CHAPTER 48

An Act to incorporate The Saskatchewan Club

(Assented to April 3, 1907)

Preamble

WHEREAS the persons hereinafter named with a number of others in the province of Saskatchewan have associated themselves for the establishment of a club for social purposes;

And whereas the hereinafter named persons have prayed to be incorporated by the name of The Saskatchewan Club of the city of Prince Albert in the said province of Saskatchewan and it is expedient to grant their prayer:

Therefore His Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

Incorporation

1 James McKay, Harold E. Ross, William Cowan, Arthur J. Bell and J.S. Woodward, esquires and such other persons as now are or hereafter shall become members of the said association shall be and are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate in deed and in name by the name of "The Saskatchewan Club", and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and shall have power from time to time and at all times hereafter to be able and capable to purchase, acquire, hold, possess and enjoy and to have, take and receive to them and their successors to and for the actual use and occupation of the said corporation any lands, tenements, hereditaments and real and immovable property and estate situate, lying and being within the said city of Prince Albert and the same to sell, alienate, exchange and otherwise dispose of whensoever the said corporation may deem it proper so to do.

1907, c. 48, s.1.

Constitution and meetings

2 The constitution, rules and regulations touching the administration of the said corporation shall be formulated at a general meeting thereof called for that purpose and of which at least five days' notice shall be given by public advertisement or otherwise to all the members thereof; and the constitution, rules and regulations then adopted shall have full force and effect in so far as the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws in force in the said province and the provisions of this Act:

Provided always that the said corporation may from time to time change, alter and repeal such constitution, rules and regulations in the manner therein provided.

1907, c. 48, s.2.

Borrowing

3 The said corporation may from time to time borrow money at such rate of interest and upon such terms as they may think proper; and may for such purpose make, execute or issue any mortgages, bonds, debentures or other instruments, under the seal of the said corporation.

1907, c. 48, s.3.

Execution of mortgages, etc.

4 Any such mortgage, bond, debenture or other instrument shall be signed by the president of the said corporation and countersigned by the secretary.

1907, c. 48, s.4.

Payment of interest

5 The interest of the debentures to be issued under section 3 of this Act shall be a first charge upon the entrance fees from new members entering said association and it shall be the duty of the committee in each year out of the said entrance fees in so far as the same shall extend to pay the interest falling due in each year.

1907, c. 48, s.5.

Application of money borrowed

6 The moneys authorised to be raised by debentures under the provisions of section 3 of this Act shall be applied exclusively in the purchase of a site for the club buildings and in the purchase, improvements or erection of a club house and dependencies thereon together with necessary furniture or for the purchase of any freehold interest therein and in the payment of any mortgage or charge thereon and for the redemption for the said debentures and any reissues as they become due respectively from time to time and at all times.

1907, c. 48, s.6.

Liability of members

7 No member of the corporation shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the corporation in the event of the same being wound up beyond the extent of the entrance fee and annual subscriptions remaining unpaid by the said member and for any unpaid accounts he may have incurred to the corporation for articles ordered by him in the said club; and any member of the said club not so indebted to the said corporation may retire therefrom and will cease to be a member on giving notice to that effect in such form as may be required by the constitution, rules and regulations of the said club and thenceforth shall be free from liability for any debt or engagement of the club.

1907, c. 48, s.7.

Negotiable instruments

8 The president and secretary of the said corporation shall have power to draw, make, accept and indorse all bills of exchange and promissory notes necessary for the purposes of the said corporation when authorised so to do; and in no case shall it be necessary that the seal of the corporation be affixed to any such bill or note nor shall the president or secretary be individually responsible therefor.

1907, c. 48, s.8.

Leasing

9 Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained the said corporation shall have power to lease any portions of the real estate held by the said corporation upon such terms and for such period as may be agreed upon.

1907, c. 48, s.9.

Short title

10 This Act may be cited as "The Saskatchewan Club Act".

1907, c. 48, s.10.
