CHAPTER P-36.2 REG 2
The Public Employees Pension Plan Act

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Public Employees Pension Plan Regulations, 2015.

Interpretation

2(1) In these regulations:

“Act” means The Public Employees Pension Plan Act;

“locked-in retirement account” means a locked-in retirement account contract as defined in section 29 of The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993;

“registered retirement savings plan” means a registered retirement savings plan as defined in section 146 of the Income Tax Act (Canada);

“Table” means a Table set out in the Appendix;

“year’s maximum pensionable earnings” means the Year’s Maximum Pensionable Earnings as defined in the Canada Pension Plan.

(2) For the purposes of clause 2(1) of the Act, “bonus” does not include a lump sum payment that is payable by a participating employer to a member pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement that provides that the lump sum payment is not pensionable.

(3) For the purposes of clause 13(2)(a) of the Act, “sickness or disability”, in relation to a member, means suffering from a physical or mental impairment that prevents the member from performing the duties of the employment in which the member was engaged before the commencement of the impairment.

(4) For the purposes of the Act and in these regulations, “employee” includes a senior justice of the peace appointed pursuant to The Justices of the Peace Act, 1988.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s2.

Designation of participating employers and employees

3(1) For the purposes of subsection 10(1) of the Act:

(a) the employers listed in column 2 of Table 1 are designated as participating employers; and

(b) the employees or categories of employees listed in column 3 of Table 1 opposite a participating employer are designated as employees of that participating employer who are entitled to be members of the plan.

(2) Subsection 10(4) of the Act does not apply to an employee who, at the time the employee becomes a member of the plan, is:

- (a) making contributions pursuant to a superannuation Act within the meaning of The Superannuation (Supplementary Provisions) Act; and
- (b) designated as an employee who is entitled to be a member of the plan pursuant to clause (c) or (d) in column 3 of item 4 of Table 1.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s3.

Application of The Superannuation (Supplementary Provisions) Act

4 For the purposes of subsection 10(4) of the Act, section 47.5 of The Superannuation (Supplementary Provisions) Act applies to members of the plan.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s4.

Voluntary contributions

5(1) If the amount standing to the credit of a member is vested pursuant to section 18 of the Act, the member may make voluntary contributions in any of the following ways:

- (a) by lump sum transfer from a registered retirement savings plan or from a locked-in retirement account;
- (b) by payroll deduction;
- (c) by transfer from a pension plan pursuant to section 15 of the Act.

(2) If the amount standing to the credit of a member is not vested pursuant to section 18 of the Act, the member may apply to the board to make voluntary contributions in any manner that the board specifies.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s5.

Contributions re leave of absence

6(1) A member described in subsection 14(1) of the Act may make contributions to the plan on returning to work after a leave of absence in any of the following ways:

- (a) by lump sum transfer from a registered retirement savings plan or from a locked-in retirement account;
- (b) by lump sum payment by personal cheque;
- (c) by payroll deduction for a period equal to the period of leave or for a period agreed on by the board.

(2) A lump sum transfer, a lump sum payment or the first payment by payroll deduction pursuant to subsection (1) must be made not later than 90 days after the member returns to work.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s6.

Contributions re disability income plan benefits

7 A member described in subsection 14(2) of the Act shall remit the contributions required by that subsection to the board not later than the fifteenth day of the month that follows the month with respect to which the contributions are made.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s7.

Transfers to plan

8(1) Any amount transferred to the plan pursuant to section 15 of the Act that is locked in immediately before the transfer remains locked in.

(2) Any amount transferred to the plan pursuant to section 16 of the Act is locked in.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s8.

Small benefits

9 The board may pay to a person entitled to a pension benefit an amount equal to the amount standing to the credit of a member if the amount standing to the credit of the member does not exceed the maximum amount determined pursuant to subsection 39(1) of The Pension Benefits Act, 1992.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s9.

Prescribed pension benefits

10(1) Subject to subsection (2), for the purposes of clause 5(e.1) of the Act, a variable benefit that meets the requirements of section 11 is a prescribed pension benefit that the board may provide.

(2) For the purposes of clause 5(e.1) and subsection 20(4.1) of the Act, a board-elected variable benefit that meets the requirements of sections 11 and 12 is a prescribed pension benefit that the board may provide.

(3) For the purposes of clause 5(e.1) of the Act, a non-resident pension benefit that meets the requirements of subsection (4) is a prescribed pension benefit that the board may provide.

(4) A person who is entitled to a pension benefit under the plan may elect to receive a non-resident pension benefit that is a single amount equal to the amount standing to the credit of the person in the fund if that person:

(a) has not commenced receiving a pension benefit; and

(b) meets all of the requirements of section 26.1 of The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s10; 4 Mar 2016 SR
12/2016 s3.

Variable benefits

11(1) In this section:

“variable benefit” means a pension benefit that:

(a) is payable from a variable benefit account to a member or to the specified beneficiary of a deceased member;

(b) with respect to a calendar year, is in an amount elected by the member that is not less than the minimum amount determined for that calendar year;

(c) meets the requirements of paragraph 8506(1)(e.1) of the Income Tax Regulations (Canada); and

(d) meets the requirements of section 29.2 of The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993;

“variable benefit account” means the amount standing to the credit of a member with respect to which the member has elected to receive a variable benefit.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a member may elect to receive a variable benefit from the plan by transferring all or any part of the amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund to a variable benefit account.

(3) An amount standing to the credit of a member in the fund shall not be transferred to a variable benefit account unless:

(a) the member:

(i) ceases to be employed by a participating employer;

(ii) is entitled to retire and receive a prescribed pension benefit; and

(iii) subject to subsections (4) and (5), designates a beneficiary;

(b) the amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund is greater than the maximum amount mentioned in section 9; and

(c) the member's spouse has signed a consent to the transfer in Form 2.01 pursuant to The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993 and the consent has been filed with the board.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a member may revoke a designation of a beneficiary by designating a different beneficiary.

(5) If a member who elects to receive a variable benefit has a spouse, the beneficiary must be the spouse unless a spouse's waiver in Form 2.02 pursuant to The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993 has been signed by the spouse and filed with the board.

(6) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), at any time after a member elects to receive a variable benefit:

(a) the member may, to the extent permitted pursuant to the Income Tax Act (Canada), transfer from the member's variable benefit account all or any part of the amount standing to the credit of the member in the variable benefit account to any plan, fund or contract that permits the transfer; and

(b) if there is an amount standing to the credit of the member in the variable benefit account, the member may, to the extent permitted pursuant to the Income Tax Act (Canada), transfer to the variable benefit account all or any part of an amount standing to the credit of the member in any plan, fund or contract that permits the transfer.

- (7) If, after electing to receive a variable benefit, a member becomes employed by a participating employer, during the period of that employment, the member:
- (a) shall make contributions to the fund in accordance with section 11 of the Act with respect to that employment; and
 - (b) is not entitled to transfer any amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund into the variable benefit account.
- (8) After a member's employment with a participating employer mentioned in subsection (7) terminates, the member may transfer an amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund:
- (a) to the variable benefit account;
 - (b) to the extent permitted by the Income Tax Act (Canada), to any plan, fund or contract that permits the transfer; or
 - (c) in portions determined by the member, to any combination of the variable benefit account and plans, funds and contracts described in clause (b).
- (9) For the purpose of dividing a variable benefit on the breakdown of the spousal relationship of a member, each reference in section 24 of the Act to the amount standing to the credit of the member is a reference to the amount standing to the credit of the member in the variable benefit account.
- (10) After the death of a member who has elected to receive a variable benefit:
- (a) if the member had a specified beneficiary, the variable benefit is to be paid to the specified beneficiary in accordance with the Income Tax Regulations (Canada); or
 - (b) if the member did not have a specified beneficiary, the amounts that may be paid out of the variable benefit account are to be paid:
 - (i) to the designated beneficiary of the member; or
 - (ii) if there is no designated beneficiary, to the estate of the member.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s11.

Board-elected variable benefit

12(1) In this section:

“board-elected variable benefit” means a prescribed pension benefit that is elected by the board on behalf of a member pursuant to subsection 20(4.1) of the Act;

“election” means an election made by the board on behalf of a member pursuant to subsection 20(4.1) of the Act for the member to receive a board-elected variable benefit.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) to (10), section 11 applies to board-elected variable benefits.

(3) For the purposes of applying section 11, paragraph 8506(1)(e.1) of the Income Tax Regulations (Canada) and section 29.2 of The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993 to a board-elected variable benefit, a reference in either of those provisions to an action by a member is deemed to be a reference to an action taken by the board on behalf of the member.

- (4) For the purposes of applying clause (a) of the definition of “variable benefit” in section 11, if the member has a spouse who is the member’s designated beneficiary, the spouse is deemed to be the specified beneficiary of the member.
- (5) Subject to subsection (10), for the purposes of applying clause (b) of the definition of variable benefit in section 11 to a board-elected variable benefit, the amount that the board elects on behalf of the member shall be the minimum amount determined for that calendar year.
- (6) For the purposes of applying the definition of “variable benefit account” in section 11 to a board-elected variable benefit, the variable benefit account is the amount standing to the credit of the member with respect to whom the board has made an election.
- (7) For the purposes of applying subsection 11(2) to a board-elected variable benefit, the transfer of the amount standing to the credit of a member to a variable benefit account is deemed to be the election by the board on behalf of the member.
- (8) Subsections 11(7) and (8) do not apply to a board-elected variable benefit.
- (9) For the purposes of applying subsection 11(10), if the member dies leaving a spouse, the member’s spouse is deemed to be the specified beneficiary of the member.
- (10) If a member to whom this section applies had elected, pursuant to clause 9(2)(d) of the Act, to participate in one or more specialty funds, the board shall:
- (a) in each calendar year, withdraw a portion of the minimum amount from each specialty fund in accordance with the member’s allocation; and
 - (b) continue to invest any amount standing to the credit of the member in accordance with the member’s allocation.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s12.

Specified participating employer and employees

13(1) In this section:

“effective date” means June 25, 2015;

“election” means an election by a former plan member pursuant to the former plan before the effective date with respect to:

- (a) voluntary contributions to the former plan;
- (b) a transfer of an amount into or out of the former plan;
- (c) retirement; or
- (d) the amount of a variable benefit;

“former plan” means the Capital Pension Plan as registered pursuant to The Pension Benefits Act, 1992 as plan number 0395624, as that plan exists on the effective date;

“former plan member” means a person who has an amount standing to his or her credit pursuant to the defined contribution provision of the former plan on the effective date, but does not include a person who is a member of the former plan solely for the purpose of receiving an annuity pursuant to the former plan;

“specified participating employer” means an employer that participated in the former plan on the effective date and became a participating employer with respect to one or more former plan members for the purposes of subsection 10(1) of the Act on the effective date.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection 10(5) of the Act, the membership in the former plan of every former plan member is terminated on the effective date.
- (3) The amount standing to the credit of every former plan member whose membership in the former plan is terminated pursuant to subsection (2):
 - (a) is transferred to the fund on the effective date in accordance with subsection (4); and
 - (b) on transfer into the fund, is an amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund on the effective date.
- (4) On the effective date, the administrator of the former plan shall transfer assets to the fund in an amount that is equal in value to the aggregate of the amounts required to be transferred into the fund pursuant to subsection (3).
- (5) Until a member who is a former plan member makes an election pursuant to subsection 9(2) of the Act for the purposes of the investment of the amount standing to the credit of the member, the amount standing to the credit of a member that has been transferred to the fund pursuant to subsection (3) is to be allocated:
 - (a) with respect to the amount standing to the credit of the member on the effective date in the investment fund of the former plan known as the Pre-Retirement Fund, to the specialty fund known as the Money Market Fund; and
 - (b) with respect to every other amount standing to the credit of a member on the effective date, to the specialty fund designated pursuant to clause 9(1)(b) of the Act.
- (6) An agreement with respect to the amount of contributions for the purposes of the former plan by a specified participating employer and a former plan member that is in existence on the day before the effective date is deemed to be an agreement for the purposes of clause 11(3)(a) of the Act that provides for the amount of contributions to the fund.
- (7) Until a member who is a former plan member makes an election pursuant to subsection 9(2) of the Act for the purposes of the investment of the contributions of the member in the fund, the contributions of the member to the fund after the effective date are to be allocated:
 - (a) if the member has directed the investment of contributions in the investment fund of the former plan known as the Pre-Retirement Fund, to the specialty fund known as the Money Market Fund; and
 - (b) with respect to contributions other than contributions allocated pursuant to clause (a), to the specialty fund designated pursuant to clause 9(1)(b) of the Act.

(8) An election by a member who is a former plan member may be acted on by the board as if the election were made pursuant to the Act.

(9) For the purposes of section 21 of the Act, a designation of a beneficiary by a member pursuant to the former plan is a designation of a beneficiary by the member that may be accepted by the board if the designation otherwise complies with that section.

5 Jne 2015 cP-36.2 Reg 2 s13.

Beneficiaries

14 On the death of a member, a beneficiary shall provide the board with the following documents, in addition to any other requirements established by the Act or the regulations, in order to establish the beneficiary's entitlements pursuant to the Act:

- (a) a notarial copy of the death certificate;
- (b) if the beneficiary is a spouse within the meaning of subclause 2(m)(i) of the Act, a notarial copy of the marriage certificate;
- (c) if the beneficiary is a spouse within the meaning of subclause 2(m)(ii) of the Act, a statutory declaration setting out the facts establishing the relationship of the beneficiary and the deceased member;
- (d) if the deceased member was divorced, the original certificate or decree of divorce or a copy that is notarized or certified by the proper official of the court that issued the certificate or decree;
- (e) if the beneficiary is not a spouse, a statutory declaration setting out the facts establishing the identity of the beneficiary.
