- (d) “council” means the governing council of the association;
- (e) “licensed architect” means any person who has been granted a temporary licence under this Act;
- (f) “member” means a registered or licensed architect;
- (g) “practice of architecture” or “architecture” includes any single act or series of acts in:
 - (i) the planning, designing, improving or supervision of; or
 - (ii) the supplying of plans, drawings or specifications for the erection, construction, enlargement, improvement or alteration of;buildings of any kind or nature or any part or parts thereof, for hire, gain or hope of reward;
- (h) “registered architect” means a person registered under the provisions of this Act and in good standing on the register of the association;
- (i) “student of architecture” means any person registered as a student under the provisions of this Act.

THE ASSOCIATION

3(1) The Saskatchewan Association of Architects is continued as a body corporate and shall consist of its present members and all persons who may hereafter become members in accordance with this Act.

(2) Except to the extent that they may be inconsistent with this Act or be amended or repealed by the association, the bylaws of the association in effect on the coming into force of this Act together with all amendments thereto shall continue to be bylaws of the association.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.3.

OBJECTS

Objects

4 The objects of the association are:

- (a) to ensure the public of the proficiency and competency of architects in the field of architecture;
- (b) to promote and increase by lawful means the knowledge, skill and proficiency in all things related to the practice of architecture.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.4.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership

5(1) Every member of the association has the right during the continuance of his membership to use the designation "Architect" and may use after his name in the case of a registered architect the initials "R.A." signifying "Registered Architect" or in the case of a licensed architect the initials "L.A." signifying "Licensed Architect".

(2) Any person who on the coming into force of this Act is a member of The Saskatchewan Association of Architects continues to be a member of the association.

(3) Membership in the association as a registered architect shall be granted by the council on application to it and upon payment of fees, if any, prescribed by the council if the applicant:

- (a) is a graduate from a school of architecture approved by the council and has worked for at least two years under the direction of a person or persons approved by the council;
- (b) is a member in good standing of an association, society or body of architects approved by the council; or
- (c) is a person who has successfully completed a syllabus of studies approved by the council while in the employ of a person or persons approved by the council for such period of time as may be provided in the bylaws of the association;

ARCHITECTS

c. A-25

and if the applicant:

- (d) is eighteen years of age or more;
 - (e) has passed the examinations prescribed and conducted in accordance with this Act unless he is exempted therefrom pursuant to the bylaws of the association;
 - (f) has resided in the province for at least one year immediately preceding the date of his application;
 - (g) produces evidence satisfactory to the council of identification and his qualifications; and
 - (h) has complied with such other conditions as may be prescribed by the bylaws of the association.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), membership in the association as a registered architect shall be granted by the council on application to it and upon payment of fees, if any, prescribed by the council if the applicant is a member in good standing of an association, society or body of architects approved by the council with whom the association has a reciprocal agreement relating to the admission of persons in the respective associations, societies or bodies.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, S.5.

TEMPORARY LICENCE

Temporary licence

- 6(1) The council may, upon application and payment of such fees as may be prescribed in the bylaws of the association, grant to a person not resident in the province but who is a member of an association, society or body of architects approved by the council, a temporary licence to practice as an architect in the province but only in collaboration with a registered architect.
- (2) A temporary licence granted under subsection (1):
- (a) may be granted for such period of time as may be determined by the council;
 - (b) may be restricted to the doing of a specified architectural work or building within the province;
 - (c) may be granted subject to such terms and conditions as may be determined by the council; and
 - (d) may be cancelled by the council for any breach of any of the terms and conditions thereof.
- (3) Any person who when this Act comes into force is the holder of a licence granted pursuant to The Saskatchewan Architects Act in force prior to the coming into force of this Act, but does not reside in the province shall be deemed to be the holder of a temporary licence that is issued under subsection (1) and that is subject to the provisions of subsection (2).

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.6.

POWERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Powers

- 7(1) The association may acquire and hold such property as is necessary for the purpose for which it is constituted and alienate, lease, mortgage or otherwise charge or dispose of the same.
- (2) The association may pass bylaws for the direction, management, government and the general good and welfare of the association including the admission to the study and practice of the profession of architecture, and all rules that may be deemed necessary for the maintenance of the dignity and honour of the profession.
- (3) The association may invest its funds in such investments as are authorized under The Trustee Act.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.7; 1989-90, c.54, s.6.

MANAGEMENT OF THE ASSOCIATION

Council

- 8(1) There shall be a governing council of the association to be appointed and elected in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and only members of the association resident in the province are eligible for election or appointment as members of the council.
- (2) The council shall administer the affairs of the association and may exercise such powers and carry out such duties as are vested in or imposed upon it by this Act or the bylaws.
- (3) The council shall consist of such number of persons as may be prescribed by the bylaws of the association except that:
 - (a) one member of the council shall be a member of a faculty of The University of Saskatchewan; and
 - (b) the remaining members of the council shall be members resident in the province and members of the association for at least three years immediately prior to their election or appointment as the case may be.
- (4) The member of the council who is a member of a faculty of The University of Saskatchewan shall be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council; and the other members shall be elected or appointed in such manner as may be provided by the bylaws of the association or at a special meeting of the association called for that purpose.
- (5) Except as is hereinafter otherwise provided, elected members of the council shall hold office for a term of three years.

Council continued

- 9 Those persons who on the coming into force of this Act are elected members of the council of The Saskatchewan Association of Architects shall continue to be members of the council and shall hold office until the date of the annual meeting in the third calendar year following their election.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.9.

ARCHITECTS

c. A-25

QUORUM

Quorum10 Not less than:

- (a) two-thirds of the members of the council shall constitute a quorum of the council; and
- (b) one-quarter of the registered architect members resident in the province shall constitute a quorum of the association.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.10.

VACANCIES

Vacancies

11(1) Where a vacancy of an elected member in the council occurs other than by the expiry of a term of office, the remaining elected members of the council may appoint a member of the association to fill the vacancy.

(2) A person appointed under this section shall hold office during the unexpired portion of the term of the member in whose place he is appointed.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.11.

Officers

12 The council shall annually elect from its elected members a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary and a treasurer or secretary treasurer and such other officers as may be necessary for administering the affairs of the association; and the officers so elected shall be officers of the council as well as officers of the association.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.12.

REMUNERATION

Remuneration

13 The council may fix and pay to the officers and members of the council such remuneration as may be provided in the bylaws.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.13.

MEETINGS

Calling of meetings by president

14(1) In the absence of any bylaw relating to the calling of meetings of the association or of the council the president, or in his absence, the secretary, may, by circular letter mailed to each member of the association or of the council, as the case may be, summon a meeting at such time and place as to him seems suitable.

(2) The president shall act as chairman of all meetings of the council and of the association.

- (3) In the absence of the president, the first vice-president, or in their absence, a member chosen from the members present shall act as chairman of the meeting.
- (4) At all meetings of the council or the association the chairman has a casting vote only.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.14.

EXAMINATIONS

Examinations

- 15(1) Unless otherwise provided by agreement between the association and The University of Saskatchewan the examinations referred to in clause (e) of subsection (3) of section 5 shall be under the control and direction of The University of Saskatchewan.
- (2) Any person required to pass an examination pursuant to clause (e) of subsection (3) of section 5 shall apply for such examination on a form to be supplied by The University of Saskatchewan and shall file the application with the registrar of The University of Saskatchewan together with the prescribed fee, if any, at least three months before the time fixed for the examination.
- (3) Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws of the association, the senate of The University of Saskatchewan may, after consultation with the council:
 - (a) appoint a board of examiners to examine all applicants; and
 - (b) prescribe the subjects and the time and place for the conduct of the examination.
- (4) The registrar of The University of Saskatchewan shall report the results of all examinations to the secretary of the association.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, S.15.

REGISTRATION

Registration of members and certificates of registration

- 16(1) The council shall cause to be kept by the secretary or other officer appointed for that purpose a register of the names in alphabetical order according to surnames and the addresses of all persons who are members in good standing of the association and the register shall be at all reasonable times open to inspection, free of charge.
- (2) The secretary shall, upon application, issue to any member of the association a certificate of registration in such form as the council may approve.
- (3) The register or a copy thereof duly certified by the secretary under the seal of the association without proof of the appointment or signature of the secretary is prima facie evidence in all courts and before all persons that the persons whose names are entered therein are members of the association in good standing and the absence of the name of any person from the register is prima facie evidence that the person is not a member of the association.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.16.

ARCHITECTS

c. A-25

Removal of names from register and reinstatement

17(1) The council shall direct the secretary of the association to remove a name from the register:

- (a) at the request or with the written consent of the person whose name is to be removed;
- (b) where the name has been incorrectly entered;
- (c) where a member is deceased;
- (d) where a member has been suspended or expelled; or
- (e) where a member fails to pay any sum due to the association after one month's notice to such member.

(2) The council may by resolution direct the secretary to restore to the register the name of a person removed therefrom either without fee or upon payment to the association of:

- (a) such sum not exceeding the fees or other sums in arrears and owing by the person to the association; and
- (b) such additional sum as may be prescribed by the bylaws of the association.

(3) Where the name of a person who has been suspended or expelled from the association is to be restored to the register under subsection (2), the council may by resolution direct that the name be restored subject to such terms and conditions as the council may prescribe.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.17.

DISCIPLINE

Suspension, etc., of members

18(1) The council may, in its discretion, fine, suspend, expel or otherwise discipline any member of the association:

- (a) by resolution of the council and without further inquiry where a member has been convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction anywhere of an offence which, if committed in Canada, would be punishable under the Criminal Code by indictment; or
- (b) by resolution after an inquiry made by the council or by an inquiry committee under this Act where a member has been found guilty of misconduct, unprofessional conduct, violation of the bylaws or rules of the association or of conduct unbecoming a member of the association.

(2) Unprofessional conduct, misconduct or conduct unbecoming a member of the association is a question of fact for the sole and final determination of the council and any matter, conduct or thing that in the sole judgment of the council is inimical to the best interests of the public or the association, or tends to harm the standing of the association, is unprofessional conduct or conduct unbecoming a member of the association within the meaning of this section.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.18; 1989-90, c.54, s.4.

Inquiry into complaint by member

19(1) Upon receipt of a written complaint signed by three members of the association against a member of the association alleging that the member has been guilty of conduct for which he is liable to be fined, suspended, expelled or otherwise disciplined in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the council shall cause an inquiry to be made by an inquiry committee into the complaint.

(2) The council for the purpose of subsection (1) shall appoint an inquiry committee of not fewer than three members of the association.

(3) The inquiry committee so appointed shall inquire into the facts in such manner as it may be directed by the council and shall report its finding to the council in writing.

(4) Upon receipt of a report under subsection (3) the council shall take such action with respect to the complaint as to it seems advisable.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.19.

Other inquiries by council

20(1) The council:

(a) may of its own motion where it has reason to believe; and

(b) shall where it receives written complaint other than from a member of the association requesting an inquiry and alleging;

that a member is guilty of conduct for which he is liable to be fined, suspended, expelled or otherwise disciplined under this Act, cause an inquiry to be made into the conduct of the member.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) the council may appoint an inquiry committee of not fewer than three members of the association and in such case the inquiry committee shall have and exercise all such powers as are delegated to it by the council.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.20.

Deposit by complainant

21 The council may require from any person making a complaint against a member of the association a cash deposit to cover the costs of and incidental to the inquiry and, if the complaint is found to be frivolous or vexatious, the deposit may be applied in whole or in part to cover the costs of and incidental to the inquiry, otherwise the deposit, or such portion thereof as may be determined by the council, shall be returned to the complainant.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.21.

Costs of inquiry

22(1) The council may direct that part or all of the costs of and incidental to an inquiry under section 19 or 20 be paid:

(a) by the association;

(b) by the member of the association whose conduct is under inquiry; or

(c) by the complainant.

ARCHITECTS

c. A-25

(2) The costs under subsection (1) shall be fixed by the local registrar of the Court of Queen's Bench at the judicial centre nearest to which the inquiry is held in such amount as he deems reasonable and, upon his certificate, execution may issue as upon a judgment in an action in that court.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.22.

Legal and other assistance at inquiries

23 The council may, for the purpose of an inquiry under section 19 or 20, employ at the expense of the association such legal and other assistance as may be necessary and the parties directly concerned in the inquiry may at their own expense be represented by legal counsel.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.23.

Notice of inquiry

24(1) At least fourteen days before the holding of an inquiry under section 19 or 20 a written notice shall be served upon the member of the association whose conduct is the subject of the inquiry.

(2) The notice under subsection (1) shall embody or be accompanied by a copy of the complaint made against the member or a statement of the subject matter of the inquiry, shall specify the date, time and place for holding the inquiry and shall be signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents or secretary of the association.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.24.

Service of notices or documents

25(1) Service of a notice or document required by this Act, or by any bylaw or rule made thereunder, may be effected by personal service or by prepaid registered letter addressed to the last known place of abode or business of the person to be served; and when sent by registered mail shall be deemed to have been served at the time of mailing; and in proving such service it is sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the notice or document was prepaid and properly addressed and registered and put in the post.

(2) A notice or document sent to the council shall be deemed to be properly addressed if addressed to an officer of the council at his address on the register of the association or to a person authorized by the council to receive it at his principal place of business; and a notice or document sent to a person registered under this Act shall be deemed to be properly addressed to him if it is addressed according to his address on the register of the association.

Evidence at inquiry

26 The council, in conducting an inquiry under section 19 or 20, may accept evidence by affidavit or orally or both and may admit any evidence that it considers relevant to the inquiry.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.26.

Testimony under oath at inquiry

27(1) For the purpose of an inquiry by council under section 19 or 20, the testimony of witnesses may be taken under oath, which the chairman or acting chairman of the council is hereby authorized to administer, and there shall be full rights to examine, cross-examine and re-examine all witnesses called and to adduce evidence in defence and reply.

(2) For the purpose of procuring the attendance and evidence of witnesses to an inquiry under section 19 or 20 by the council and the production of books, papers and other documents, the local registrar of the Court of Queen's Bench at the judicial centre nearest to which the inquiry is held shall upon the application of a party to the inquiry or on the application of a member of the council or the secretary of the association and on payment of the fees prescribed by the rules of the court, issue writs of subpoena ad testificandum or subpoena duces tecum; and the payment of witness fees, the proceedings and penalties in the case of disobedience to such writs shall be the same as obtain in civil cases in the Court of Queen's Bench.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.27.

Failure to attend inquiry

28 Where the member whose conduct is the subject of inquiry under section 19 or 20 fails to attend the inquiry, the council may, upon proof of service of notice referred to in section 25, proceed to hold the inquiry.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.28.

Appeal of fine, suspension, etc.

29(1) A member who has been fined, suspended, expelled or otherwise disciplined by the council under the provisions of this Act may appeal from a decision of the council to a judge of the Court of Queen's Bench in chambers at any time within thirty days from the date of receipt of the decision, and the judge may upon the hearing of the appeal confirm, vary or reverse the decision or refer the matter for further inquiry by the council and may make such order as to costs as to him seems just.

(2) The appeal shall be by notice of motion and a copy thereof shall be served upon the secretary of the association within the time limited for appeal and not less than fifteen days before the date on which the motion is returnable.

(3) Upon the request of the appellant the secretary shall furnish the appellant with a certified copy of all documents in the possession of the secretary relating to the decision appealed against.

(4) Where an appeal has been lodged in accordance with this section, the judge hearing the appeal shall hear and determine the appeal by holding a hearing de novo and for this purpose section 26 applies mutatis mutandis.

(5) No appeal lies from a decision of a judge under subsection (1).

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.29.

Discipline of students of architecture

30 All the disciplinary provisions of this Act with respect to holding inquiries, suspension, expulsion, reinstatement and appeals of a member shall apply mutatis mutandis to a student of architecture.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.30.

ARCHITECTS

c. A-25

Effect of expulsion or suspension

31 Where a member of the association is expelled from the association under this Act, all his rights and privileges as a member thereof shall cease; and where he is suspended, all his rights and privileges as a member of the association shall cease during the period of suspension.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.31.

Exemption from action

32 No action lies against the association or any member thereof or the council or any member thereof or an officer of the association for any proceedings taken in good faith or orders made or enforced under the disciplinary provisions of this Act or under the bylaws or rules of the association.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.32; 1989-90, c.54, s.4.

COMMITTEES

Committees

33(1) The council may appoint from the members of the association such committees as it considers necessary, to perform such duties and to exercise such powers as may from time to time be conferred on them by the council.

(2) The president shall ex officio be a member of all committees.

(3) The council may remove a member of a committee so appointed and appoint new or additional members.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.33.

SEALS

Seal of association

34 All deeds of the association shall be signed and sealed with the common seal of the association by such persons and in such manner as may be provided by the bylaws of the association.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.34.

Seal of member

35 Every registered architect shall have a seal or stamp, approved by the council, the impression of which shall contain the name of the architect, his place of business and the words "Registered Architect, Saskatchewan", with which he shall stamp drawings and specifications issued from his office in such manner as may be prescribed in the bylaws.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.35.

PROHIBITIONS AND PENALTIES

Prohibitions and penalties

36(1) Except as may be provided in the bylaws of the association no corporation shall be granted membership in the association or be licensed to practice architecture in the province.

(2) No person or corporation except a registered or licensed architect shall within the province:

- (a) take or make use of the name, title of designation of “architect” or any abbreviation, modification, derivative or description thereof, either alone or in connection with any other word, name, title or designation;
- (b) practise or offer to practise architecture;
- (c) hold himself or itself out as an architect or practising the profession of architecture; or
- (d) usurp the functions of an architect.

(3) A person or corporation shall be deemed to be practising the profession of architecture within the meaning of this Act who or which by advertisement, sign or statement of any kind, written or verbal, alleges or implies that he or it is, or holds himself or itself out as being, qualified, able or willing to do any of the acts set out in clause (g) of section 2 or that he or it is an architect.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.36.

Penalties

37(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who violates any of the provisions of this Act is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $100 for the first offence and not exceeding $1,000 for every subsequent offence or, in the case of a continuing offence, to a fine of not less than $25 or more than $100 for each day during the continuance of the offence or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both fine and imprisonment.

(2) Where the person convicted of an offence under this Act is a corporation the fine may be increased in the discretion of the court to a sum not exceeding $2,000.

(3) Any person or corporation convicted of an offence under this Act is not entitled to receive or to bring any action to recover any fees, rewards or disbursements for any service rendered by him or it as an architect or in the practice of architecture contrary to the provisions of this Act.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.37.

Burden of proof

38(1) In a prosecution under this Act the burden of proof that he is registered or licensed under this Act rests upon the accused.

(2) In a prosecution or legal proceeding under this Act the certificate of the secretary of the association under the common seal of the association is prima facie evidence of the facts therein certified without proof of the appointment or signature of the secretary.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.38.

NON-APPLICATION OF ACT

Non-application of Act to certain buildings

39 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, nothing in this Act applies to the erection, construction, enlargement, improvement or alteration of or to any architectural work, plans, drawings or specifications in connection with:

- (a) any building where the total cost does not exceed $30,000;
- (b) any building outside a city or town used, or to be used, for a private dwelling or for farm purposes or out buildings or auxiliary buildings in connection therewith;

where a person or corporation engaged in the planning or in the preparation of any plans, drawings or specifications or in any work of architecture in connection with any of the foregoing does not style or hold himself or itself out as an architect.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.39.

Non-application of Act to certain persons

40 Except as provided in section 36, nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to prevent or restrict:

- (a) any professional engineer, as defined in The Engineering and Geoscience Professions Act, from engaging in the practice of professional engineering, as defined in that Act;
- (b) any person from employing, retaining or contracting with any such engineer in the carrying out of any engineering work within the meaning of clause (a);
- (c) any person from passing, approving or accepting any plans, drawings or specifications in respect of any engineering work within the meaning of clause (a);
- (d) any person who is employed as an architect by a government department whose business is normally carried on in two or more provinces of Canada and who is by reason of his employment required to practise as an architect in other provinces than that of his residence.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.40; 1996, c.E-9.3, s.56.

GENERAL

Bylaws to be filed with Department of Consumer and Commercial Affairs

41(1) The association shall file with the Department of Consumer and Commercial Affairs two copies, certified by the secretary of the association, to be true copies of all bylaws hereafter made under this Act and all amendments made to such bylaws within thirty days after the making thereof.

(2) Where the association adopts a code of ethics governing its members and subscription thereto or observance thereof is a condition of membership, the code of ethics is for the purpose of this Act deemed to be a bylaw of the association.

c. A-25ARCHITECTS

(3) Where a bylaw is hereafter amended, two copies thereof shall be filed with the amendment.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.41; 1980-81, c.21, s.4.

Effective date of bylaws

42 All bylaws and amendments thereto made after the coming into force of this Act shall take effect upon the making thereof or on a date stated therein for the purpose.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.42.

Effect of failure to file bylaw

43 Failure to file any bylaw or amendment as required by this Act renders the bylaw or amendment ineffective from the expiration of the time allowed for filing the same and it shall be deemed to have been revoked.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.43.

Review by Legislative Assembly

44(1) One copy of all bylaws and amendments thereto filed with the Department of Consumer and Commercial Affairs pursuant to section 41 shall, in accordance with The Tabling of Documents Act, be laid before the Legislative Assembly.

(2) Where any bylaw or any amendment thereto laid before the Legislative Assembly is found by the Assembly to be beyond the powers of the association or in any way prejudicial to the public interest, such bylaw or amendment shall thereupon cease to have any effect and be deemed to have been revoked.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.44; 1980-81, c.21, s.4.

Record of revocation and notification

45(1) Where it appears from any votes and proceedings of the Legislative Assembly that any bylaw or amendment thereto has ceased to have effect, the Clerk of the Assembly shall forthwith forward two copies of such votes and proceedings to the Deputy Minister of Consumer and Commercial Affairs and at the same time advise him that the copies are forwarded pursuant to this subsection.

(2) Upon receipt of such copies the Deputy Minister of Consumer and Commercial Affairs shall file one of the copies with the bylaw or amendment to which it relates and forthwith forward the other copy to the association and at the same time advise the association that the copy is forwarded pursuant to this subsection.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.45; 1980-81, c.21, s.4.

Lists of members, etc., to be filed with Department of Consumer and Commercial Affairs

46(1) The association shall, before the first day of February in each year, file with the Department of Consumer and Commercial Affairs a return certified by the secretary of the association to be correct, showing:

- (a) the names and addresses and dates of admission to membership in the association of all persons who became members during the preceding year;

- (b) the names of all persons who were suspended or expelled or otherwise ceased to be in good standing during that year;
 - (c) the names of all members who were reinstated during that year;
 - (d) any known changes in the addresses of members.
- (2) Upon receipt of the return the Minister of Consumer and Commercial Affairs shall cause the list of architects on file in his department to be amended by the addition or insertion of appropriate entries in accordance with the information contained in the return.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.46; 1980-81, c.21, s.4.

Application of section 46 to students of architecture

- 47 Section 46 applies mutatis mutandis to students of architecture.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.47.

Inspection, etc.

- 48 Until the council adopts by bylaw a standard form or standard article of indenture applicable to all students of architecture employed by members of the association, the Minister of Supply and Services may, by his authorized representative, make periodical inspections and inquiries with respect to the conditions of employment of such students of architecture for the protection of their interests and the public interest, and for those purposes may recommend to the council such appropriate action as he deems advisable.

R.S.S. 1978, c.A-25, s.48; 1983, c.11, s.6.
