Grounds of decision

26 Upon the hearing of the motion the relator shall not be allowed to object to the election of the respondent or to attack his right to sit or to support the election of a person alleged to have been duly elected upon a ground not specified in the notice of motion; but the judge, in his discretion, may entertain any substantial ground of objection to or in support of the validity of the election of either or any of the parties that may appear in the evidence before him.

R.R.S.1978, c.C-33, s.31.

Liability of returning officer, etc.

32(1) Where an election has been held invalid owing to the improper refusal of a returning officer or deputy returning officer to receive ballot papers tendered by duly qualified voters, or to give ballot papers to duly qualified voters, the judge may in his discretion order the costs of the proceedings to unseat the person declared elected or any part thereof or any other costs to be paid by the returning officer or deputy returning officer.

R.R.S.1978, c.C-33, s.33.

34 The judge shall, immediately after his decision, return his order with all things had before him touching the same to the proper court officer acting at the judicial centre in which the proceedings are entitled, there to remain of record as a judgment of the court; and as occasion requires the judgment may be enforced in the same manner as an order of mandamus and, for the costs awarded, as a judgment of the court.
