PUBLIC NOTICES/AVIS PUBLICS

*The Architects Act, 1996*THE SASKATCHEWAN ASSOCIATION OF ARCHITECTS — REGULATORY BYLAW AMENDMENTS

The Regulatory Bylaws 21, 24, 25 and 27 of the Saskatchewan Association of Architects are hereby repealed and replaced by the following:

“Bylaw No. 21 — Calculation of Fees by Time and Expenses

21.01 As an alternative to the percentage of the cost of the work, the fees to be charged shall be based on the time and expenses expended, according to the records of the architect. It is recommended that the charges shall be at a rate of not less than $130.00 per hour with the hourly rate to be indexed to the consumer price index for the personal service of the architect plus disbursements and salaried costs at 2.5 times the payroll. “Payroll” shall include the salary of the architect’s personnel engaged on the project, plus the architect’s cost of mandatory and customary contributions and benefits related thereto, which include all contributions made with respect to Workers’ Compensation, Employment Insurance, Canada Pension and all other statutory benefits and shall include sick leave, holidays, vacations, pensions and the like. “Disbursements” shall include the design and general review of all engineering services including structural, mechanical, electrical and the like. Where an architect is consulted with regard to matters of which he/she has special knowledge and experience the recommended rate for such consultation is $160.00 per hour.

“Bylaw No. 24 — Expert Witness

24.01 When called upon to appear as an expert witness in a court of law or an arbitration, the recommended fee for such appearance is at least $1100.00 per 6-hour day or part of a day, or $200.00 per hour with the hourly rate to be indexed to the consumer price index, plus the cost of transportation and living where the proceedings are remote from the place of business of the architect.

“Bylaw No. 25 — Partial Services

25.02 Approved partial services and charges:

1 Where a client requires research data as to the feasibility and probable cost of a project which is contemplated but not developed to the point of required design, sketches or preliminary drawings, the architect may assemble data as to probable cubic content, tentative estimates of costs, outlined diagrams of plans and preliminary pictorial representation. The architect may prepare drawings necessary for presentation to a committee of adjustment in order to establish building lines and other restrictions on property owned or about to be purchased by the client. The architect’s charges shall be based on the time and expenses expended, according to the architect’s records. It is recommended the charges be at a rate of $130.00 per hour with the hourly rate to be indexed to the consumer price index for the personal service of the architect plus disbursements and salaried costs of 2 1/2 times the payroll.

“Bylaw No. 27 — Advertising

27.01

1 A member may advertise or offer his services to any person only in accordance with this bylaw.

2 A member may:

1 display the member’s name and illustrations of a member’s work at the member’s place of business;

2 promote or advertise the member’s abilities provided that:

1 the advertising serves the public interest by reporting accurate and factual information which neither exaggerates nor misleads;

2 the advertising does not impair the dignity of the profession;

3 statements do not contain criticisms of other members either directly or indirectly;

4 fees are neither quoted nor implied;

5 when a member has been retained on the usual basis to design a specific project, the member may display those designs by publishing them in various media or otherwise presenting them to the public, if the name of the project and the name of the member are prominently displayed on each drawing;

6 all advertising shall state that the member is a member of the SAA and bear the seal of the SAA.

3 Erect a sign bearing the member’s name and address on work which the member has under construction in conformance with Bylaw No. 30”.

Certified this 3rd day of April, 2004 to be a true copy of the amended bylaws to become effective as of the date of enactment and upon publication in The Saskatchewan Gazette.
