The Animal Protection Act, 1999

PART I
Title and Interpretation

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Animal Protection Regulations, 2000.

Interpretation

2 In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Animal Protection Act, 1999;
- (b) “Form” means a form set out in Part I of the Appendix.

11 Aug 2000 cA-21.1 Reg 1 s2.

PART II
Animals in Distress

Codes of practice for care and handling of animals

3 The standards or codes of conduct, criteria, practices or procedures set out in Part II of the Appendix are prescribed as acceptable for the purposes of clause 2(3)(a) of the Act.

11 Aug 2000 cA-21.1 Reg 1 s3.

Approval of humane societies

4(1) Any organization that wishes to be approved as a humane society for the purposes of the Act shall:

- (a) apply to the minister in the form specified by the minister; and
- (b) provide the minister with:
 - (i) evidence satisfactory to the minister that the organization meets the requirements set out in clause 3(1)(a) of the Act; and
 - (ii) any additional information that the minister may reasonably require to consider the application.

(2) The minister may approve an organization as a humane society where the minister:

- (a) receives an application pursuant to subsection (1); and
- (b) is satisfied that the applicant has complied with the Act and these regulations.

- (3) The minister shall issue a certificate of approval to each organization that is approved as a humane society.
- (4) An approval granted pursuant to this section remains in effect until:
 - (a) the organization dissolves or ceases to operate or ceases to be registered as a corporation pursuant to an Act; or
 - (b) the minister suspends or revokes the approval in accordance with these regulations.

11 Aug 2000 cA-21.1 Reg 1 s4.

Animal protection officers

- 5(1) An application to have a person appointed as an animal protection officer must be submitted by a humane society.
- (2) A humane society that wishes to have a person appointed as an animal protection officer for the purposes of the Act shall:
 - (a) recommend that person to the minister in writing; and
 - (b) along with the written recommendation mentioned in clause (a), provide the minister with evidence satisfactory to the minister that the person:
 - (i) meets the qualifications set out in subsection (3) and the requirements of clause 3(2)(b) of the Act; or
 - (ii) was, on the day before the coming into force of the Act, a peace officer appointed pursuant to Part I of The Animal Protection Act.
- (3) For the purposes of subclause (2)(b)(i), a person must:
 - (a) demonstrate:
 - (i) knowledge of the care of livestock and other animals;
 - (ii) knowledge of the Act, these regulations, and the cruelty to animals provisions in the Criminal Code; and
 - (iii) ability to carry out the duties and responsibilities imposed on animal protection officers pursuant to the Act;
 - (b) hold a valid Saskatchewan driver's licence;
 - (c) subject to section 6, have successfully completed an investigative training course that is approved by the minister; and
 - (d) obtain, at his or her own expense, and submit to the humane society recommending the appointment, a copy of a criminal record check of himself or herself dated not more than 30 days before the date the humane society forwards its written recommendation to the minister.
- (4) The minister shall issue a certificate of appointment to every person appointed as an animal protection officer.

- (5) The humane society that recommended a person as an animal protection officer shall:
- (a) immediately inform the minister in writing if the animal protection officer dies or resigns or ceases to be employed or engaged by the humane society; and
 - (b) as soon as possible return the animal protection officer's certificate of appointment to the minister.
- (6) On receipt of a written notice pursuant to subsection (5), the minister may immediately revoke the animal protection officer's appointment without being required to comply with section 8.

11 Aug 2000 cA-21.1 Reg 1 s5; 31 Dec 2015 SR 115/2015 s3.

Certain animal protection officers conditionally appointed

- 6(1) The minister may appoint a person mentioned in subclause 5(2)(b)(i) as an animal protection officer notwithstanding that the person has not successfully completed the investigative training course mentioned in clause 5(3)(c).
- (2) Every person mentioned in subsection (1) who is appointed as an animal protection officer without having successfully completed the investigative training course mentioned in clause 5(3)(c) must successfully complete that course within 16 months after being appointed.
- (3) Every animal protection officer who is required to successfully complete the investigative training course mentioned in clause 5(3)(c) must perform his or her duties as an animal protection officer under the supervision or direction of an animal protection officer who has successfully completed the course.
- (4) If an animal protection officer who is required by this section to complete the investigative training course mentioned in clause 5(3)(c) successfully completes the course, the humane society that recommended the person as an animal protection officer shall provide the minister with evidence satisfactory to the minister that the animal protection officer has successfully completed the course.
- (5) If an animal protection officer who is required by this section to complete the training course mentioned in clause 5(3)(c) fails to successfully do so within the 16-month period set out in this section, the minister may immediately revoke the animal protection officer's appointment without being required to comply with section 8.

31 Dec 2015 SR 115/2015 s4.

Suspension or revocation

- 7(1) Subject to section 8, the minister may suspend or revoke the approval of a humane society where, in the minister's opinion, the humane society:
- (a) has failed to comply with the Act or these regulations;

- (b) has acted in a manner that is contrary to the public interest;
 - (c) has ceased to have as a principal object the prevention of cruelty to animals; or
 - (d) has provided false or misleading information to the minister in an application submitted pursuant to section 4 or at any other time.
- (2) Where the minister revokes the approval of a humane society pursuant to subsection (1), the humane society shall return its certificate of approval to the minister.
- (3) Subject to section 8, the minister may suspend or revoke the appointment of an animal protection officer where, in the minister's opinion, the animal protection officer:
- (a) has failed to comply with the Act or these regulations;
 - (b) has acted in a manner that is contrary to the public interest while performing his or her duties and responsibilities as an animal protection officer;
 - (c) has provided false or misleading information to the humane society or to the minister in obtaining the appointment or at any other time; or
 - (d) no longer meets the qualifications set out in section 5.
- (4) Where the minister revokes the appointment of an animal protection officer pursuant to subsection (3), the animal protection officer shall return his or her certificate of appointment to the minister.

11 Aug 2000 cA-21.1 Reg 1 s7.

Opportunity to be heard

- 8(1) Subject to subsection (2), the minister shall not suspend or revoke:
- (a) the approval of a humane society pursuant to subsection 7(1) without giving the humane society an opportunity to be heard; or
 - (b) the appointment of any animal protection officer pursuant to subsection 7(3) without giving the animal protection officer an opportunity to be heard.
- (2) If the minister considers that it is necessary to do so to protect the public interest, the minister may immediately suspend or revoke an approval of a humane society or an appointment of an animal protection officer without giving the humane society or animal protection officer, as the case may be, an opportunity to be heard, but shall give the humane society or animal protection officer, as the case may be, an opportunity to be heard within 15 days after the date on which the minister suspends or revokes the approval or appointment.

11 Aug 2000 cA-21.1 Reg 1 s8.

Record keeping requirements

- 9(1) Every humane society shall maintain a written record of the names and addresses of the animal protection officers appointed by the minister as animal protection officers for that humane society.

- (2) Every humane society shall maintain a written record of:
 - (a) all complaints received by the humane society respecting the mistreatment of animals; and
 - (b) the steps taken by the humane society with respect to each complaint.
- (3) Every humane society shall, at the time and in the manner that the minister may request, forward to the minister for the purposes of inspection:
 - (a) any records required to be maintained pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) or any extract from those records; and
 - (b) any additional information that the minister considers necessary in order to ascertain whether the Act and these regulations are being complied with.
- (4) Every humane society shall retain the records mentioned in subsections (1) and (2) for at least six years after the expiration of the year in which the records were created.

11 Aug 2000 cA-21.1 Reg 1 s9.

Search warrants

- 10(1) The information to be sworn by an animal protection officer pursuant to subsection 7(1) of the Act for the purposes of obtaining a search warrant is to be in Form A.
- (2) A search warrant issued pursuant to subsection 7(1) of the Act is to be in Form B.
- (3) An animal protection officer who obtains a search warrant pursuant to section 7 of the Act shall, after executing the warrant, file a report in Form C with the justice of the peace or the provincial court judge who issued the warrant.

11 Aug 2000 cA-21.1 Reg 1 s10.

Sale of detained animals

- 11(1) Before selling an animal detained by it pursuant to clause 13(1)(b) of the Act, a humane society shall comply with this section.
- (2) The humane society is responsible for the proper care of the animal that it detains or causes to be detained for the period of detention.
- (3) Subject to subsection (5), the humane society shall post a notice of the sale, for at least two consecutive days before the sale:
 - (a) at any premises of the humane society that are accessible to the public; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) at the place of sale, if the animal is to be sold by auction;
 - (ii) at the local detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police; or
 - (iii) in any public place that the humane society considers appropriate in the circumstances.

- (4) The notice mentioned in subsection (3) must state:
 - (a) the name and address of the humane society;
 - (b) a description of the animal; and
 - (c) the location of the premises where the animal will be offered for sale.
- (5) A humane society is not required to post the notice mentioned in subsection (3) where:
 - (a) the person responsible for the animal is known to the humane society; and
 - (b) the humane society has sent a written notice to the person responsible for the animal that the humane society may sell the animal if that person does not, within the period specified by the humane society in the written notice:
 - (i) pay to the humane society the expenses incurred with respect to the animal; or
 - (ii) enter into an agreement with the humane society for the payment of the expenses incurred with respect to the animal.
- (6) The proceeds derived from the sale of the detained animal must be applied in priority of payment:
 - (a) first to the expenses incurred in connection with the detention, advertising and sale of the detained animal pursuant to clause 13(1)(b) of the Act; and
 - (b) second to the expenses mentioned in section 12 of the Act related to the detention.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), the humane society may retain the balance of the sale proceeds remaining after the payment of the expenses mentioned in subsection (6).
- (8) If the sale proceeds exceed the expenses mentioned in subsection (6):
 - (a) within 30 days after the date of the sale of the animal, the person formerly responsible for the animal may claim the balance from the humane society; and
 - (b) on receipt of a claim pursuant to clause (a), the humane society shall pay the balance to that person, on being satisfied that the person was the person responsible for the animal at the time the animal was taken into custody.
- (9) Where an animal is sold pursuant to this section and section 13 of the Act, the animal becomes the property of the person to whom it is sold.
- (10) A person responsible for an animal detained by a humane society pursuant to the Act may, at any time before the animal is sold pursuant to the Act and these regulations, reclaim the animal by:
 - (a) paying to the humane society the expenses incurred with respect to the animal; or
 - (b) entering into an agreement with the humane society for the payment of the expenses incurred with respect to the animal.
