant, this, this
- 17 is a photocopy of, of what are my own notes of
- 18 interviewing Ute Frank, and in the file which you
- 19 gentlemen have is the original of this, if you
- 20 will. But these are my handwritten notes. So
- 21 this, there's no date on this, but it indicates
- 22 to me that I interviewed her undoubtedly around
- 23 the time I interviewed the two boys, got a whole
- 24 lot of kind of background-type things from her,
- 25 and as soon as they -- we get her to the stage of

- I being in the hotel, she says she started taking
- 2 T.H.C. in the room by needle and then by mouth,
- 3 and I didn't make any more notes. But what I
- 4 know that means is that she then stated I,
- 5 basically "I don't know anything, I was too far
- 6 on, gone to be any use", so I didn't call her and
- 7 ethically, in my view, there's absolutely nothing
- 8 wrong with that. Because you don't simply call a
- 9 witness to say "I, yeah I was there, but I can't
- 10 tell you anything about the important part, i.e.
- 11 the reenactment".

Now, I understand that

- 13 subsequently, at the Supreme Court hearing, she
- 14 basically testified that she -- about the
- 15 reenactment in very graphic terms, and I believe
- 16 she said that she did -- she didn't do any of
- 17 this because she was terrified of Milgaard. And
- 18 that was a, that was a characteristic of many of
- 19 these witnesses, including Wilson, including
- 20 Nichol John, were very much afraid of Milgaard,
- 21 because they were aware of his, you know, very,
- 22 very sudden temper, violent actions, and so on.
- 23 So I can certainly relate to, to why Ute Frank
- 24 wouldn't, wouldn't come clean with me and/or
- 25 testify.

- 1 The other witness Debra Hall,

- 8 happy to expand on any of that that you, you
- 9 gentlemen may have questions about.

10 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Do you know if Mr.

11 Tallis interviewed Ute Frank?

BOBS CALDWELL: Somewhere I thought it had 13 come to my attention that he did, but -- and,

14 quite frankly, I thought it had come from your

15 investigation or your file. So I have to leave

16 it at that. I, obviously I haven't talked to Mr.

17 Tallis, but my impression is that he did. And it may, indeed, be from some notes I have of my own somewhere.

attempt, at any time, to conceal any of theevidence from any of these individuals, to your 23 knowledge.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: In other words, is there anything that you learned that you did not disclose, or --

BOBS CALDWELL: Oh, yeah. Not at all. We had, I think we had witness statements from Lapchuk and Melnyk. Ute Frank, all we've got is my notes. So there's nothing that I held back whatsoever. In fact I was very startled by this happening the night before the trial started, I was, you know, very much surprised. But the fact of the matter is that in law, if that's the first I've heard about it, I can still go ahead and call it. But what that made me do, of course, was be exceptionally diligent to get it to Mr. Tallis right away, and keep him as informed as I was, so I didn't hold a thing back, in fact went to the opposite extreme. And I didn't call her because she didn't have damaging evidence, I called her 'cause -- I didn't call her because she flatly said "I've got nothing to tell you

Now, the first round of statements given by these people to Inspector Riddell in Regina, my memory tells me it was all three, Milgaard, Hall -- or pardon me -- Wilson 12

13 and John, were false, period. And my memory is, and, and I'll have to leave it at that, that they 14 were simply all false, and as the rest of the 15 investigation went on, you could very clearly 16

tell that they were false. For instance, saying 17

they hadn't been in Saskatoon or had just driven 18

through, or I don't even remember the details. 19

20 But there's a lot of other supporting evidence against which you could judge them and very 21

quickly figure out they were not correct. 22

Then, initially, Wilson was not 23 truthful with the Saskatoon Police, but when the 24 time came when Inspector Roberts was called in 25 people like that.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: ... just one question about the statements. If one were to ascribe to the theory or -- or -- and I guess not the theory, to the allegation that Saskatoon Police 7 coerced the witnesses into saying what they 8

9 wanted them to say through a series of

10 statements, of course you were presented with all the statements from these people, from -- from 11

Wilson and from Nichol John; could you tell me, 12

for this interview, why the statements, or the 13 14

third statements or the fourth statements from these people, the last, the final statements, why you believed them over the statements where they said "no, nothing happened"?

BOBS CALDWELL: Oh yeah, absolutely, 18 19 well -- and, and forgive me if I'm not in exact details on this, but to begin with it was 30 days 20 21 before the Saskatoon Police got a very substantial lead on, on the guilty party. And 22 that happened when Albert Cadrain finished this 23 trip all around Alberta, went to jail seven days

24 in Regina for vagrancy, came home, walked in the Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

and -- and interviewed Wilson and John at the 1

Cavalier Motor Hotel, it's my belief that what

Wilson finally came around to then was, was a truthful statement, and I never changed my mind 4 about that. In other words, Wilson was afraid and young and a drug user and all those bad 6

things, but I think when he was through with 7

Roberts he told the truth as he perceived it. 8

Now I think to a large extent Nichol John also did, except for the fact that my belief is that she saw the killing take place --11 and we can expand on that later -- but -- because 12 of the statement she made to Mrs. Miller, to Mary 13

Marcoux and to Albert Cadrain after -- or during 14

the prelim., which I have described and I'll 15

describe again, but, she never did come through 16

17 and say that. But largely then, from then on, I thought she told the truth with that rather 18 19 important exception.

10

Milgaard, of course, never did 20 21 give truthful statements, and the statement he gave to the Saskatoon Police, the warned 22

statement, which I know you have, and it has 23

sketches in the back of it and so on, simply was 24 not, it couldn't be true, measured against what, 25

what the Crown knew and the police knew as the thing went on chronologically. Like a lot of 2 things were, you know, proven by witnesses with 3 no axe to grind, no -- no motive, no this, no that, and as you looked at their statements you 5 could very readily tell that the early ones were 6 just simply untrue. 7

I can't, if you want I'd look at them and give you details, but that's why I, why I knew the earlier ones were untrue and then, as we got further and further along, the -- the true ones started coming out because they virtually had no choice other than to be truthful when all this surrounding body of information was there. So that's how I would explain that.

Of course Milgaard, I never did put in his statement because it never was true, whether there was one or more of them, and I was under no obligation to do that, obviously. Does that answer your ...

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes, it does, and I think that the thrust of my question being that, as a prosecutor, you would not -- you -- I guess you have a duty or an obligation to put it in what you believe are truthful statements or witnesses in this case, is that I became satisfied, with the exception of Nichol John's 2

failure to recite that she saw the killing, I was satisfied that she also and Wilson totally had come around to what they conceived to be the 5

truthful statements. But they were belated 6

7 proceedings and only because of Inspector

Roberts' assistance with the polygraph.

8 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: One other aspect that I 9 10 wanted to cover is that, for the record and for the purpose of this statement, I want it known 11 that we met you this morning, and that this 12 13 morning when we did meet you, we provided you with the remainder of the prosecution file which 14 has been housed in Sask. Justice, and that file 15 was entrusted to us. And the reason we brought 16 17 it with us this morning was to allow you to review documents, your notes from the trial, 18 exhibit list and things like this, to help 19 20 prepare you for this interview this morning -- or 21 this afternoon.

BOBS CALDWELL: Yes. Well that was very 22 helpful, and I did go through that probably 10 23 inches high of material this morning, and that's 24

25 the first time I've seen it intact, if you will,

truthful witnesses, and at some point in time you must have decided that the first statements were not truthful but that the last statements were? BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: And I guess you're, you're -- what I want you to answer to me, and then I think you did adequately, is the fact that you believed the third statements for various reasons? BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, because you could measure them against a whole body of known facts, now not -- you weren't simply going on do I believe this person or not, you measure their statement against all kinds of surrounding evidence by the neighbours and the people who 15

helped them tow and push cars, and the service 16

17 station guys, and all kinds of things that weren't subject to -- to argument, they were 18 simply, you know, known facts. And, of course, 19

you're not obligated ever, as a prosecutor, to 20

21 call witnesses whom you don't believe. You certainly are obligated to let the defence know 22 they exist, and "here's what the guy said, I 23 don't believe it but you use it". But that's what happened with respect to the very important since -- since I closed the file in, in Justice.

When I saw it in Regina with

Sergeant Pearson, it had been dismembered and 3 some of it was in Ottawa and so on, so that was 4

very helpful, and some of the things I've said here are based on refreshing my memory from that 6 7 collection of material, so I appreciate you 8 mentioning that.

9 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I just want to take a moment and go over my notes here and see if I 10 have any other questions, and Max, if you just 11 12 want to do the same.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I have a number that are still remaining which may touch on the various areas that we've already alluded to. It's been alleged that Mr. Tallis' performance at trial and at prelim. was somewhat less than adequate. Do you have any comments on that?

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, that's outrageous and totally incorrect, and it offends me beyond 20

21 words. I -- I started prosecuting in Regina in 1958. I think I'll send my eminent counsel to 22

get me some coffee here, we don't really need him 23

(chuckles). In any event, I did prosecute in 24 25 Regina from '58 'til the beginning of '62, and of Sheet 46 of 94 Page 17509 to 17512

- 1 course by the time of this I'd been steadily
- 2 prosecuting in Saskatoon 'til '70, 1970 I guess.
- 3 And he was, not just in my estimation, but he was
- 4 recognized as the leading defence counsel in the
- 5 province and I had, I had assisted him with
- 6 prosecutions, because he had his own ... thank
- 7 you ... he had his own agency of the Attorney
- 8 General at Humboldt, Saskatchewan, in other
- 9 words, he had a judicial centre that he worked
- 10 at. I had done serious criminal cases with him
- 11 defending, and he had done a lot of very
- 12 heavy-duty defence work, and he took this case
- on, which, you know, I can imagine some eminent
- 14 counsel saying "I'm just too busy". Interviewed
- everybody, had a long prelim that was spread out
- 16 over several days, adjourn, come back, do some
- 17 more, had a two-week trial in -- you know -- did,
- 18 as far as I'm concerned, his usual extremely
- 19 thorough, careful job. You can see that in the
- 20 things that he simply requested from me. Look
- 21 over those 95 things again and there was a good
- 22 degree of co-operation between us. And he
- 23 followed the instructions, I believe, of the
- 24 Milgaards themselves in not calling a defence,
- 25 got signed documentation to that effect, and

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

- they, I believe, made the choice knowing how his
- 2 practice would be. And there would be those very
- 3 competent lawyers who would not have called a
- 4 defence in this case for fear that this

- 5 particular accused would have blown up in, ten
- 6 minutes into cross-examination. I have no
- 7 knowledge of what Mr. Tallis, you know, views
- 8 are, or the Milgaard family, decided, but, I
- 9 mean, he did a, an extremely good job on this
- 10 case. You can do an extremely good job on a jury
- 11 trial and have it go the other way than you
- 12 hoped, and this happened to be one where, despite
- 13 his efforts, the accused was convicted, and
- 14 obviously in my opinion properly convicted. But
- after being fairly prosecuted and extremely well
- 16 defended, the most outrageous aspect of this
- whole thing to me is the badmouthing of Mr.
- 18 Tallis done by the Milgaard troops in the
- 19 meantime, which is something, of course, he's not
- 20 in a position to get up and to publicly answer,
- 21 and I take great delight in answering on behalf
- 22 of the Bar that that's just a totally false
- 23 accusation. I'd certainly deal with any
- 24 individual things that anyone claims were not
- 25 done properly. And again, we have no knowledge on why the decision was made not to call the accused, but if I were defending him I think thatwould weigh heavily with me.

4 Now is there any specific thing that you'd like to go into, any specific things that he was supposed to have done, not --SGT. M. DRESSLER: No, not at all.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: No, not at all.
 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: It was a very general comment made to me by Mrs. Milgaard, and when I

10 asked her to clarify and give me some details,

11 she was unable to do it. But what she did, and

12 I, I told this to Mr. Tallis because I feel that 13 both of you gentlemen have a right to know th

both of you gentlemen have a right to know that 14 that accusation was made of you, and Mrs.

Milgaard said that she had been told bysomeone -- and she didn't name that person --

17 that a comment was made by either yourself or by 18 Mr. Tallis, and I think it was more leaning

19 towards yourself, -- and to answer to that if you wish.

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Page 1751;

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, if we ever did that, we were both working on one accused. (Chuckles).

3 We were not, we were not in the defence, defence

4 verses prosecutor thing. Like Mr. Tallis and I,

5 in fact, worked on different aspects of a, of a

6 guy who was a dangerous sexual offender named

7 Leslie Klassen. Now I, my dates thing doesn't

8 bring back whether that was before or after this,

9 but he started prosecuting Mr. Klassen for what

10 we thought was a murder, and he got appointed to 11 the Bench, and another gentleman, Del Perras,

12 took over. Mr. Perras left to go to Regina to be

13 our boss, and another one of my colleagues, Bill

14 Pinckley, took that file over, and eventually

15 there was a conviction for manslaughter. In the 16 parallel thing, I was doing the dangerous sexual

17 offender, and Klassen was found to be a dangerous

18 sexual offender. So that would be an example of 19 where Mr. Tallis and I worked together on one,

20 locking one person up.

That may well be the, the thing that I'm being quoted for, and if, if I am, I'mpleased to acknowledge that, because there was 24 nothing wrong with any of that, obviously.

But in this case he was

1 defending, I was prosecuting, we had a good

2 professional business-like and arm's-length

3 relationship where nobody was trying to pull

4 anything over on anybody. I didn't operate that

5 way either, and I wouldn't dream of jeopardizing

6 a case like this by taking some shortcut or

7 sticking something under a table, I wouldn't do

8 that in this case or any other case. I didn't do

9 that in this case, and I would not do it to Mr.

10 Tallis or anyone else. I mean, I didn't operate

11 that way, he didn't operate that way. So he did

12 his job and I did mine, which doesn't mean we

13 have to be up fist-fighting in court over it at 14 all to do, both of us to do our jobs properly.

15 So the only (chuckles) the only -- the quotation

16 you've given me, I think, comes out of the famed

17 Leslie Klassen case, and if that's where it came

18 from I'm delighted to endorse it. But it

19 certainly doesn't apply in any way to Tallis and 20 I cooking this case up, because that's simply

21 beyond the pale.

22 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Are you familiar with a

23 man by the name of Sidney Wilson?

24 BOBS CALDWELL: No, and I've tried to 25 ascertain whether he exists in relation to being the one who pointed at Larry Fisher, presumably.

As far as I know he doesn't exist, by the way,

3 but maybe I'm skipping ahead.

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: I think that pretty well ends it. But just to sort of recap here on,

6 on, on the note that, the reason that brought us

7 here, is at anytime have you destroyed any

8 documents that were in your possession regarding

9 this file?

11

BOBS CALDWELL: No, I haven't. And, just without cutting that off, I want to be sure that

12 you fellas have made sure to examine this second

13 list. I think we have largely covered it, but

14 the one that's attached to the other letter. No,

15 I haven't destroyed any documents with respect to 16 the file of any description. It was often the 17 case to, say, throw out the original subpoenas

18 after such and such a time but I, I simply

19 didn't, and in keeping with the policy I

20 explained to you earlier, like the file like this

21 and any other murder was absolutely kept at our

22 office intact, as far as I'm concerned,

23 indefinitely. And once I left, of course, I have 24 no idea what happened after '87, but while I was 25 there they were kept.

Page 17515

1 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Who was the primary

2 investigator in the file?

3 BOBS CALDWELL: Well there's -- that's a

I little hard to answer. I think initially you'll

5 find that it was assigned, it may have been to

6 George Reid and one other person, would it be Ray

7 Mackie or Keith Mackie or someone -- maybe Ray

8 Mackie, and there was sort of a formal

9 assignment. And as I recall, the first two

10 fellas who got the file actually worked for 30

11 days, and the first day they had off was the day

12 that Albert Cadrain walked into the Police

13 Station, and we may get into that in a minute, I

14 realize. But they would be the nominal, the ones nominally charged with it, but then, you know, many of the other detectives, of course, would

17 take a very significant part in it, McCorriston

18 for one, Ed Karst I think.

4 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Did you provide legal advice, or did you participate at all in the 6 investigation in terms of direction, or giving

7 advice in that regard?

8 BOBS CALDWELL: Well, frankly, I don't

9 remember, and I could well have done that without any notes being made on, you know, in my file that. It -- one would assume that, that if Iwas, I don't even know if I was sort of seized

BOBS CALDWELL: ... what should we do. But

20 odd as it may sound I don't recall that, but you

21 certainly wouldn't surprise me if someone said

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Are you aware of any witnesses, I'm suggesting coercing witnesses or abusing or threatening them in any way? BOBS CALDWELL: Not -- absolutely not. I don't know if, in your investigation, you've met people like Karst and Charlie Short and John Oleksyn and Ray Mackie. Really what -- these were kind of, you know, professional policemen in Saskatoon. I'm just looking at my list of witnesses here. If you knew these people, if I may say personally, the way I certainly did, you'd have to -- you'd have an awful tough time selling me that that had happened, 'cause I knew a lot of them very well through other cases. And the attempts that have been made to, to suggest that people like Charlie Short was rude to Wilson or locked him up over night or something are absolutely ridiculous. Like that isn't the way the Police Department operated, these are senior, mature men, it isn't the way I operated, and neither the Police Department nor myself would condone that if we knew it was going on. And the police were very much appreciative of, you know, the way our office worked here, and were very ... they wouldn't do anything to jeopardize their chance to nail him. This is three Regina young people coming through the city trying to pick up a fourth person, Cadrain, and -- and being in and out of the city in a few hours. So, you know, it -- it isn't -- no one could possibly erect that into the Saskatoon City Police finally getting a chance to nail a guy who's been annoying to them because they didn't have a clue who he was until 30 days later when Cadrain came back.

Now, secondly, I was obviously in the same position, I didn't know, you know, this accused from Adam. And there was no, there's no -- there's no one to exert pressure on anyone. You can put all the pressure you wanted on me if I didn't have a case to go to court or we didn't know who the accused was. And there's certainly a very proper sentiment in the community that whoever did this should be brought to justice, but that doesn't mean you go out and grab the nearest candidate and jam everything around so it'll fit him. And I know that, earlier on, that the other side attempted to float the idea that the whole city's in a panic and they just had to have a victim and they chose any of that, and there've been Herculean efforts made to try to invent some of that. It simply hasn't come off.

relationship with us and I simply don't know of

And the Supreme Court, of course, held that there was no prob ... probative evidence of any of that happening. I also don't know of any.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I see our tape is in need of changing, we'll switch sides at -- time is 16:10.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. (TURN TAPE OVER).

UNKNOWN: ... sitting down and...

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Testing 1, 2, 3, 4. Statement resumes at 16:13. Mr. Caldwell, were you aware if the police, and in fact yourself perhaps, were under pressure from any source or sources in order to identify and prosecute anyone for this offence? Was there any pressure to your knowledge?

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, no there wasn't. I mean, first of all no one in Saskatoon knew David Milgaard existed, that's for openers. This isn't some local guy whose been a pain in the rear end to the police for years and they've finally got a poor David. Well, we didn't know who poor David was until Cadrain came back, and I think it was some months later that he was eventually arrested after an awful lot more investigation, if I'm not mistaken. I think he was arrested actually in B.C. And there was no, I mean, no one put pressure on me to do anything in this case except a proper prosecution. I mean, I suppose I could have said it, if things were a little different, "I don't think this thing can go on, we don't have the evidence". I, at some stage of the game, obviously decided it should go on and we did have the evidence. So no one was in a position to pressure me and nobody was in a position to pressure the police. For one thing, they had to, in a, in a manner of speaking, answer to me, like they had to come to me with evidence, say "what else do you think we need" or "what do you think of this witness", and they, you know, respected my directions, if you will, or decisions on things. So it wasn't a case of, of pressure at all, but -- there's no use the mayor phoning the Police Department saying "accuse some, get somebody arrested for this murder o we can lose it and get on with other

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Are -- were you aware of any split within the police ranks as to whether Milgaard was responsible for the offence?

BOBS CALDWELL: Well I think there were different theories. I, it's, again, it's not a split. I mean there's a fair number of policemen around, and there were ones who I would suggest were possibly skeptical about him being the right accused at one stage of the game, and as things went on and on and on I assume they were converted, others who very early on presumably felt he was the right one, and in my opinion they proved to be correct. But the fact that different policemen had different views on how good the case is or maybe this is the right guy

17 can't be characterized as a split in the Police Department. 18 19 I mean if you have one sore 20 head policeman who's mad because he missed a promotion and still doesn't think this guy is 21 guilty, that doesn't matter to me. 22

23 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Uh hmm.

BOBS CALDWELL: That's not a split in the 24

Police Department. And so no, no split,

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

certainly differences of opinion among 1 investigators as -- as to whether this was the right guy at an early stage. 3 4

SGT. M. DRESSLER: I'd like to have you reflect on an interview you provided to Mr. Peter Carlyle-Gordge; can you remember that interview?

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, I sure do. 7 SGT. M. DRESSLER: When did it occur? 8

9 BOBS CALDWELL: Well this is an odd situation. I had seen Mr. Carlyle-Gordge, his bylines, in both Maclean's magazine and the Globe

11 12 and Mail, so I knew that he was a journalist.

And he got in touch with me, it appears in 1983; 13 advised me that he was doing a book on Western 14

Canadian murders, and that he had been put onto 15

the Milgaard case as a very interesting case, 16

17 clearly it was, by Mr. Wolch in my memory. So I, of course at that time, was of the view that this 18

19 case was irrevocably finished -- and I'll know better than that another time -- but I thought it 20

21 was all over and done with so, in any event, I 22 was happy to talk to him. And my objective in this exercise was to -- to -- to give credit to 23

the Police Department, who I thought did a 24

25 terrific job starting absolutely nowhere, walking Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

by RCMP

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

Page 17523

behind garbage trucks and going through the contents of garbage cans to find Gail Miller's 2

purse, I thought they did a sensational job, and I was very anxious to -- that that be properly publicized. So he, I just opened up a file with 5

the, my dealings with him so I could find it, and 6

7 he, he wrote me February 22nd saying "thanks for your help last weekend", so presumably the week 8

9 before February 22nd of '83 he was in Saskatoon

10 and up in my office talking with me. And then he wrote me again saying he'd be back on Friday 11

morning, and I got another phone memo saying, 12

13 call me if March 11th is not convenient, so I guess he was back here on March 11th. I haven't 14

dug into my old office diaries but that would, I 15 could confirm you that those dates, but he was 16 17

And I allowed him to read parts of the file and then to interview me about the case, all on the understanding, strictly, that he 20 21 was writing a book on Western Canadian murders.

22 Now I also know that at least

23 on one of those occasions I agreed to him

tape-recording our conversation, which he said 24

25 would just help him with writing the article, and

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

I didn't think that was sinister. So we have, 1

you've given Mr. Halyk and myself a transcript, which I have in front of me, and I've also 3 supplied you gentlemen with a tape recording of a 4

C.B.C. Sunday Morning interview in which I heard

my own voice coming out of the speaker, and 6

unquestionably it was the tape made by 7

Carlyle-Gordge either, either appended to one end 8

9 of this typed interview or conceivably done on the second occasion without my knowledge, but I'm 10

willing to assume it was the former. But I was 11

12 not too delighted to hear this because, of course, I never agreed to him doing anything with 13

that tape other than using it to help him write 14 his article. So that's my sort of jumping-off 15 16

22

SGT. M. DRESSLER: The tape begins almost in mid-sentence, as it were, and then ends conversation or -- or what led up to this tape 20 21 being used?

BOBS CALDWELL: Well, I think that -- I haven't played the cassette which I gave you

23 gentlemen to take with you, I have a duplicate of 24

it at home. I think it, it will be found to 25

- either be on the front end or the back end of the
- typed part, probably the front because the back 2
- end ends up with me asking him about his project 3
- and how it's coming. Sounds like a natural
- 5 ending. But it would just be in the -- this
- would take place as a result of him saying "well, 6
- you know, tell me the things you think are 7
- fascinating about the case". And I did that, 8
- there were three or four things I thought were 9
- 10 very interesting, like it ending one year to the
- day after the killing and things like that. 11
- So -- so then what's happening is that we're just 12
- 13 chatting, and quite clearly I hadn't checked
- on -- I hadn't got the whole case in detail back 14
- into my mind, obviously, although I did write 15
- some salient things from it before I talked to 16
- 17 him which I have in my file, just dates of trials
- and how many witnesses and things. So, this is 18
- 19 just a chat with him in which, when I read it
- 20 now, I see that I -- I really hadn't made any
- attempt to, you know, to redigest the whole file, 21
- obviously. But I'd certainly answer anything you 22
- 23 want to know about the contents of it.
- SGT. M. DRESSLER: No, I don't think we 24
- 25 need to address that. There's one point. Do you

- recall, during the police investigation, 1
- Detective Karst and Lieutenant Short, or
- Lieutenant Short, rather, travelling to
- Langenburg and Yorkton district --4
- 5 BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah.
- 6 SGT. M. DRESSLER: -- to speak to the
- 7 Milgaard family?
- 8 BOBS CALDWELL: And I recall what happened
- 9 too.
- SGT. M. DRESSLER: Can you briefly outline 10
- the circumstances as to -- to when it occurred 11
- 12 and what your knowledge is of it?
- BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. What I remember of 13
- it, and I don't remember the exact purpose of 14
- them going, but what I remember is that when some 15
- of the details of the murder were recited to Mr. 16
- 17 Milgaard Senior, him saying words to the effect
- of "I knew someday something like this would 18
- 19 happen". Now Short and/or Karst recorded that,
- put it in the police reports, and the next thing, 20
- 21 of course during the great publicity run up to
- the hearing he, of course, denied saying that. 22
- He said "oh, I really didn't mean that", but I 23
- 24 remember that, today, from then. It was such a
- striking thing for the father of this fellow to say "I knew someday something like this would 2 happen".

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Had you become involved 3

- in the investigation or in the, in the
- prosecution, when that visit occurred? 5
- BOBS CALDWELL: Well, I can't -- I don't 6
- 7 know the date of the visit at this point, and I,
- I can't answer that yes or no, I can't recall, 8
- 9 but maybe you could -- if you could give me some 10
 - more information?

SGT. M. DRESSLER: We have no record as to 11

the date. 12

16

- 13 BOBS CALDWELL: Well it, that, that is in a
- police report. Do you mean the date they went to 14
 - Langenburg?

SGT. M. DRESSLER: We do not have the 16

- 17 police report.
 - BOBS CALDWELL: That is -- that exists. I
- 19 don't have it either, but that police report
- 20 exists with -- because at the time when -- I
- simply, you know, I can see it in my mind's eye. 21
- I don't think I physically have a copy of it. 22
- 23 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Would that have been on
- the prosecution file, or do you think that was on 24
- 25 the police report or, or a note given to you, or

- something like that?
- 2 BOBS CALDWELL: Well, it got to me, and
- therefore I would assume was -- got to me because 3
- 4 it was on the prosecution file.
- 5 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: We haven't been able to
- 6 find that. 7 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, well, I can assure
- 8 you it exists.
- 9 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay.
- BOBS CALDWELL: And I would think of 10
- checking with the City Police, whoever you've 11
- 12 been dealing with there. I think they've got
- everything cross-indexed by investigators. 13
- INSP. M. SAWATSKY: We have their entire 14 file, we'll look again for it. 15
 - SGT. M. DRESSLER: We'll look into that.
- 17 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. It exists for sure.
- INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Okay. 18
- 19 BOBS CALDWELL: And, but, is that all you
- wanted to ask me about? That stuck out so 20
- 21 vividly in my mind to have the father say "I knew
- 22 someday something like this would happen", you
- 23 know.
- SGT. M. DRESSLER: I guess what were trying 24
- 25 to do is, is find a date as near as possible,

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview by RCMP Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005 Page 17529 whether it was pre or post-charge. Do you have any knowledge to that? 2 BOBS CALDWELL: No. 3 SGT. M. DRESSLER: In that regard? 4 BOBS CALDWELL: No, I don't. I think, when 5 was the charge, was it not more like June or --6 7 SGT. M. DRESSLER: The charge was laid May 27th. 8 BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, okay, so it was 9 10 actually sworn some little time after the murder, and so that trip may well have been before or 11 after the thing was sworn. 12 13 SGT. M. DRESSLER: A point in respect of the polygraph examination which was conducted on 14 Ron Wilson. I have here, it appears to be 15 handwritten notes by your hand, from our file 16 17 93-204, it looks as though dated the September 3rd, 1969, where it discusses Inspector Roberts. 18 Could you please examine this --19 20 BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, sure. SGT. M. DRESSLER: -- and offer some 21 22 comments? BOBS CALDWELL: 'Kay. Okay. This looks, 23 at a glance, as if I phoned him, there are a subpoenaed to court. This is Roberts talking about their practice. Chief's orders. Chart 2 doesn't have questions. So it doesn't have 3 questions written on it, I guess its just a graph of lines that Roberts, at least, can understand. 5 Clothes from blank ask Wood, this would be, this 6 7 would be Superintendent Wood, and back to same guy. I don't know what that means. Something to 8 9 do with, it may be something to do with things Wilson said in his examination. Are you -- oh, 10 this must be questions that he used on Wilson; 11 are you holding back anything re Gail Miller? 12 Did you ever intentionally hurt anyone? Have you 13 lied to any questions on this test? I have a 14 note here, yes. This must be Roberts explaining 15 to me his technique, is what I would gather. 16 17 Wilson questions re the Gail Miller murder; are you deliberately holding back any info re that? 18 Have you lied to any question on this test? 19 20 Could refer to Did you ever hurt anyone or to the question whether he was holding back. Wilson 21 didn't see it, Wilson didn't do it. Do you know 22 for sure who did it, yes. I presume this is what 23 he asked Wilson, what Wilson answered, and I 24 presume he concluded that Wilson neither saw it 25

show -- tell you what I can about it. 1 INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Are you able to find 2 it? 3

BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, no, this is fine. 4 5 Thanks. Okay. This is Inspector Roberts,

Calgary City Police, their number, his home 6 number, the Detectives' number, 3rd of September, 7

'69 it looks like. There's a chart that remains 8

9 in R., that being Roberts' possession, re the interviews. Did on Wilson, not on John. Now I, 10

I presume that means the chart but I can't tell 11 that at a glance. Interpretation of the chart.

He could read the chart and could look at it. 13

Will call back at 1:30 our time. Now I don't 14

know who, who the 'he' is, if that's -- that's 15

sort of, he could -- oh, I'm sorry, he could send 16

17 the chart and he could look at it. So maybe,

maybe, maybe someone else, such as Tallis, had a, 18

19 had a -- lined up some polygraph operator and wanted him to look at Wilson's if it worked. But 20 21 when it says he, he could send the chart, he could look at it, I don't know who the 'he' is, 22

the second he. He's gonna call back re Wilson 23

lying on two questions. Wilson lied on two 24

questions. Now don't let out charts unless 25 nor did it from that. Wilson told Roberts that 1 in Calgary Dave told him "I took her purse, I poked her with knife a few times". So that's 3 things that Roberts told me. So that looks like 4 5 one phone call to me.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Were you satisfied that a polygraph examination had been conducted on Wilson?

BOBS CALDWELL: Well I assume it was, I -the polygraph thing, my memory is that, that I wasn't a party to arranging that, my memory is that it was arranged and done by the police and I was told about it either, you know, once it was 13

underway or when, in fact, it was even over. 14

Because, you see, I didn't get into this business 15 of, of becoming a half investigator, like I never 16

17 did like that thing with the prosecutor going along with policemen, looking at scenes, getting 18

in the way and stuff like that, so I kinda tried 19 to keep my distance. I know they arranged all 20

21 that, I know it came off, I believe he tested

both Wilson and John. And it was at that time 22 that in my, you know, understanding of 23

everything, that we ended up with the truthful 24

version of everything, with the one exception 25

that John in fact saw the killing but she never would say in court. Does that answer you? 2 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Yes, it does. Yes, it 3 4 does.

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, 'Kay.

5 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Now this be -- this may 6 7 be somewhat of a duplication now. It has been alleged that all references to Larry Fisher being 8 arrested in Winnipeg in 1970 were kept secret 9 10 from investigators and from victims. The apparent reason, of course, so as not to arouse 11

suspicion that Fisher may have murdered Gail 12

Miller. Do you have any knowledge of this? 13 BOBS CALDWELL: From investigators and from 14

victims? 15

SGT. M. DRESSLER: From the victims. 16

BOBS CALDWELL: No, I don't, but -- but the way the -- and I'm not, you know, critical of the 18 19 Police Department -- but the way it operated

20 there was no, there was absolutely no formal mechanism in place to advise victims of the 21

22 outcome of cases unless a particular, I suppose,

23 prosecutor phoned and said "hey, that guy was convicted", or unless a very conscientious 24

investigator phoned to say he was convicted. But 25

5 would have been advised, but... Does that, does that answer you? 6 7 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Yes, it does. BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. 8 9 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Now I have here a police 10 report, page B176 dated August 26th, '69, and I wonder if you could just review it ... 11 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. 12

13 SGT. M. DRESSLER: ... and to refresh your memory and see if you have any knowledge of that 14 event. 15

BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. I guess that's 16 Ullrich, by the look of it, because it's been 17 yellow-lined and it photocopies so badly, but 18 19 that is Ullrich?

20 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Yes. 21 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay.

22 MR. HALYK: While he's looking at that,

23 we'll be getting a copy of this state...

transcript, will we? 24

12

INSP. M. SAWATSKY: Yes. Just like we did

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005

there was no, there was no sort of community 1 services unit to, to go after people and say

"here's how your case came out". So they could 3

not be -- it wouldn't surprise me in the least if 4

none of the victims were notified, and I would attribute nothing sinister whatever to that, 6

7 'cause it was simply a hit and miss operation.

8 Now as far as to investigators,

I think there's been one or two investigators here expressing great amazement that Karst went 10 to Winnipeg to, to interview, was it Wilson -- or 11

12 pardon me, Fisher. Karst himself didn't remember going there, which I can understand, I mean, you 13 know, he was a busy -- he was one of the very 14

well-regarded investigators. He and a guy named 15

Tom Vanin used to do many of the murder 16

17 investigations 'cause they were very, very good.

Karst is a very fatherly figure, and Karst didn't 18

19 remember going, I don't know how he would -- how he would then, you know, phone up all the 20

21 investigators who should know and say "hey, I

22 went to Winnipeg". I attach nothing sinister to

Karst not remembering he went to Winnipeg, and 23

24 nothing sinister to whoever some other investigator may have been who had his nose out

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

for the other witness.

2 MR. HALYK: And, by the way, I could indicate to my knowledge Mr. Caldwell has not 3 read that interview and it hasn't been provided 4

5 to him ...

BOBS CALDWELL: We deliberately...

7 MR. HALYK: ... intentionally, so --

BOBS CALDWELL: ... deliberately didn't do 8

9 that and, Mr. Halyk, and I agreed on that, and

I'm -- you know, would rather be that way, so --10

Okay, now this episode I remember, and I've read it in police reports say 13 in the last year or so now. I couldn't have told 14

you by memory that it was Ray Mackie and Ullrich 15 and myself who were there, but it obviously was, 16

and Ullrich was a meticulously careful policeman, 17 like, he was just utterly reliable and careful. 18 And in fact I recited this episode about the bathtub in one of my letters to the Parole Board. 20 21 Were you aware of that? And I couldn't remember, in recent years when I looked at the, looked at that letter, where I'd got that information, and 23

24 I somehow or other found out that that's where it came from. But Cadrain told us that, and I mean 25

Sheet 53 of 94 Page 17537 to 17540

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview by RCMP Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005 Page 17537 that, I put that in my, I guess my longest letter to the Board, if I'm not mistaken. 2 SGT. M. DRESSLER: Do you recall what 3 prompted the, this meeting between you and Cadrain and the police members? 5 BOBS CALDWELL: Well what was the date of 6 7 it? SGT. M. DRESSLER: August 26th, '69, or 8 August 25th, 1969. 9 10 BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. '69? Well that was after the offence, I presume the prelim. was, 11 was -- was it over? I don't know. 12 13 SGT. M. DRESSLER: The prelim. was in 14 September. BOBS CALDWELL: Okay. 15 SGT. M. DRESSLER: It began August 18th, 16 17 '69 ... BOBS CALDWELL: Okay, well. 18 19 SGT. M. DRESSLER: ... and proceeded 20 through. BOBS CALDWELL: Yeah, it kept, it went on 21 in bits and pieces. Now this would be just as 22 23 one of the interviews with Cadrain, I have no special thing, but that absolutely happened 24 25 because, again, that's a thing you don't forget,

Vol 86 - Thursday, October 27th, 2005 Page 17539 statement, which you have. That statement really deals with three separate things, the -- the 2 first is the Nichol John episode about "I don't 3 know why he didn't kill me too, I was right there and saw it all, but I'm not going to say nothing". Now, the second thing it deals with is 6 7 disclosure at great length, and the third is the, what I've been calling the script document we 8 9 were over earlier, the alleged script. 10 When I got to Ottawa, it was the day that Albert Cadrain finished testifying, 11 I phoned Mr. Williams, who was the person who had 12 asked me to come to Ottawa and I'd been dealing 13 with all along on the case, and he said, "We've 14 decided not to use you", and I phoned and had a 15 long chat with Murray Brown to find out how 16 17 things were looking. The only thing I can kind of assume is that if, if the defence had any say 18 in it, my memory tells me that Brown, in effect, 19 20 said to Hersh Wolch "if you call Caldwell to go 21 through the disclosure thing I'm certainly going to get out of him the Nichol John statement about 22 seeing everything". Now, and I don't know who 23 really made the decisions, if the judge finally 24 25 says yes or no or it's a majority vote, or if was just gonna take one second to find where, where I incorporated that in -- yeah, the letter to Mr. Street, June 14th, '72 and the Parole --4 or the National Parole Board, last paragraph on page 3 and into page 4 deals with that episode. 6

Cadrain saying that Milgaard had done this. I Want to just glance at that? Very bottom of that 7 8 page.

See, recently when I was rounding this material up and getting it into order, I'd -- I couldn't recall that the, the details of that, but that police report by Ullrich is how it happened. And no special -unless, I don't know why we were interviewing Cadrain unless it was just part of the whole business of getting ready for the, for the prelim. or his part in it.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Now, I understand that you were called to the Supreme Court in 1992 to testify, however, you did not testify?

BOBS CALDWELL: That's right, yeah.

SGT. M. DRESSLER: Do you have any idea as 22 to why you were not -- why you did not testify? 23 24

BOBS CALDWELL: Well the thing that preceded that was me giving Sergeant Pearson my Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

Bobs Caldwell - Tape of Interview

by RCMP

anyone who wants to call anyone can do it 1 regardless. But the bottom proverbial line was that I wasn't called. Now quite frankly, at the time, I was kind of relieved. Since then I'm --4

I have nagging afterthoughts that that was a very important chunk of evidence. And under the rules 6

they were using in that court, which were 7

hearsay, rumours, beer-parlour second-hand 8

9 gossip, it obviously could have gone in, okay, there was no question of that. And it would be 10

my view that it would be a damning piece of 11 evidence against Milgaard. And -- but no one 12 ever told me, like in so many words, "you weren't 13 called because of A. or B. or C", but I certainly 14

15 wasn't.

And I might say, just while 16 17 were on that, that this morning we were looking at my N.B. for Trial handwritten sheets, and 18 19 there was a duplication of two pages, and my original handwritten note of this was -- was --20 21 do you remember was on one of those. And the reason there'd be two pages, I've been thinking since, is that once I wrote that out on that 23

blank sheet with the number I would then have 24

wanted to preserve it separately, that's why 25

9	Q	And, at the time of the interview with the RCMP,
03:00 10		was it your belief that David Milgaard had
11		committed the murder of Gail Miller?
12	Α	Yes, it was, sir. You pointed out the date of the 13		DNA, which is helpful to me because I wouldn't
14		have known it, but yes, I would have believed
03:01 15		that.
16	Q	And again, and I think it was set out in the
17		interview, the purpose of this interview as stated
18		by Mr. Sawatzky and Mr. Dressler was the a

	4	Α	I that's right.
03:06	5	Q	And Gail Miller's body was where the X was.

	12	Α	Yeah, all that, sir.
	13	Q	And Mrs. Merriman lived here, and in the police

03:06	15		said is that she looked out the front window
	16		waiting for a taxi around 6:55 a.m. for a few

	4	Α	I do not, Mr. Hodson.
03:08	5	Q	And again, looking at it now and in light of what
	6		Mrs. Merriman has said, would you agree that there
	7		might be some significance to what she didn't see
	8		the morning of the murder?
	9	Α	Yes, I would agree that when it's put to me in
03:09	10		this fashion with the map, with the police report,
	11		there could have been, could and might have been
	12		some significance of what she did or didn't see.
	13	Q	And if, at the time in 1969, you would have
	14		recognized the significance, what, if anything,
03:09	15		would you have done with it?
	16	Α	Well I assume I number 1, I had did this
	17		go to Mr. Tallis or do we know that?
	18	Q	This is a police report let me just clarify.
	19	Α	Okay.
03:09	20	Q	You testified no police reports went to Mr.
	21		Tallis, she did not provide a witness statement.
	22	Α	Okay.
	23	Q	The only information, at least that we have been
	24		able to find on the files, are the two police
03:09	25		reports that identify discussions with her, and I

2		that and I'm not sure, let's just go back to,
3		if I could call up the police report 002102. Now
4		that was on your file. I should add that, Mr.
03:08 5		Caldwell, there was a second police report of
6		Officer Reid, I think of March 27th or
7		thereabouts, where he interviewed Mr. Merriman and
8		had similar information
9	Α	Okay.
03:08 10	Q	except that Mr. Merriman said that he had
11		trouble seeing, and in fact I think Mr. Merriman
12		was blind or close to blind at the time, but he
13		indicated that he and his wife were looking out
14		the window for a taxi and saw nothing, or words to
03:08 15		that effect.
16	Α	All right.
17	Q	That police report does not appear to be part, or
18		that report is not part of Ullrich's brief, and it
19		appears that it was not on your file and may not
03:08 20		have been given to you.
21	Α	Okay, sir.
22	Q	So this report, though, I think has your you
23		see that handwriting at the top?
24	Α	Yeah, that's definitely my initials and numbering.
03:08 25	Q	Okay. So is this can you tell us, at the time,

2		on the prosecutor's file about the Merrimans is
3		this entry right here in the police report.
4	Α	Okay. And you are asking what, sir?
03:10 5	Q	The question of whether if you would have
6		realized the significance of this piece of
7		information I think you've told us that that
8		might be important if you had appreciated that
9		at the time what would you have done with it?
03:07 10	Α	I should have I should have passed (a),
11		called her presumably as a witness, or (b), passed
12		the information along to Mr. Tallis in one form or
13		another, probably a letter in absence of there
14		being a statement, sir.
03:08 15	Q	Now, when we went back, and I don't want to cover
16		this ground in too much detail again, remember
17		Mr. Tallis asked you to go through the witness
18		statements and review them and identify in
19		accordance with the Dallison case any witness
03:08 20		statement that had evidence that might tend to 21		exculpate the accused, or words to that effect?
22	Α	I recall that.
23	Q	And I think you read through the witness
24		statements; right?
03:08 25	Α	I undoubtedly did.

3		looked promising, if I'm not mistaken, and I
4		believe I'm right in that, Mr. Hodson, I don't

9	Q	Yes.
03:13 10	Α	Okay. Now, the next step would be I can't say
11		that I read all those police reports we've just

13		way I could convey that, the results of that to
14		him would be to dictate a kind of a running
03:13 15		summary about what the police had found, which
16		could certainly be done.
17	Q	And was there a reason you didn't do that in this
18		case?
19	Α	Nothing that I've ever done up until that point in
03:13 20		any case, sir, in my memory.
21	Q	If there had been let me just put out another

	Bobs Caldwell

1	hands let me put it this way. If there had
2	been a statement taken by Margaret Merriman on May
3	25th, '69 after the police had gathered the
4	information from Wilson and John that put the
03:15 5	Wilson vehicle near that back alley and
6	Mrs. Merriman had stated in that statement that I
7	was looking out at the entrance to the T alley
8	behind the funeral home where the police tell me
9	Nichol John's vehicle or where Nichol John says
03:15 10	their vehicle was between 6:45 and 6:55 a.m. and I
11	didn't see anything, in that scenario do you think
12	you would have given
13	A I think I would have, because in that scenario,
14	Mr. Hodson, you had some of what, let's say, we
03:15 15	thought were correct facts about vehicles and
16	people that hadn't existed earlier. I would hope
17	that against that background I would either look
18	myself or be told to look at the Merriman
19	statement and at that point I would think it would
03:16 20	be meaningful and I would ship it off to 21	Mr. Tallis because it was sort of a frame of
22	reference for it then, if you will.
23 (Q And so I guess I'm trying to understand then, what 24	we know from Mrs. Merriman now is that's what she
03:16 25	saw at that time and I think she also said that

2		suspect
3	Α	Okay.
4	Q	and they didn't have any information about
03:14 5		where the Wilson vehicle might be, that didn't
6		come until arguably May 23rd.
7	Α	Okay, thank you.
8	Q	So at that time, and what I'm trying to get at,
9		May 23rd, and I asked this question of some of the
03:14 10		police officers, on May 23rd and 24th the police
11		get information that puts Mr. Milgaard's vehicle
12		in the vicinity of the funeral home.
13	Α	Uh-huh.
14	Q	And I think I asked a couple of the officers, did
03:14 15		anybody go back and look at the previous reports
16		and say okay, does what we now got, what we now
17		have received from Nichol John and Wilson as to 18		where the vehicle was, does that fit with the
19		information that we gathered in the week following
03:14 20		the murder about what people saw. Do you follow
21		me?
22	Α	Yes, sir.
23	_	And I think the answers were, well, someone must

03:16 5		what wouldn't have. You've now said if it was in
6		that statement of May 25th, that would have

8		we take it from that that reading it in the police

03:16 10		to the issue?
11	Α	I must think that it wasn't enough, Mr. Hodson,
12		because it didn't produce that result.
13	Q	I see.
14	Α	And as they say, if I had it to do over, I think I
03:17 15		may have realized that it was significant and
16		should have shipped it off at some point or other,
17		which clearly I didn't. There was a witness
18		statement from this lady?
19	Q	No, there was not.
03:17 20	Α	Okay, I'm sorry.
21	Q	The only information that I think was on your file
22		was that one paragraph in McCorriston's police

03:17	5		the interview with the RCMP that you have no	03:20 5			but the question I have here is you say if you
6	6		record of sending Mr. Tallis Ron Wilson's first	6			would have had people saying, insisted she always
7	7		statement.	7			got on the bus at Avenue O, you wouldn't believe
8	8	Α	Yeah. I think that's wrong, sir, because	8			them because the evidence was of the Wilson car
Ç	9	Q	Right.	9			coming down Avenue N. I'm just wondering if
03:18 10	0	Α	Yeah.	03:20 10			why you wouldn't believe them instead of saying,
11	1	Q	At least	11			well, if they are right, maybe Wilson is wrong.
12	2	Α	I'm sorry?	12	P	4	As to where the car was, sir?
13	3	Q	There's a record, the letter, there is a letter	13	(2	Yes. Well, no, for example, you are saying
14	4		where you have sent that and I just	14			because Wilson puts the car on Avenue N
03:18 15	5	Α	Yeah.	03:20 15	P	4	Yes.
16	6	Q	Is that a mistake?	16	(2	therefore, anybody who says she caught the bus
17	7	Α	Yes, that is. At some point I hadn't got the two	17			on O, you wouldn't believe them because you say
18	8		or more Wilson statements sorted out in my mind,	18			she was on N?
19	9		so this is incorrect.	19	P	4	That's in a nutshell.
03:18 20	0	Q	And then 022187, talking about Simon Doell, and he	03:20 20	(2	Right. And my question is what's the flip side,
21	1		is the fellow who I think in a police report said	21			why don't you say, well, maybe I should believe
22	2		that he saw Gail Miller take the bus at Avenue N.	22			the people who say she walks down Avenue O and
23	3	Α	That's correct.	23			maybe she wasn't on Avenue N and maybe Wilson and
24	4	Q	And you were asked the question on the previous	24			John are wrong.
03:18 25	5		page maybe just go back to the previous page	03:21 25	P	4	Well, Mr. Hodson, I think there were, I think

1		could it be possible that with Doell stating that	1		r	maybe even yesterday we went through three or four
2		she always got on the bus at Avenue N, that may	2		f	actors which led me to, if you will, accept the
3		have influenced the Crown's theory, or do you have	3		P	Avenue N version, whether it was right or not. I
4		any recollection of that, and I think what the	4		C	don't recall there being a, you know, a very
03:19 5		allegation relating to Simon Doell is is this,	03:21 5		S	substantial competing Avenue O theory and maybe
6		that the Crown theory was Avenue N, that's where	6		У	ou could help me with that.
7		Gail Miller was.	7	C	т С	There was, I mean, we called in this Inquiry right
8	Α	That's correct.	8		а	at the very outset Gail Miller's roommates who
9	Q	And that Simon Doell corroborated that by saying	9		S	aid, I think for the most part that, that Avenue
03:19 10		that Gail Miller was on, caught the Avenue N bus,	03:21 10		C) is where she would normally take the bus, and I
11		that there was other evidence from other witnesses	11		d	don't think anybody said positively that that had
12		that put her at Avenue O and that you didn't	12		t	o be where she took the bus, but that's what they
13		disclose the Simon Doell evidence to the defence	13		b	pelieved, and I'm just trying to understand, Mr.
14		so they could challenge his Avenue N statement. I	14		C	Caldwell, a couple of questions; one, why you
03:19 15		think that's, if I can summarize that, and I just	03:21 15		V	vould say that if anybody said O it didn't fit
16		want to go through what your response is. You	16		У	our theory, therefore, you wouldn't believe them?
17		say, well, no it wouldn't influence me because I	17	Α	4 і	think that is an unfortunate choice of 18		have no memory of ever reading the Doell thing and	18		t	erminologies. I think that I think that,
19		because let's suppose he had insisted she always	19		V	without going through the reasons why I believed
03:19 20		got on at Avenue O I wouldn't believe him, because	03:22 20		i ·	t was an Avenue N based enterprise, and I don't
21		the evidence was of the Wilson car coming down	21		C	doubt what her roommates said, I had forgotten
22		Avenue N. So let me pause there. Now, Simon	22		t	hat, as to what route she usually took I
23		Doell didn't say Avenue N, but a number of other	23		j	ust I wouldn't change that, Mr. Hodson, unless
24		people did say pardon me, Simon Doell didn't	24		1	felt there was evidence, if you will, to support
