8.1(1) In this section:

(a) “existing personal care home” means a personal care home for which, on the coming into force of this section, there is a valid licence;

(b) “new personal care home” means a proposed personal care home or a personal care home for which, on the coming into force of this section, there is no valid licence.

(2) On and after the coming into force of this section, an applicant for a licence for a new personal care home that is intended to accommodate 21 or more residents must, as part of the applicant’s application:

(a) file a bond in the prescribed form and amount; or

(b) provide security in any other prescribed form and amount.

(3) If required to do so by the regulations, a licensee of an existing personal care home in any category prescribed for the purposes of this subsection must, as part of the licensee’s application for renewal of the licence:

(a) file a bond in the prescribed form and amount; or

(b) provide security in any other prescribed form and amount.

(8) Notwithstanding that the Crown in right of Saskatchewan has not suffered any loss or damage:

(a) every bond filed pursuant to clause (2)(a) or (3)(a) must be construed as being a penal bond; and
(b) if any bond is forfeited pursuant to subsection (9), the amount due and owing as a debt to the Crown in right of Saskatchewan by the person bound by the bond must be determined as if the Crown had suffered a loss or damage that would entitle the Crown to be indemnified to the maximum amount of liability set out in the bond.

(9) Every bond filed pursuant to clause (2)(a) or (3)(a) is forfeited on the demand of the minister if the minister has reason to believe that:

(a) the licensee:

(ii) has not provided the department with notice of intention to discontinue operation of the personal care home as required by the regulations;

(12) The minister may, by order, direct that any moneys recovered pursuant to a forfeited bond, or any moneys obtained by recourse to other security, be paid over in accordance with and on the conditions set forth in the order to an administrator appointed pursuant to section 14.1 or 14.11 with respect to the personal care home of the person named in the bond or other security or to an agent of the administrator.

(13) Any moneys not paid over pursuant to an order of the minister made pursuant to subsection (12) must, after the payment of any expenditures incurred by the minister in connection with the forfeiture of the bond or the recourse to the other security or by the administrator in carrying out the duties of the administrator, be refunded to the surety or obligor pursuant to the bond or other security.
