*The Medical Profession Act, 1981*SASKATCHEWAN COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS — REGULATORY BYLAW AMENDMENTS

The Regulatory Bylaws of the College of Physicians and Surgeons are amended by adding section 26.2 as follows:

“26.2 Infection Control in Medical Clinics

- (a) the following bylaw has been developed to ensure that clinics in which members practise are subject to review to ensure that they comply with infection control guidelines, to protect patients from unnecessary risk of transmission of disease and to provide recommendations, where appropriate, related to infection control;
- (b) in this bylaw “premises” means a location where a member practises medicine, and which is subject to a review under clause (d);
- (c) in this bylaw “assessor” means a person or persons appointed to perform a review under clause (d);
- (d) if the Registrar receives information that, in the Registrar’s opinion, indicates that there may be a risk to patient health due to inadequate infection control measures in a location where a member practises medicine, the Registrar may appoint one or more persons to review the premises and the infection control measures used in the premises and report whether appropriate infection control measures are in place;
- (e) the assessor appointed pursuant to clause (d) may make any inspection, investigation or inquiry that the assessor considers necessary, which may include any or all of the following:
 - (i) reviewing records of the premises related to infection control;
 - (ii) interviewing members who practise at the premises related to infection control;
 - (iii) interviewing staff who work at the premises related to infection control;
 - (iv) conducting a review of the infection control practices;
 - (v) conducting a physical examination of the premises, including a review of any equipment within the premises;
 - (vi) removing any documents or equipment from the premises if, in the opinion of the assessor, that is necessary for the purpose of the inspection;
 - (vii) copying any documents, including any documents in electronic form, if, in the opinion of the assessor, that is necessary for the purpose of the inspection;
 - (viii) testing any equipment and taking any samples for the purpose of testing;
- (f) an inspection may be conducted with, or without, notice to members who practise at the premises;
- (g) every member shall co-operate fully in a review of the premises, which co-operation shall include:
 - (i) allowing assessors to enter and inspect the premises; and
 - (ii) allowing assessors to have access to inspect all books, records, correspondence and other documents or electronic data related to infection control, including the right to make copies thereof; and
 - (iii) providing all information requested by the assessor;
- (h) the assessor will provide a report to the Registrar related to the infection control measures in the premises. Such a report may include recommendations for improvement of infection control measures in the premises;

- (i) the Registrar may require any member who practises at the premises to provide a report to the Registrar related to implementation of recommendations from the assessor. Such a report must be provided within a time that is established by the Registrar;
- (j) the Registrar may direct a further review of the premises and the infection control measures used in the premises and, if such a review is directed, clauses (a) through (i) apply to such further review;
- (k) it is unbecoming, improper, unprofessional or discreditable conduct for a member to fail to fully co-operate with a review;
- (l) if, in the opinion of the Registrar, there is or has been a significant risk to the health of patients or the public disclosed by the inspection, the Registrar will notify Public Health”.
