The Personal Care Homes Act

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Personal Care Homes Reporting Regulations.

Interpretation

2 In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Personal Care Homes Act;
- (b) “de-identified information” means personal information or personal health information from which information that may reasonably be expected to identify a third party has been removed;
- (c) “information” means, with respect to a personal care home, information respecting:
  - (i) whether or not:
    - (A) a licence has been issued pursuant to the Act and, if so, the details of the licence, including any terms and conditions of the licence; and
    - (B) a licence mentioned in paragraph (A) has been amended, suspended or cancelled;
  - (ii) any inspections conducted of a personal care home, including the content of any inspection reports and remedial action taken to address concerns or deficiencies; and
  - (iii) whether an administrator has been appointed pursuant to section 14.1 or 14.11 of the Act;
- (d) “personal health information” means personal health information as defined in The Health Information Protection Act;
- (e) “personal information” means any personal information within the meaning of section 24 of The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act;
- (f) “third party” means, in relation to a personal care home, a person who is not an owner or operator of the home or employed in, or associated with, the operation of the home.

Information publicly available

3(1) Subject to section 4, the minister may make publicly available all or any part of the information concerning a personal care home.

(2) The information mentioned in subsection (1) may be made publicly available by way of a website or other suitable electronic means or in any other format that the minister may authorize.

(3) A licensee shall, on request, make the information mentioned in subsection (1) available to a resident, to any person who is considering residence in the personal care home or to any individual assisting that resident or person.
