

Multi-Material Recycling Program (MMRP) – Is your Business Obligated?

Are you a Saskatchewan-based organization that supplies or distributes packaging or paper to Saskatchewan households?

(For example: flyers, food packaging, receipts that go to residential households. This does not include material that goes from business to business, to industry or to institutional sectors.)

yes

no

Not required to participate in the MMRP.

You are a steward

- Required to fully participate in MMRP
- Register with Multi-Material Stewardship Western (MMSW)
- Provide detailed tonnage report; and
- Pay stewardship fees based on tonnage.

• Are you supplied by or operated as part of a franchise, chain or banner?¹

yes²

no

• Are you a large business (over $5 million in gross annual revenues)?

yes

no

• Do you supply or distribute less than one tonne of packaging and paper?

yes

no

• Do you generate less than $2,000,000 in annual revenue?

yes

no

• Do you operate as a single point of retail sale?

yes

no

• Do you generate between $2 and $5 million in gross revenue annually?

yes

no

• Do you publish newspapers and have over $2 million in sales?

yes

Considered a small business - you are exempt.

New Program Change

- Temporary exemption ends December 31, 2016
- Full participation will be required in the program as of January 1, 2017.
- For additional information:
See MMSW website at www.mmws.ca
See ministry factsheet

- Temporary exemption ends December 31, 2016
- Ministry is working with Newspapers Canada regarding participation in MMRP

¹ Some of the tonnage in your business may be the responsibility of another steward. Ensure that you are only reporting on material that has your logo or is something you import into the province. Any items that are covered by another MMSW member are not your responsibility. Please contact MMSW for more information mmsk.ca or 1-888-980-9549.
² The parent company is responsible for determining how they will address their obligation under this program. Please contact your franchisor for more information.