Appointment of members nominated by F.S.I.N.

3(1) For the purposes of subsection 2-12(4) of the Act, “nominated by the Federation of Sovereign Indigenous Nations” means, if the Chiefs’ Legislative Assembly is not in session or is adjourned when an appointment pursuant to that subsection is to be made, nominated by the Chief of the Federation of Sovereign Indigenous Nations on a temporary basis until the appointment is confirmed or rejected at the next session of the Chiefs’ Legislative Assembly.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the failure by the Chiefs’ Legislative Assembly to confirm at its next session the appointment of a member nominated pursuant to subsection (1) is deemed to be a rejection of the appointment.

(3) For the purposes of subsection 2-12(4) of the Act and this section:

(a) any person nominated pursuant to subsection (1) and appointed as a member of the corporation pursuant to subsection 2-12(4) of the Act ceases to hold office if his or her appointment is rejected at the next session of the Chiefs’ Legislative Assembly; and

(b) if the appointment of a person mentioned in clause (a) is rejected at the next session of the Chiefs’ Legislative Assembly, the rejection does not affect the validity of his or her initial appointment or the validity of any act or thing the person did or omitted to do as a member of the corporation or of any act or thing done or omitted to be done by the corporation while that person was a member, and everything done or omitted to be done by that person as a member or by the corporation while that person was a member is valid and effectual against all persons notwithstanding the rejection of the appointment.
