CHAPTER P-36.2 REG 1

The Public Employees Pension Plan Act

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Public Employees Pension Plan Regulations.

Interpretation

2 In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Public Employees Pension Plan Act;
- (b) “locked-in retirement account” means a locked-in retirement account contract as defined in section 29 of The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993;
- (c) “registered retirement savings plan” means a registered retirement savings plan as defined in section 146 of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
- (d) “year’s maximum pensionable earnings” means the Year’s Maximum Pensionable Earnings as defined in the Canada Pension Plan.

27 Jne 97 cP-36.2 Reg 1 s2.

Interpretation of Act

2.1(1) For the purposes of clause 2(1) of the Act, “bonus” does not include a lump sum payment that is payable by a participating employer to a member pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement that provides that the lump sum payment is not pensionable.

(2) For the purposes of clause 13(2)(a) of the Act, “sickness or disability”, in relation to a member, means suffering from a physical or mental impairment that prevents the member from performing the duties of the employment in which the member was engaged before the commencement of the impairment.

(3) For the purposes of the Act and in these regulations, “employee” includes a senior justice of the peace appointed pursuant to The Justices of the Peace Act, 1988.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES
PENSION PLAN

P-36.2 REG 1

Small benefits

9 The board may pay to a person entitled to a pension benefit an amount equal to the amount standing to the credit of a member if the amount standing to the credit of the member does not exceed the maximum amount determined pursuant to subsection 39(1) of The Pension Benefits Act, 1992.

19 May 2006 SR 40/2006 s3.

Prescribed pension benefits

10(1) Subject to subsection (2), for the purposes of clause 5(e.1) of the Act, a variable benefit that meets the requirements of section 10.1 is a prescribed pension benefit that the board may provide.

(2) For the purposes of clause 5(e.1) and subsection 20(4.1) of the Act, a board-elected variable benefit that meets the requirements of sections 10.1 and 10.2 is a prescribed pension benefit that the board may provide.

8 Aug 2008 SR 70/2008 s4.

Variable benefits

10.1(1) In this section:

- (a) “variable benefit” means a pension benefit that:
  - (i) is payable from a variable benefit account to a member or to the specified beneficiary of a deceased member;
  - (ii) with respect to a calendar year, is in an amount elected by the member that is not less than the minimum amount determined for that calendar year;
  - (iii) meets the requirements of paragraph 8506(1)(e.1) of the Income Tax Regulations (Canada); and
  - (iv) meets the requirements of section 29.2 of The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993;
- (b) “variable benefit account” means the amount standing to the credit of a member with respect to which the member has elected to receive a variable benefit.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a member may elect to receive a variable benefit from the plan by transferring all or any part of the amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund to a variable benefit account.

(3) An amount standing to the credit of a member in the fund shall not be transferred to a variable benefit account unless:

- (a) the member:
  - (i) ceases to be employed by a participating employer;

- (ii) is entitled to retire and receive a prescribed pension benefit; and
    - (iii) subject to subsections (4) and (5), designates a beneficiary;
  - (b) the amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund is greater than the maximum amount mentioned in section 9; and
  - (c) the member's spouse has signed a consent to the transfer in Form 2.01 pursuant to The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993 and the consent has been filed with the board.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), a member may revoke a designation of a beneficiary by designating a different beneficiary.
- (5) If a member who elects to receive a variable benefit has a spouse, the beneficiary must be the spouse unless a spouse's waiver in Form 2.02 pursuant to The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993 has been signed by the spouse and filed with the board.
- (6) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), at any time after a member elects to receive a variable benefit:
- (a) the member may, to the extent permitted pursuant to the Income Tax Act (Canada), transfer from the member's variable benefit account all or any part of the amount standing to the credit of the member in the variable benefit account to any plan, fund or contract that permits the transfer; and
  - (b) if there is an amount standing to the credit of the member in the variable benefit account, the member may, to the extent permitted pursuant to the Income Tax Act (Canada), transfer to the variable benefit account all or any part of an amount standing to the credit of the member in any plan, fund or contract that permits the transfer.
- (7) If, after electing to receive a variable benefit, a member becomes employed by a participating employer, during the period of that employment, the member:
- (a) shall make contributions to the fund in accordance with section 11 of the Act with respect to that employment; and
  - (b) is not entitled to transfer any amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund into the variable benefit account.
- (8) After a member's employment with a participating employer mentioned in subsection (7) terminates, the member may transfer an amount standing to the credit of the member in the fund:
- (a) to the variable benefit account;
  - (b) to the extent permitted by the Income Tax Act (Canada), to any plan, fund or contract that permits the transfer; or
  - (c) in portions determined by the member, to any combination of the variable benefit account and plans, funds and contracts described in clause (b).

(9) For the purpose of dividing a variable benefit on the breakdown of the spousal relationship of a member, each reference in section 24 of the Act to the amount standing to the credit of the member is a reference to the amount standing to the credit of the member in the variable benefit account.

(10) After the death of a member who has elected to receive a variable benefit:

(a) if the member had a specified beneficiary, the variable benefit is to be paid to the specified beneficiary in accordance with the Income Tax Regulations (Canada); or

(b) if the member did not have a specified beneficiary, the amounts that may be paid out of the variable benefit account are to be paid:

(i) to the designated beneficiary of the member; or

(ii) if there is no designated beneficiary, to the estate of the member.

19 May 2006 SR 40/2006 s5; 6 Dec 2013 SR 95/
2013 s4.

Board-elected variable benefit

10.2(1) In this section:

(a) “board-elected variable benefit” means a prescribed pension benefit that is elected by the board on behalf of a member pursuant to subsection 20(4.1) of the Act;

(b) “election” means an election made by the board on behalf of a member pursuant to subsection 20(4.1) of the Act for the member to receive a board-elected variable benefit.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) to (10), section 10.1 applies to board-elected variable benefits.

(3) For the purposes of applying section 10.1, paragraph 8506(1)(e.1) of the Income Tax Regulations (Canada) and section 29.2 of The Pension Benefits Regulations, 1993 to a board-elected variable benefit, a reference in either of those provisions to an action by a member is deemed to be a reference to an action taken by the board on behalf of the member.

(4) For the purposes of applying subclause 10.1(1)(a)(i), if the member has a spouse who is the member’s designated beneficiary, the spouse is deemed to be the specified beneficiary of the member.

(5) Subject to subsection (10), for the purposes of applying subclause 10.1(1)(a)(ii) to a board-elected variable benefit, the amount that the board elects on behalf of the member shall be the minimum amount determined for that calendar year.

(6) For the purposes of applying clause 10.1(1)(b) to a board-elected variable benefit, the variable benefit account is the amount standing to the credit of the member with respect to whom the board has made an election.

(7) For the purposes of applying subsection 10.1(2) to a board-elected variable benefit, the transfer of the amount standing to the credit of a member to a variable benefit account is deemed to be the election by the board on behalf of the member.

(8) Subsections 10.1(7) and (8) do not apply to a board-elected variable benefit.

(9) For the purposes of applying subsection 10.1(10), if the member dies leaving a spouse, the member's spouse is deemed to be the specified beneficiary of the member.

(10) If a member to whom this section applies had elected, pursuant to clause 9(2)(d) of the Act, to participate in one or more specialty funds, the board shall:

- (a) in each calendar year, withdraw a portion of the minimum amount from each specialty fund in accordance with the member's allocation; and
- (b) continue to invest any amount standing to the credit of the member in accordance with the member's allocation.

8 Aug 2008 SR 70/2008 s5.

Beneficiaries

11 On the death of a member, a beneficiary must provide the board with the following documents, in addition to any other requirements established by the Act or the regulations, in order to establish the beneficiary's entitlements pursuant to the Act:

- (a) a notarial copy of the death certificate;
- (b) if the beneficiary is a spouse within the meaning of subclause 2(m)(i) of the Act, a notarial copy of the marriage certificate;
- (c) if the beneficiary is a spouse within the meaning of subclause 2(m)(ii) of the Act, a statutory declaration setting out the facts establishing the relationship of the beneficiary and the deceased member;
- (d) if the deceased member was divorced, the original certificate or decree of divorce or a copy that is notarized or certified by the proper official of the court that issued the certificate or decree;
- (e) if the beneficiary is not a spouse, a statutory declaration setting out the facts establishing the identity of the beneficiary.
