Certain powers of department subject to approval of minister
6 Subject to the approval of the minister, the ministry may:
   (a) furnish, alter or repair buildings necessary for the purpose of exercising any of the powers or performing any of the duties of the ministry;
   (b) enter into contracts for the alteration or repair of buildings necessary for the purpose of exercising any of the powers or performing any of the duties of the ministry;
   (c) where the amount involved does not exceed $1,000, settle legal and equitable claims against the ministry if the minister deems it advisable to do so in the interest of or for the welfare of persons in Saskatchewan;
   (d) upon such terms and conditions as the minister may deem advisable:
       (i) purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any real property;
       (ii) sell, lease, sublease, exchange, assign, distribute or otherwise deal with real property acquired;

   where the value of the real property does not exceed $1,000 or, in the case of a lease or sublease of real property, the term of the lease or sublease does not exceed ten years or the annual rent under the lease or sublease does not exceed $1,000;
(e) in any other case where the amount involved does not exceed $1,000, do such acts and things or pay such expenses or fees, other than those provided for by subsection (2) of section 7 that the minister deems advisable for the purpose of providing for the welfare of persons in Saskatchewan.

Certain powers of department subject to approval of Lieutenant Governor in Council

7(1) Subject to the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the ministry may, except in cases provided for by section 6, do such things as the minister deems advisable for the purpose of promoting the well being and providing for the welfare of persons in Saskatchewan.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), when authorized by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to do so the ministry may:

(a) when the amount involved exceeds $1,000, settle legal and equitable claims against the ministry if the minister deems it advisable to do so in the interest of or for the welfare of persons in Saskatchewan;

(b) upon such terms and conditions as the Lieutenant Governor in Council deems advisable:

(i) purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any real property;

(ii) sell, lease, sublease, exchange, assign, distribute or otherwise deal with real property acquired;

when the value of the real property exceeds $1,000 or, in the case of a lease or sublease of real property, the term of the lease or sublease exceeds ten years or the annual rent under the lease or sublease exceeds $1,000.

R.S.S. 1978, c.D-23, s.7; 2014, c.E-13.1, s.43.

Responsibilities of minister

8 The minister is responsible for all matters not by law assigned to any other minister, ministry or agency of the government of Saskatchewan related to the following:

(a) providing programs or services for the benefit of people in Saskatchewan;

(b) assisting in the research, development, expansion or maintenance of services that have as their purpose the furthering of the welfare of persons in Saskatchewan;

(c) collecting information and statistics relating to all matters of welfare;

(d) disseminating information in any manner and in any form that the minister considers best suited to promote the welfare of persons in Saskatchewan;
(e) conducting research to determine the effectiveness of its programs in providing programs and services to persons in Saskatchewan;

(f) conducting programs or research for the purposes of furthering the programs and services of the ministry for persons in Saskatchewan;

(g) conducting research and carrying out and coordinating programs respecting housing.

Appeal committees and provincial appeal boards

10(1) The minister may establish appeal committees that shall review or hear any grievances, arising out of the administration of this Act or any other Act administered by the ministry, that are submitted by persons who feel that they are aggrieved by a decision, act or omission of an official or representative of the ministry.

(2) The minister may, subject to the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, establish provincial appeal boards, and any person, including a director within or a representative of the ministry, who is dissatisfied with a decision of an appeal committee may appeal to a provincial appeal board.

(3) An appeal committee or a provincial appeal board may, in addition to deciding a matter under appeal, recommend to the minister:

   (a) changes in existing laws or policies administered by or affecting the ministry;

   (b) changes in service practices of the ministry.

(4) The minister may, by order, make rules for the procedure and operation of an appeal committee or a provincial appeal board.

(5) The decision of a provincial appeal board is final.

(6) The minister shall provide each appeal committee and provincial appeal board with any clerical, technical or professional staff that the appeal committee or provincial appeal board may require in order to carry out its functions.

(7) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may determine the amounts that may be paid to members of appeal committees and provincial appeal boards as remuneration for their services or allowances for expenses.
