CHAPTER 56

An Act to incorporate The Fathers of La Salette

(Assented to June 12, 1908)

Preamble

WHEREAS Jules Morard, Auguste Dupraz and Francis Gerboud on behalf of the association of ecclesiastics known as The Fathers of La Salette have by petition represented that the association of which the said petitioners are members has existed in the province of Saskatchewan and in the North-West Territories since the year 1899 and has for its object the establishment and carrying on of missions, the erection and conduct of schools, seminaries and churches and has now in operation in the province the missions at Forget, Weyburn and Estevan now conducted by the said fathers;

And whereas the petition presented in their name prays that the said association may be vested with corporate powers and it is expedient to grant their prayer:

Therefore His Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

Incorporation

1 There is hereby constituted and established within the province a body politic and corporate under the name of "The Fathers of La Salette" which body corporate shall consist of all persons now members of the said association of ecclesiastics in this province or who shall hereafter become members thereof.

1908, c. 56, s. 1.

General rights and obligations

2 The said corporation shall have perpetual succession and a common seal; and may at all times hereafter contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded in any matter whatsoever in all courts and places whatsoever in this province.

1908, c. 56, s. 2.

Property vested in the corporation

3 All lands, tenements and hereditaments, property (real and personal) and all churches, schools, rectories and particularly the rectory at Forget aforesaid belonging to and used, held, occupied and possessed or enjoyed at the time of the passing of this Act by the said association and the lands thereto pertaining shall be and the same are hereby declared to be vested in the corporation for the purpose hereof.

1908, c. 56, s. 3.

Acquisition and alienation of property

4 The corporation may from time to time and at all times hereafter acquire by gift, demise, bequest, devise, transfer, purchase or otherwise for the benefit of the corporation any land or real or personal estate in the province; and the same or any part thereof may from time to time dispose of by sale, transfer, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise and with the proceeds therefrom may acquire other lands, tenements, hereditaments and other property (real or personal) for the use and purpose of the corporation.

1908, c. 56, s. 4.

Appropriation of revenues

5 The revenues, issues and profits of all property (real or personal) held by the corporation shall be appropriated and applied solely to the maintenance of the members of the corporation and of the institutions carried on by the corporation and the construction and repair of buildings and the acquisition of property (real or personal) requisite for the purpose of the corporation and for the advance of charity and benevolence.

1908, c. 56, s. 5.

Head office

6 The head office of the corporation shall be at Forget or such other place in the province as may from time to time be determined by the bylaws of the corporation.

1908, c. 56, s. 6.

Bylaws

7 It shall be lawful for the corporation to make bylaws, rules and regulations not contrary to the laws of the province for the government and proper administration of the affairs and property of the corporation and to repeal and amend the same from time to time.

1908, c. 56, s. 7.

Execution of documents

8 Unless and until the bylaws of the corporation otherwise provide all transfers, deeds of sale, leases and other documents in writing whatsoever of, to or relating to lands held or acquired by the corporation shall be executed with the seal of the corporation, attested by the signature of the president, vice president and secretary treasurer or any two of them.

1908, c. 56, s. 8.
