- (i) prohibit any further use or disclosure of the personal information received by the parties except:
 - (A) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or
 - (B) if required or authorized by law; and
 - (ii) specify the ongoing obligations of the parties to secure and safeguard the personal information;
 - (g) any other provisions that the minister considers necessary.
- (3) For the purposes of clause 29(2)(u) of the Act, personal information may be disclosed to a party to an information sharing agreement entered into for the purposes of providing a common or integrated service:
- (a) if that information is disclosed in accordance with the agreement for any or all of the following purposes:
 - (i) determining the eligibility of an individual to receive the common or integrated service;
 - (ii) assessing and planning the common or integrated service and delivering that service to an individual or that individual's family; or
 - (b) if consent to the disclosure was obtained pursuant to any other Act or regulation that does not require the consent to be in writing.
- (4) If the Royal Canadian Mounted Police participates in providing a common or integrated service, the requirements of subsection (3) are met if the Royal Canadian Mounted Police enters into a single arrangement in writing with a government institution that is involved in the provision of the common or integrated service, under which the Royal Canadian Mounted Police signifies that it will comply with the terms governing the collection, use and disclosure of personal information contained in the information sharing agreement applicable to the common or integrated service in which the Royal Canadian Mounted Police participates.
- (5) Notwithstanding section 18, consent to the use and disclosure of personal information for the purposes of receiving a common or integrated service is not required to be in writing if:
- (a) the individual providing consent is informed of the anticipated uses and disclosures of the individual's personal information; and
 - (b) the person who obtained the consent records the following information and signs the record:
 - (i) the date on which consent was obtained;
 - (ii) the manner by which consent was obtained, whether the consent was obtained in person, by way of telephone or otherwise;
 - (iii) the anticipated uses and disclosures of personal information the individual consented to;
 - (iv) any restrictions on the consent that was provided.
