Expropriation of easement

21 Notwithstanding anything in this Act, where the expropriating authority is the Crown in right of the province or an agent of the Crown and desires to acquire by expropriation an easement only with regard to the land, the expropriating authority may enter upon and use the land and thereupon the provisions of subsections 11(1), (2) and (3) and section 20 apply mutatis mutandis to this section.

(2) The expropriating authority shall forthwith after the service of a notice under subsection (1) furnish the owner with the evaluation report showing all the facts taken into account by the expropriating authority in arriving at the amount of compensation offered and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the report shall also show:

Procedure respecting tender where whereabouts of owner unknown

25 Where, after exercising all reasonable efforts to find the owner, an expropriating authority is unable to locate him, the authority may proceed as if it had tendered payment of the amount offered as compensation and the offer was refused by the owner; and in such a case sections 23 and 24 apply mutatis mutandis.

- (b) pays an amount as compensation to the owner that the owner accepts subject to section 24;

and the amount so paid exceeds the amount of compensation awarded in the action for compensation, the expropriating authority is entitled to a judgment against the owner in the amount by which the amount paid under clause (a) or (b), as the case may be, exceeds the amount awarded in the action as compensation.
