CHAPTER 96

An Act to incorporate The Ursuline Nuns of Bruno, Saskatchewan

(Assented to December 20, 1918)

Preamble

WHEREAS an association of nuns has existed for some time in the Province of Saskatchewan under the name of The Ursuline Nuns of Bruno, having for its objects the education and moral training of pupils in convents and schools, the instruction of prisoners, establishment and maintenance of missions and congregations for ladies, orphanages, working places, housekeeping schools, agricultural orphanages, industrial schools, deaf and dumb institutions, asylums, dispensaries, boarding houses for lame and aged persons; and

Whereas the petition presented in their name prays that the association may be vested with corporate powers and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition.

Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan, enacts as follows:

Incorporation of community

1 Sister Antonia, née Gertrude Mackey; Sister Agatha, née Maria Schrameyer; Sister Xaveria, née Juanita Sutcliffe; Sister Paula, née Sophia Holtershinken; Sister Walburga, née Maria Nuessmann; Sister Clara, née Theresa Erpenbeck; and such other persons as are now or may hereafter become, under the provisions of this Act, members of said association, shall be and are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate by the name "The Ursuline Nuns of Bruno," for the purposes and objects aforesaid.

1918-19, c.96, s.1.

Corporate powers

2 The said corporation may borrow money on mortgage of real or personal property or on promissory note.

1918-19, c.96, s.2.

Lands, etc., vested in corporation

3 All property (real and personal) belonging to, possessed or enjoyed by the above named association at the time of the passing of this Act, shall be vested in the corporation.

1918-19, c.96, s.3.

Power to acquire, sell, etc.

4 The corporation may from time to time acquire by gift, devise, bequest, transfer, purchase or otherwise, real or personal estate and may dispose of the same or any part thereof by sale, transfer, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise, and with the proceeds acquire other property, or invest the same in any security whatsoever:

Provided, however, that the said corporation shall not acquire or hold as purchasers any land except for the actual use and occupation of the corporation or a branch thereof, nor acquire or hold land for the purposes of the corporation exceeding in the whole at any one time the annual value of five thousand dollars ($5,000); and that lands, tenements or hereditaments acquired by gift, devise or bequest, and not required for the actual use and occupation of the corporation or a branch thereof or for the purposes of the corporation, the annual value of which together with the other land of the corporation exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall not be held by the corporation for a period longer than seven (7) years and within such period the same shall be absolutely disposed of by the corporation, and in case of failure to dispose of the same within such seven (7) years or within any further period to which the term may be extended by order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, such land shall be forfeited to the Crown, in right of the province.

1918-19, c.96, s.4.

Use of revenues, etc.

5 The revenues, issues and profits of all property held by the corporation shall be applied to the maintenance of its members and of the institutions carried on by it, to the construction and repair of buildings and the acquisition of property requisite for its purposes and to the promotion of works of religion, charity and benevolence.

1918-19, c.96, s.5.

Head office

6 The head office of the corporation shall be at Bruno, in the Province of Saskatchewan, or at such other place in the province as may from time to time be determined by bylaw.

1918-19, c.96, s.6.

Branches

7 The corporation may from time to time establish and maintain any number of branches and in connection therewith may appoint subordinate officers with such powers and tenure of office as may be deemed advisable.

1918-19, c.96, s.7.

Power to make bylaws, rules, etc.

8 The corporation may make bylaws, rules, orders and regulations for the government and proper administration of its property, affairs and interests, including the enforcement of discipline and the admission, removal and retirement of members, the appointment, deposition or removal of any persons holding office and generally for the internal government of its affairs.

1918-19, c.96, s.8.

Existing officers and rules

9 Until otherwise directed by bylaw, the present officers of the said association shall be officers with like powers and privileges of the corporation and the existing rules and regulations of the association shall mutatis mutandis be the rules and regulations of the corporation until changed by bylaw.

1918-19, c.96, s.9.

Power to appoint attorneys

10 The corporation may appoint one or more attorneys for the transaction of its business.

1918-19, c.96, s.10.

Execution of documents

11 Unless and until the bylaws of the corporation otherwise provide all transfers, deeds of sale, leases, mortgages, and other documents shall be executed with the seal of the corporation attested by the signature of its president, vice president and secretary treasurer, or any two of them.

1918-19, c.96, s.11.

Power to exercise any industry

12 The corporation may exercise any industry that may help to maintain its institutions and may bargain and sell the products of the same provided it conform to the laws of the province.

1918-19, c.96, s.12.

Rendering of accounts when requested

13 The corporation shall at all times when called upon so to do by the Lieutenant Governor in Council render an account in writing of its property and affairs.

1918-19, c.96, s.13.
