1998, c.C-4.12, s.2.

INSTITUTE

Institute continued

3 The Institute of Certified Management Consultants of Saskatchewan Inc., incorporated pursuant to The Non-Profit Corporations Act, is continued as The Institute of Certified Management Consultants of Saskatchewan.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.3.

Membership

4 The membership of the institute consists of:

- (a) those persons who are members of The Institute of Certified Management Consultants of Saskatchewan Inc. on the day before this Act comes into force;
- and

c C-4.12CERTIFIED MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

(b) those persons who are admitted as members of the institute pursuant to this Act and the bylaws.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.4.

Property

5(1) The institute may acquire, hold, mortgage, lease, sell or dispose of any property.

(2) All fees, fines and penalties receivable or recoverable pursuant to this Act are the property of the institute.

(3) The institute may:

(a) invest its funds in investments in which trustees are authorized to invest pursuant to The Trustee Act, 2009; and

(b) sell or otherwise dispose of those investments and reinvest the proceeds in similar investments.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.5; 2009, c.T-23.01, s.64.

Meetings

6(1) An annual meeting of the institute is to be held at the time and place that is determined by the council in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) A special meeting of the institute for the transaction of the business that is specified in the resolution or demand is to be held:

(a) on resolution of the council; or

(b) on the demand, in writing, of the number of members specified in the bylaws.

(3) The procedure at an annual or special meeting is to be determined by bylaw.

(4) The registrar shall send a notice of an annual meeting or special meeting to each member at least 10 days before the meeting.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.6.

COUNCILCouncil

7(1) The council shall manage and regulate the affairs and business of the institute.

(2) The council consists of:

(a) the number of members prescribed in the bylaws elected by members in accordance with this Act and the bylaws; and

(b) the persons appointed pursuant to section 8.

(3) No member is eligible to be elected as a member of the council unless that member resides in Saskatchewan.

(4) Members of the council elected pursuant to clause (2)(a) are entitled to remuneration and reimbursement for expenses in the amounts prescribed in the bylaws.

(5) Each member of the council elected pursuant to clause (2)(a) holds office for the term prescribed in the bylaws.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.7.

Public appointees

8(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may appoint two persons who reside in Saskatchewan as members of the council.

(2) Where the Lieutenant Governor in Council appoints a person as a member of the council, the term of office of that person is not to exceed three years.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a member of the council appointed pursuant to this section holds office until that person's successor is appointed and is eligible for reappointment, but is not eligible to hold office for more than two consecutive terms.

(4) A member of the council appointed pursuant to this section ceases to hold office if that person ceases to be a resident of Saskatchewan.

(5) A member of the council appointed pursuant to this section may exercise rights and serve as a member of committees to the same extent as other members of the council, but is not eligible to hold the office of president or vice-president.

(6) At least one member of the council appointed pursuant to this section shall be a member of the discipline committee.

(7) The absence or inability to act as a member of the discipline committee by a member of the council appointed pursuant to this section or the failure to appoint a member of the council pursuant to this section does not impair the ability of the other members of the discipline committee to act.

(8) The institute shall remunerate and reimburse for expenses the members of the council appointed pursuant to this section at the rate determined by bylaw.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.8.

Resignation

9(1) An elected member of the council may resign by giving written notice of his or her resignation to the council.

(2) A member of the council appointed pursuant to section 8 may resign by giving written notice of his or her resignation to the minister.

(3) The resignation of a member of the council pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) is effective:

(a) on the date stated in the written notice; or

(b) if no date is stated in the written notice, on the date the written notice is received by the council or the minister, as the case may be.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.9.

Vacancy

10(1) When a vacancy occurs in the elected membership of the council, the remaining members of the council may appoint another member to fill the vacancy until the earlier of the following:

- (a) the expiry of the term of office of the council member who ceased to be a member of the council;
 - (b) the date on which a member is elected to fill the vacancy in accordance with this Act and the bylaws.
- (2) A vacancy in the membership of the council does not impair the power of the remaining members of the council to act.
- (3) If a member serving as an elected councillor is suspended from the institute, the member's powers and duties as an elected councillor are suspended for the same period.
- (4) If a member serving as an elected councillor is expelled from the institute, the member ceases to be an elected councillor on the day the member is expelled.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.10.

Officers and employees

11(1) The officers of the institute are to be those that are:

- (a) designated in the bylaws; and
 - (b) appointed or elected in accordance with the bylaws.
- (2) The council shall appoint a registrar.
- (3) The council may engage any employees that it considers necessary to carry out the duties and functions of the institute.
- (4) Subject to this Act and the bylaws, the council shall determine the duties, responsibilities and remuneration of employees of the institute.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.11.

Committees

12(1) The council may establish any committees that are provided for by the bylaws or that it considers necessary.

- (2) The council shall appoint persons to any committees that are provided for by this Act or the bylaws or that it has established pursuant to subsection (1).
- (3) Subject to this Act and the bylaws, the council, on any terms or conditions that it may determine, may delegate any of its powers or duties to a committee provided for by this Act or the bylaws or established pursuant to subsection (1).
- (4) The council shall not delegate the power to make bylaws.
- (5) Subject to this Act and the bylaws, a committee may establish its own procedures.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.12.

BYLAWS

Procedures

13(1) The council, with the approval of not less than three-quarters of the members of the council, may make bylaws for any purpose set out in section 14.

(2) A bylaw made by the council pursuant to subsection (1) has effect only until the next annual or special meeting of the institute and, unless confirmed or varied by the members in accordance with subsection (3), ceases to have any effect after that time.

(3) With the approval of a two-thirds majority of those members who vote at an annual or special meeting, the institute may:

- (a) make bylaws for any purpose set out in section 14; and
- (b) confirm, vary or revoke any bylaw made by the council pursuant to subsection (1).

(4) The variation or revocation of a bylaw pursuant to subsection (3) does not affect the operation or application of the bylaw prior to its revocation or variation, and everything done, omitted to be done or authorized pursuant to the bylaw is valid and effective against all persons notwithstanding the revocation or variation.

(5) The registrar shall forward copies of proposed bylaws to all members at least 14 days before the date of the annual or special meeting at which the bylaws are to be presented.

(6) The registrar shall notify each member of each bylaw made pursuant to subsection (1) or (3), or confirmed, varied or revoked pursuant to subsection (3), within 150 days after the bylaw is made, confirmed, varied or revoked.

(7) Failure to comply with subsection (6) does not invalidate a bylaw.

(8) No regulatory bylaw made by the council or the institute comes into force until it is:

- (a) approved by the minister pursuant to section 15; and
- (b) published in the Gazette.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.13.

Bylaws

14(1) Subject to this Act, administrative bylaws may be made pursuant to section 13 for the following purposes:

- (a) prescribing the seal of the institute;
- (b) providing for the execution of documents by the institute;
- (c) respecting the banking and financial dealings of the institute;
- (d) fixing the fiscal year of the institute and providing for the audit of the accounts and transactions of the institute;

- (e) respecting the management of the property of the institute;
 - (f) prescribing the number and terms of office of elected members of the council;
 - (g) prescribing the officers of the institute and governing the procedure for the appointment or election of those officers;
 - (h) prescribing the duties of members of the council, and officers and employees of the institute;
 - (i) governing the procedures for the election of members of the council;
 - (j) prescribing the organization, powers and procedures of the council and regulating the council in the performance of its duties;
 - (k) respecting the holding and procedures of meetings of the council and annual and special meetings of the institute;
 - (l) prescribing the amount of registration, licensing and other fees payable to the institute, the times of payment and penalties for late payment;
 - (m) providing for the receipt, management and investment of contributions, donations or bequests;
 - (n) regulating joint participation by the institute with any educational institution or any person, group, association, organization or body corporate having goals or objectives similar to those of the institute;
 - (o) establishing any committees that the council considers necessary and prescribing the manner of election or appointment of committee members;
 - (p) prescribing any other thing that is necessary for the effective administration of the institute.
- (2) Subject to this Act, regulatory bylaws may be made pursuant to section 13 for the following purposes:
- (a) prescribing the qualifications, standards and tests of competency for:
 - (i) the registration of persons or any category of persons as members or prospective members;
 - (ii) the granting of certificates;
 - (iii) the issuing of licences;
 - (b) prescribing:
 - (i) the procedures governing registration of persons or any category of persons as members or prospective members;
 - (ii) the procedures governing the granting of certificates;
 - (iii) the terms and conditions of certificates;
 - (iv) the procedures governing the issuing of licences;
 - (v) the terms and conditions of licences;

- (c) setting standards of professional conduct, competency and proficiency of members and prospective members;
- (d) providing for a code of ethics for members and prospective members;
- (e) setting standards regarding the manner and method of practice of members and prospective members;
- (f) prescribing procedures for:
 - (i) the review, investigation and disposition by the professional conduct committee of complaints alleging that a member or a prospective member is guilty of professional misconduct or professional incompetence;
 - (ii) hearings by the discipline committee of complaints alleging that a member or a prospective member is guilty of professional misconduct or professional incompetence;
 - (iii) reviews pursuant to subsection 19(4);
- (g) establishing categories of membership in the institute and prescribing the rights and privileges of each category;
- (h) prescribing the circumstances under which members are required to attend re-entry education programs and courses and approving programs and courses for that purpose;
- (i) governing the approval of education programs for the purposes of registration pursuant to this Act and prescribing terms and conditions for initial or continued approval of those programs;
- (j) setting standards for continuing education and the participation of members in continuing education;
- (k) prescribing procedures for the review of members' methods of practice, including a program of practice inspections;
- (l) governing the reinstatement of a member who has been expelled;
- (m) setting requirements for maintenance of membership;
- (n) regulating advertising by members;
- (o) prescribing the number of members required to demand a special meeting of the institute;
- (p) prescribing the minimum amount of professional liability insurance that members are required to obtain;
- (q) prescribing the form, content and maintenance of the register and the information to be provided by members and prospective members for the purpose of the register;
- (r) respecting the reporting and publication of decisions and reports of the council and committees;

c C-4.12CERTIFIED MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

- (s) respecting the types and service of notices that may be served electronically;
- (t) prescribing the remuneration and reimbursement for expenses for members of the council and committee members;
- (u) prescribing any other matters considered necessary for the better carrying out of this Act.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.14; 2004, c.6, s.3.

Filing of bylaws

15(1) The institute shall file with the minister two copies, certified by the registrar to be true copies, of:

- (a) all regulatory bylaws; and
- (b) any amendment to a regulatory bylaw together with two certified copies of the regulatory bylaw to which the amendment relates.

(2) Where the minister does not advise the institute in writing within 90 days after receiving copies of the regulatory bylaw or amendment that the minister approves the regulatory bylaw or amendment, the regulatory bylaw or amendment is deemed not to be approved.

(3) Where the minister approves a regulatory bylaw or an amendment to a regulatory bylaw, the minister shall file with the Registrar of Corporations two copies, certified by the registrar to be true copies, of the regulatory bylaw or amendment.

(4) Where an amendment to a regulatory bylaw is filed pursuant to subsection (3), the minister shall file two copies, certified by the registrar to be true copies, of the regulatory bylaw with the amendment.

(5) Within 30 days after administrative bylaws or amendments to administrative bylaws are made, the council shall file with the Registrar of Corporations two copies, certified by the registrar to be true copies, of all administrative bylaws and all amendments made to those bylaws.

(6) Where an amendment to an administrative bylaw is filed pursuant to subsection (5), the council shall also file two copies, certified by the registrar to be true copies, of the administrative bylaw with the amendment.

(7) Where an administrative bylaw or an amendment to an administrative bylaw is not filed within the time required by subsection (5), the administrative bylaw or amendment to the administrative bylaw is deemed to be revoked on the expiration of the 30 days mentioned in subsection (5).

1998, c.C-4.12, s.15; 2010, c.B-12, s.20; 2021, c.6, s.23-26.

MEMBERSHIP AND REGISTRATION

Membership

16(1) The council, in accordance with this Act and the bylaws, may register persons as members.

(1.1) The council may grant certificates to members as proof of registration.

(2) The council may issue licences to members.

(3) The council, in accordance with this Act and the bylaws, may register persons as prospective members.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.16; 2004, c.6, s.4.

Register

17(1) In accordance with the bylaws, the council shall keep a register in which the name and address of every member and every prospective member is to be recorded.

(2) The register is to be:

(a) kept at the head office of the institute; and

(b) open for inspection by all persons, without fee, during normal office hours of the institute.

(2.1) The register may be made available in any other manner acceptable to the registrar, including an electronic format.

(3) A certificate purporting to be signed by the registrar and stating that a named person was or was not, on a specified day or during a specified period, a member, a prospective member or a suspended member according to the register, or an extract from the register that is certified by the registrar, is admissible in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of its contents without proof of the registrar's appointment or signature.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.17; 2020, c.9, s.8.

Registration

18(1) The council may register as a member, may grant a certificate as proof of registration and may issue a licence to, a person who produces evidence establishing to the satisfaction of the council that the person:

(a) has complied with the bylaws with respect to registration as a member;

(b) has practised as a management consultant for the minimum amount of time as set out in the bylaws;

(c) has successfully completed the examinations as set out in the bylaws; and

(d) has paid the prescribed fees.

(2) The council may register as a prospective member a person who produces evidence establishing to the satisfaction of the council that the person:

(a) has paid the prescribed fees;

c C-4.12CERTIFIED MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

- (b) has complied with the bylaws with respect to registration as a prospective member;
- (c) meets the criteria set out in the bylaws for registration as a prospective member; and
- (d) either:
 - (i) has obtained the required management consulting experience as set out in the bylaws; or
 - (ii) meets the educational requirements that are set out in the bylaws.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.18; 2004, c.6, s.5.

Delegation and appeal

19(1) The council may delegate to the registrar any or all of the following powers:

- (a) to register persons as members and prospective members;
 - (b) to grant certificates to members;
 - (c) to issue licences to members.
- (2) Where a power is delegated pursuant to this section, the exercise of that power by the registrar is deemed to be an exercise of the power by the council.
- (3) The council may impose any terms and conditions that it considers appropriate on a delegation of its powers.
- (4) A person who is adversely affected by a decision of the registrar made pursuant to a delegated power may apply to the council to review that decision.
- (5) On a review pursuant to subsection (4), the council shall hear the review and may:
- (a) direct the registrar to exercise the power in a manner that the council considers appropriate; or
 - (b) confirm the registrar's decision.
- (6) On a review pursuant to subsection (4), the person adversely affected by the decision of the registrar has the right to appear in person before the council in support of the application.
- (7) The council shall cause the applicant to be informed in writing of its decision regarding the review.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.19; 2004, c.6, s.6.

PROHIBITIONProtection of title

20(1) No person other than a member shall use the title "Certified Management Consultant", the abbreviation "C.M.C.", or any word, title or designation, abbreviated or otherwise, to imply that the person is a member.

(2) No person other than a member who is designated as a fellow member shall use the abbreviation “F.C.M.C.”, or any word, title, or designation, abbreviated or otherwise, to imply that the person is a member and is authorized to use that designation.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.20; 2001, c.8, s.6.

DISCIPLINE

Interpretation re discipline provisions

20.1 In sections 20.2 to 38, “member” includes a former member.

2010, c.20, s.14.

Proceedings against former members

20.2(1) No proceedings conducted pursuant to this Act shall be commenced against a former member more than two years after the day he or she became a former member.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a proceeding is commenced when the professional conduct committee, pursuant to subsection 22(1), is requested by the council to consider a complaint or is in receipt of a written complaint alleging that a member is guilty of professional misconduct or professional incompetence.

2010, c.20, s.14.

Professional conduct committee

21(1) The professional conduct committee is established consisting of at least three persons appointed by the council.

(2) No member of the discipline committee is eligible to be a member of the professional conduct committee.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.21.

Investigation

22(1) Where the professional conduct committee is requested by the council to consider a complaint or is in receipt of a written complaint alleging that a member is guilty of professional misconduct or professional incompetence, the committee shall:

- (a) review the complaint; and
- (b) investigate the complaint by taking any steps it considers necessary, including summoning before it the member whose conduct is the subject of the complaint.

(2) On completion of its investigation, the professional conduct committee shall make a written report to the discipline committee recommending:

- (a) that the discipline committee hear and determine the formal complaint set out in the written report; or
- (b) that no further action be taken with respect to the matter under investigation.

c C-4.12CERTIFIED MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

(3) The formal complaint set out in a written report made pursuant to clause (2)(a) may relate to any matter disclosed in the complaint received pursuant to subsection (1) or the investigation conducted pursuant to subsection (1).

(4) A report signed by a majority of the professional conduct committee is the decision of that committee.

(5) The professional conduct committee shall provide, or cause the registrar to provide, a copy of a written report made pursuant to clause (2)(b) to:

- (a) the council;
- (b) the person, if any, who made the complaint mentioned in subsection (1); and
- (c) the member whose conduct is the subject of the complaint mentioned in subsection (1).

1998, c.C-4.12, s.22.

Discipline committee

23(1) The discipline committee is established consisting of at least five persons appointed by the council, one of whom shall be a member of the council appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(2) No member of the professional conduct committee is eligible to be appointed as a member of the discipline committee.

(3) Subject to this Act and the bylaws, the discipline committee may make rules regulating its business and proceedings.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.23.

Discipline hearing

24(1) Where a report of the professional conduct committee recommends that the discipline committee hear and determine a formal complaint, the registrar shall, at least 14 days before the date the discipline committee is to sit:

- (a) send a copy of the formal complaint to the member whose conduct is the subject of the hearing; and
- (b) serve notice on the member whose conduct is the subject of the hearing of the date, time and place of the hearing.

(2) The professional conduct committee shall prosecute or direct the prosecution of the complaint, but its members shall not participate in any other manner in the hearing of the complaint except as witnesses when required.

(3) The discipline committee shall hear the complaint and shall determine whether or not the member is guilty of professional misconduct or professional incompetence, notwithstanding that the determination of a question of fact may be involved, and the discipline committee need not refer any question to a court for adjudication.

(4) The discipline committee may accept any evidence that it considers appropriate and is not bound by rules of law concerning evidence.

- (5) The discipline committee may employ, at the expense of the institute, any legal or other assistance that it considers necessary, and the member whose conduct is the subject of the hearing, at his or her own expense, may be represented by counsel.
- (6) The testimony of witnesses is to be under oath or affirmation administered by the chairperson of the discipline committee.
- (7) At a hearing by the discipline committee, there is to be full right:
- (a) to examine, cross-examine and re-examine all witnesses; and
 - (b) to present evidence in defence and reply.
- (8) On application and payment of the appropriate fee, the local registrar of the court at any judicial centre shall issue writs of subpoena ad testificandum or subpoena duces tecum to:
- (a) a member whose conduct is the subject of a hearing pursuant to this Act;
 - (b) a member of the professional conduct committee;
 - (c) a member of the discipline committee.
- (9) Where a writ issued pursuant to subsection (8) is disobeyed, the proceedings and penalties are those applicable in civil cases in the court.
- (10) Where the member whose conduct is the subject of the hearing fails to attend the hearing, the discipline committee, on proof of service of the notice mentioned in subsection (1), may proceed with the hearing in his or her absence.
- (11) If, during the course of a hearing, the evidence shows that the member whose conduct is the subject of the hearing may be guilty of a charge different from or in addition to any charge specified in the formal complaint, the discipline committee shall notify the member of that fact.
- (12) If the discipline committee proposes to amend, add to or substitute the charge in the formal complaint, the discipline committee shall adjourn the hearing for any period that the discipline committee considers sufficient to give the member an opportunity to prepare a defence to the amended formal complaint, unless the member consents to continue the hearing.
- (13) The person, if any, who made the complaint pursuant to section 22:
- (a) is to be advised orally or in writing by the registrar of the date, time and place of the hearing; and
 - (b) subject to subsection (15), is entitled to attend the hearing.
- (14) Subject to subsection (15), the discipline committee shall conduct all hearings in public.
- (15) The discipline committee may exclude members of the public and the person who made the complaint from any part of the hearing when the committee is of the opinion that evidence brought in the presence of the person or persons to be excluded will unduly violate the privacy of a person other than the member whose conduct is the subject of the hearing.

Disciplinary powers

25(1) Where the discipline committee finds a member guilty of professional misconduct or professional incompetence, it may make one or more of the following orders:

- (a) an order that the member be expelled from the institute and that the member's name be struck from the register;
 - (b) an order that the member be suspended from the institute for a specified period;
 - (c) an order that the member be suspended pending the satisfaction and completion of any conditions specified in the order;
 - (d) an order that the member may continue to practise only under conditions specified in the order, which may include, but are not restricted to, an order that the member:
 - (i) not do specified types of work;
 - (ii) successfully complete specified classes or courses of instruction;
 - (iii) obtain medical treatment, counselling or both;
 - (e) an order reprimanding the member;
 - (f) any other order that the discipline committee considers just.
- (2) In addition to any order made pursuant to subsection (1), the discipline committee may order:
- (a) that the member pay to the institute, within a fixed period:
 - (i) a fine in a specified amount not exceeding $2,000; and
 - (ii) the costs of the investigation and hearing into the member's conduct and related costs, including the expenses of the professional conduct committee and the discipline committee and costs of legal services and witnesses; and
 - (b) where a member fails to make payment in accordance with an order pursuant to clause (a), that the member's licence or registration be suspended.
- (3) The registrar shall send a copy of an order made pursuant to this section to the member whose conduct is the subject of the order and to the person, if any, who made the complaint.
- (4) Where a member is expelled or suspended, the registrar shall strike the name of the member from the register or indicate the suspension on the register, as the case may be.

Professional incompetence

26 Professional incompetence is a question of fact, but the display by a member of a lack of knowledge, skill or judgment or a disregard for the welfare of a member of the public served by the profession of a nature or to an extent that demonstrates that the member is unfit to:

- (a) continue in the practice of the profession; or
- (b) provide one or more services ordinarily provided as a part of the practice of the profession;

is professional incompetence within the meaning of this Act.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.26.

Professional misconduct

27 Professional misconduct is a question of fact, but any matter, conduct or thing, whether or not disgraceful or dishonourable, is professional misconduct within the meaning of this Act if:

- (a) it is harmful to the best interests of the public or the members;
- (b) it tends to harm the standing of the profession;
- (c) it is a breach of this Act or the bylaws; or
- (d) it is a failure to comply with an order of the professional conduct committee, the discipline committee or the council.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.27.

Criminal conviction

28 The discipline committee may, by order, make any order pursuant to section 25, where:

- (a) the member has been convicted of an offence pursuant to the Criminal Code;
- (b) a report of the professional conduct committee is made to the discipline committee respecting the conviction mentioned in clause (a);
- (c) the discipline committee has given the member mentioned in clause (a) an opportunity to be heard; and
- (d) the discipline committee finds that the conduct of the member giving rise to the conviction is professional misconduct.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.28.

Duty to report

29 Where the professional conduct committee in its investigation pursuant to section 22 or the discipline committee at the conclusion of its hearing pursuant to section 24 believes that the member whose conduct is the subject of the investigation or hearing may be guilty of a criminal offence, the committee may immediately discontinue its investigation or hearing, as the case may be, and shall make a report of its findings to:

- (a) the president of the institute; and
- (b) the Deputy Minister of Justice.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.29.

Suspension

30 A judge of the court, on the application of the council, may direct that a member be suspended pending the disposition of a criminal charge where:

- (a) a criminal charge is laid against the member; and
- (b) the member has applied to the court for a stay of any disciplinary proceedings against the member.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.30.

Review by council

31(1) A member may appeal the decision or any order of the discipline committee to the council by serving the registrar with a notice of appeal within 30 days after the decision or order where:

- (a) the member has been found guilty of professional misconduct or professional incompetence by the discipline committee; or
- (b) the member is subject to an order made pursuant to section 28.

(2) An appellant shall set out the grounds of appeal in a notice of appeal mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) On receipt of a notice of appeal, the registrar shall file with the council a true copy of:

- (a) the formal complaint and notice served pursuant to section 24 or the report of the professional conduct committee pursuant to section 28;
- (b) the transcript of the evidence presented to the discipline committee; and
- (c) the decision and order of the discipline committee.

(4) The appellant or the appellant's solicitor or agent may obtain from the registrar a copy of the documents filed pursuant to subsection (3) on payment of the costs of producing them.

(5) On hearing an appeal the council may:

- (a) dismiss the appeal;
- (b) quash the finding of guilt;

- (c) direct a new hearing or further inquiries by the discipline committee;
 - (d) vary the order of the discipline committee; or
 - (e) substitute its own decision for the decision appealed from.
- (6) The council may make any order as to costs that it considers appropriate.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.31.

Appeal to court

32 A member whose conduct is the subject of an order of the council pursuant to section 31 may appeal that order to a judge of the court within 30 days after the order of the council, and section 31 applies with any necessary modification.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.32.

Effect of appeal

33 The commencement of an appeal pursuant to section 31 or 32 does not stay the effect of the decision or order appealed from, but, on five days' notice to the registrar, the appellant may apply to the court for a stay of the decision or order pending the disposition of the appeal.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.33.

Effect of expulsion

34 When a member is expelled or suspended from the institute pursuant to this Act, that member's rights and privileges as a member are removed for the period during which he or she is expelled or suspended.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.34.

Reinstatement

35(1) A person who has been expelled as a member may apply to the council for reinstatement.

(2) Subject to the bylaws, on receipt of an application pursuant to subsection (1), the council shall:

- (a) review the application; and
 - (b) investigate the application by taking any steps it considers necessary.
- (3) On completion of its investigation, the council may:
- (a) where it is satisfied that the person's subsequent conduct and any other facts warrant reinstatement, order that the person be reinstated as a member on any terms and conditions that the council considers appropriate; or
 - (b) by order, refuse to reinstate the person.
- (4) Where, on an application pursuant to subsection (1), the council refuses to reinstate the person as a member, the person, within 30 days after the date of the order, may appeal the order of the council to a judge of the court and the judge may allow or disallow the appeal.

- (5) On an appeal pursuant to subsection (4), the judge shall consider:
 - (a) the proceedings before the council on the application for reinstatement;
 - (b) the past record of the appellant as shown by the books and records of the institute; and
 - (c) the evidence taken before the council and any committee that dealt with the expulsion and application for reinstatement and the report of that committee.
- (6) A person whose application for reinstatement is refused or whose appeal of a refusal is dismissed may make another application for reinstatement, based on new information, at any time.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.35.

Practice inspection

36(1) For the purposes of clause 14(2)(k), the following conditions apply to the program of practice inspection:

- (a) the areas subject to practice inspection are to be limited to the functions of management consulting for which the institute has promulgated standards;
 - (b) no member is exempt from practice inspection;
 - (c) practice inspections are to be performed on a rotational basis to ensure that members are not inspected again until all other members engaged in public practice have been inspected unless the member is subject to reasonable follow-up reinspection as a result of issues identified in a previous practice inspection;
 - (d) practice inspection is to be limited to written office manuals, quality control procedures and practice, and client files;
 - (e) a member may require the written consent of a client for a practice inspection of the file that relates to the client, and for the purposes of this clause, the member shall request the client to give his or her consent.
- (2) The cost of the program of practice inspection is to be borne by a separate institute assessment of all members subject to practice inspection.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.36.

Review of accounts

37(1) The council shall establish a committee to deal with applications for review by persons who are liable to pay any statement of account of a member.

(2) A person who is liable to pay a statement of account of a member may apply to the committee mentioned in subsection (1) and the committee shall:

- (a) review the statement of account; and
- (b) determine whether the statement of account is fair and reasonable for the services provided by the member.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.37.

Discipline applies to prospective members

38 Sections 21 to 37 apply, with any necessary modification, to prospective members.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.38.

GENERALImmunity

39 No action lies or shall be instituted against:

- (a) members of the council;
- (b) the professional conduct committee;
- (c) the discipline committee;
- (d) any member of any committee; or
- (e) any officer, employee or agent;

of the institute for any loss or damage suffered by a person by reason of anything in good faith done, caused, permitted or authorized to be done, attempted to be done or omitted to be done by any of them pursuant to or in the exercise or supposed exercise of any power conferred by this Act or the bylaws or in the carrying out or supposed carrying out of any decision or order made pursuant to this Act or the bylaws or any duty imposed by this Act or the bylaws.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.39.

Offence and penalty

40 Every person who contravenes section 20 is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of:

- (a) for a first offence, not more than $2,000;
- (b) for a second offence, not more than $4,000; and
- (c) for each subsequent offence, not more than $6,000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months, or to both.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.40.

Limitation of prosecution

41 No prosecution for a contravention of section 20 is to be commenced:

- (a) after the expiration of 24 months from the date of the alleged offence; and
- (b) without the consent of the Minister of Justice or the council.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.41.

Report of termination of employment

42 Any employer who terminates for cause the employment of a member or a prospective member shall report the termination to the institute where the employer reasonably believes the cause is professional incompetence or professional misconduct.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.42.

Review by Legislative Assembly

43(1) One copy of every bylaw and amendment filed with the Registrar of Corporations pursuant to section 15 is to be laid before the Legislative Assembly by the minister responsible for the administration of The Business Corporations Act, 2021 in accordance with section 13 of The Executive Government Administration Act.

(2) Where any bylaw or amendment laid before the Legislative Assembly is found by the Assembly to be beyond the powers delegated by the Legislature or in any way prejudicial to the public interest, that bylaw or amendment ceases to have any effect and is deemed to have been revoked.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.43; 2010, c.B-12, s.20; 2014, c.E-13.1, s.62; 2021, c.6, s.23-26.

Record of revocation and notification

44(1) Where it appears from any Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly that any bylaw or amendment has ceased to have effect, the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly shall immediately:

- (a) forward two copies of the Votes and Proceedings to the Registrar of Corporations; and
- (b) advise him or her that the copies are forwarded pursuant to this subsection.

(2) On receipt of the copies mentioned in subsection (1), the Registrar of Corporations shall immediately:

- (a) file one of the copies with the bylaw or amendment to which it relates;
- (b) forward the other copy to the institute; and
- (c) advise the institute that the copy is forwarded pursuant to this subsection.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.44; 2010, c.B-12, s.20; 2021, c.6, s.23-26.

Annual register

45 On or before February 1 in each year, the institute shall file with the Registrar of Corporations a list, certified by the registrar to be a true list, showing:

- (a) the names of all members and all prospective members as at December 31 in the preceding year;
- (b) the addresses of the members and the prospective members mentioned in clause (a) as shown by the records of the institute; and
- (c) the respective dates of registration of the members and prospective members mentioned in clause (a).

1998, c.C-4.12, s.45; 2010, c.B-12, s.20; 2021, c.6, s.23-26.

Annual report

46 The institute shall file an annual report with the minister in the form, with the contents and in the time prescribed by the minister.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.46.

Compliance

47 Every member and every prospective member shall comply with this Act and the bylaws.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.47.

Service of notices, etc.

48(1) Unless otherwise provided for in this Act or the bylaws, any notice or other document that is required to be served pursuant to this Act may be served by:

- (a) personal service made:
 - (i) in the case of an individual, on that individual;
 - (ii) in the case of a partnership, on any partner; or
 - (iii) in the case of a corporation, on any officer or director;
 - (b) registered mail addressed to the last business or residential address of the person to be served known to the registrar.
- (2) A notice or document sent by registered mail is deemed to have been served on the seventh day following the date of its mailing, unless the person to whom it was mailed establishes that, through no fault of that person, the person did not receive the notice or document or received it at a later date.
- (3) If it is for any reason impractical to effect service of any documents in the manner provided for in subsection (1), the court may, on application that may be made ex parte, make an order for substituted service.
- (4) A document served in accordance with the terms of an order mentioned in subsection (3) is deemed to have been properly served.

1998, c.C-4.12, s.48.
